A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Editor's Column

We place in the hands of the members and friends of the Chapel a copy of the first issue of "The Courier." A church periodical of this character is a long-felt need, both to the clergy and to the communicants. We need just such a medium as this to convey information to the members, which we cannot adequately present in the church service, and the members need to have before them some reminder of the various activities and organizations of the Chapel.

This is an experiment. May it become a great source of blessing and a necessity! If it is to become a success, each must help. The editors ask you to make suggestions, and any items of information that will be of interest to the members and of benefit to the Chapel will be gratefully received.

Kindly take "The Courier" home with you. Read it and distribute it among your friends. We will very gladly supply you with extra copies. We ask you to take an interest in "The Courier" and in the work of the Chapel.

We start our work this fall with an early celebration of the Holy Communion, on the first Sunday in October, which will now be a regular service each Sunday morning, at 8 o'clock.

St. Paul said: "For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye proclaim the Lord's death till He come."

The Holy Communion is the greater of the two sacraments the church regards as generally necessary to salvation, because it stretches so far and wide, and takes in so much. By it Christians are held together in unity and love, for before they partake of it, they are to repent of their sins, and if they have aught against any, they are to lay it on the altar of His heart and forgive, and be in compassionate feeling with all of God's creatures.

There are often so many petty differences amongst us that estrange parent and child, brother and sister, friend and friend, which when sifted are really very trifling, and yet we allow them to exist, and are kept away from the altar rail when we should kneel side by side, and eat the same bread and drink the same cup, "bearing one another's burdens, and so fulfilling the law of Christ."

At this feast Christ is especially present, because it is a feast for souls. And how many are guests there as frequently as they should be? Of course there are times when keeping away from the Lord's Table may be justifiable, but frequently it is through carelessness or not having the desire. Such a habit is unchristian. When we abstain from natural nourishment for any length of time we soon find we are growing faint and weak. Just so with the spiritual life; and such long-continued abstinence causes us to lose much of God's grace.

How sweet it is to repair to God's Temple early in the morning, and, kneeling at His altar, meet Him and be fed before we partake of the nourishment for the body—before the trials of the day begin, while the soul is in tune! Then are we better prepared to go into the world to face the discouragements and fight the battles.

Let each member of this Chapel make an earnest effort to be present at this service as frequently as possible. "Where there is a will, there is a way," and see if their own spiritual life and that of the Chapel is not greatly deepened.

The third Sunday morning of each month will be regarded as a Corporate Communion of all officers, teachers and helpers of all of our organizations.

We wish every member of this congregation to belong to at least one parish organization. If you are not already a member of one such organization, why not? Don't you think that you can find a short time each week to do a little of the Lord's work in your own parish? If you do think so, kindly present your name to the Minister-in-Charge and have a little talk on the matter with him, so that you can become more fully identified with the Chapel at once.

Social Work

During the past season permanent positions have been secured for fourteen persons.

Medical treatment has been provided for fourteen, and four have been placed in hospitals.

The University Settlement has been most kind in rendering prompt assistance whenever called upon, and we are happy to say that every case has been most successful, and well cared for.

We will be very glad to help any one at any time, if they will call upon us at the Guild House between the hours of one and two P. M.

Holiday House

Probably a larger number than for some years past of our women and girls enjoyed an outing at the Holiday House at Sellersville. The spacious house, situated on the top of the hill, commands a large view of the surrounding country and affords an opportunity to many a tired and worn-out mother for quiet, rest and a breath of God's pure air. The people of the parish are very fortunate in having opportunities like this, and the Boys' Camp open to them. And yet so many of them are like people going to sea, or like the ten lepers in the Gospel story—they forget the return of thanks. We know they are very grateful, but it is pleasant to hear it expressed.

Mr. Warfield and Miss Taylor were amongst those present at the opening service conducted by the rector, and greatly enjoyed their first visit.

Boys' Camp

A number of our younger boys enjoyed two weeks at the camp at North

Asbury. This year the groups were rather larger than usual, being about twenty-five boys to a group. This was done with a view to giving every boy the same length of time in camp. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard had charge, and the success of the camp testifies to their splendid efforts in the care of the boys. The camp was opened by a group of our boys, most of whom belonged to the Fife and Drum Corps, and took their instruments with them.

Unfortunately the scare of infantile paralysis caused the camp to be closed much sooner than usual, which deprived some boys, from the Prince of Peace Chapel, of their visit. This, it is hoped, will not happen in the future. All who did go had a jolly good time.

Amongst the visitors were the Rev. Messrs. Warfield, Long and Huggins; also Dr. Roberts, of the vestry.

The Mothers' Meeting

The Mothers' Meeting was held every Thursday afternoon, and we were glad to have so many mothers with us. The meetings were opened with prayer and a short address by Mr. Warfield, and an occasional talk by Miss Taylor.

Sewing was given out, and we were indeed proud of the amount of work accomplished in the few weeks. One hundred and twenty garments were made, three baby baskets finished and sent to the mothers of the parish; twenty-four garments were sold and the money given to the Mothers' Fund.

Forty garments were sent to Deaconess Williamson, Ivy Depot, Va., and a contribution was given to the Alaska box.

Mrs. Sheppard entertained by singing and playing familiar airs.

The prayers of the mothers were a great help to the parish and God indeed blessed the meetings.

We closed on July 19, with a splendid picnic, at which twenty-five were present.

It has been thought best to hold the meetings this year, in the evenings, as it is so much more convenient for most of the mothers. We do hope to have a large and enthusiastic membership and a happy gathering each week.

All the mothers of the parish are cordially invited to be present and bring any friends who have no church-home. We ask that as many as can come a little early will do so, to attend a short and earnest prayer meeting, which will be held at 7:15 that same evening.

We all need to give more time to prayer and meditation, in seeking the will and love of our Heavenly Father, and asking His strength and guidance in our lives, our work and our homes this coming winter. It will bring us closer together and nearer to Him, creating a deeper and truer love, one for another.

The Junior Auxiliary

Branch No. 3

The Junior Auxiliary was organized on March 23, 1916. Miss Gertrude Ely opened the first meeting with an address on "Foreign Missions."

The membership increased from fifteen to thirty.

Four Mission Talks were given by Miss Gertrude Ely, Miss Ellen Morris, Miss Hubbard, Mrs. William W. Arnett.

The girls did splendid work, making many attractive workbags for the slave girls in Shanghai, China, and six large doll houses which are to be given to the hospitals in this city.

They also contributed to a box which was sent to Nenana, Alaska.

The closing meeting was held in July with a social, at which prizes were given out for the best work by the younger members.

Members of this branch will be from fifteen years upward.

Branch No. 2

Branch No. 2 of the Junior Auxiliary will be organized on the first Saturday afternoon in October, at two

P.M. It is for the younger members, between the ages of ten years and fourteen. They will elect their own officers, have their own entertainments and conduct their own meetings. We will be glad to welcome all who would care to join and hope for a large attendance.

We want to do all we can in the work for Jesus Christ, and we need every willing hand to help us. If we give of ourselves, cheerfully and eagerly, God will help us and bless us in our work.

Little Helpers' Branch No. 1

The Little Helpers' Branch, No. 1, of the Junior Auxiliary, was organized on February the third. Mrs. Edward LaBow Allen, of St. Peter's Church, Germantown, opened the first meeting. The membership grew rapidly. There was an average increase of five each meeting, until at the end of the season sixty-two names were on the roll. The general attendance averaged from twenty-two to twenty-seven children between the ages of three and twelve.

The work accomplished by the little ones within the three months consisted of eighty-seven scrap-books, and the covering of one thousand four hundred picture post-cards. Mission talks were given each week; prayers, hymns and texts were committed to memory.

Prizes were awarded to three girls and three boys for the best work, regular attendance and good behavior. These were presented at the closing party on Saturday, May seventh.

Through the Little Helpers eighteen children have been added to our Sunday School, and seven were baptized. They also contributed towards the mission box sent to Alaska. The work reported and finished this year will be sent to the Church House the first week in November.

Forty-two of our children were present at the Church House, Twelfth and Walnut streets, May 12. We had the largest representation of the Little Helpers. Bishop Rhinelander addressed the meeting. Reports were read of the work done by each Auxiliary, and it is hoped that we will be able to accomplish much more this winter, so that we may be proud of our next report.

We will gladly receive used picture post-cards, birthday cards, valentines, etc., for this branch of the work.

Notes

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion every Sunday morning at eight o'clock. Every Holy Day at ten o'clock.

During the summer the exterior woodwork of the Sunday School building and Guild House has been repaired and painted.

During his vacation Mr. Warfield had charge of the services at St. Peter's Church, Germantown. This is where Mr. Warfield was assistant before he came to the Chapel.

On August first Rev. Arthur D. Jones became assistant at the Chapel. Previous to that he was assistant at the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity.

Furniture, carpets and pictures have recently been given to the Guild House, so that now it looks very much like a home. We wish every member to use it as his or her Church Home this season, and use it often. It is open every day until ten P. M.

Mr. Theodore Leonard left us last month to resume his studies at William and Mary College, Virginia. This year he takes with him Mr. Frank Sproul, who will be a student at the same institution.

During the summer Mr. Frank Sproul acted as Lay Reader in the Chapel under license from the bishop.

The opening meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday evening, October 19, at 8 o'clock. An address on "Missions" will be given by Miss Mary Blakiston, of Holy Trinity Church. Every member of the Auxiliary is earnestly requested to be present at this meeting.

A Corporate Communion for all workers of the Chapel will be celebrated Sunday, October 15, at 8 A. M. Every worker of the Chapel, whatever his or her position may be, is earnestly urged to be present at this service, and to begin the season's labors by receiving the Lord's Supper.

A prayer meeting for women will be held in the Sunday school building every Thursday evening, from 7:15 to 8 P. M., beginning October 5. It is hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity to enrich their spiritual lives.

It is proposed to organize a volunteer choir to assist at the various services of the Chapel. We ask those from ten years of age and upward to report to the choirmaster, in the Guild House, Friday evening, October 20, at seven P. M. Regular rehearsals will be held on Friday evenings prior to that of the regular choir.

A Men's Bible Class is to be organized to meet on Sunday mornings at ten o'clock in the Guild House. We most earnestly hope that the men of the parish will enroll as members, and endeavor to bring as many more men with them as possible.

The Boys' Fife and Drum Corps will not be opened until November first.

The offerings on Sunday, October 15, will be devoted to the Sustentation Fund of the diocese. There are certain old parishes in the diocese which were founded a century or more ago. They are situated, mainly, in the rural districts, where conditions make it practically impossible for the few scattered communicants to entirely support themselves. The Sustentation Fund is provided by the offerings given by the self-supporting parishes of the diocese. It does not seem quite fair to let these old historic parishes sink back in the class of missions, and therefore you are asked to make this offering as large as possible.

Holidays in October

We commemorate during the month of October the lives of three Saints of the Church—St. Luke the Evangelist on October 18, and St. Simon and St. Jude on October 28.

St. Luke was a physician and a companion of St. Paul. He was a man of peculiar faithfulness. During the persecution in Rome the great Apostle to the Gentiles, writing to his churches, states that "Luke only is with me." It was St. Luke who gave us the Third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles—"the Gospel of the Holy Ghost."

Tradition says he was an artist. In a sense it is true, for his writings are the best word pictures we have of the earthly life of Jesus Christ and of the history of the Early Church.

In his writing there is no coloring of human prejudice or partiality. His statements are more correct than those of any other writer in the New Testament.

Of St. Simon we know very little. He was surnamed Zelotes, and also the Canaanite.

St. Jude is named Thaddeus and Lebbaeus, and once is distinguished from the traitor by the suffix, "not Iscariot." He was a brother of our Lord "after the flesh." He gave to us the Epistle of St. Jude, which is interesting in that he makes references to certain writings which for ages were unknown to the Christian church, but which have lately been discovered.

A Parish Prayer

O Lord, look down in mercy and love upon our Parish. Forgive us our sins. Root out from among us especially the deadly sins of the flesh. Turn many souls to Thee; may all our children be taught of Thee; and keep those who are walking in the way of life steadfast unto the end. Give patience to the sick and afflicted, and sanctify their sufferings to them.* Bless to us all the services and means of grace. Vouchsafe to the Clergy of the Parish Thy daily help.* Prosper all the departments of parish work.* Move Thy people to give as Thou hast given to them. Grant to us all a pure intention and patient faith; and while we plant and water, do Thou give the continual increase; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The library and reading rooms are open every evening where good books and periodicals may be found. The boys will be glad to know that the Boy Scout Magazine, called "Boy's Life," may now be found on the table. It contains interesting accounts of what the scouts are doing for their country at this critical time; stories of out-door life and other matters that every boy loves. Be sure to hunt it up and read it, boys.

Sunday School

On the first Sunday in October the Sunday School resumed its sessions at 2.45 P. M. The Rector, Dr. Tomkins, was present and gave an encouraging and inspiring address. The attendance was very good and has since been growing. The scholars voted, as they always do, in the dispensing of the funds, to support a scholarship for the education of a French orphan for a year. Also to have a scholarship, to the amount of $50, in the Blue Ridge Industrial School in the mountains of Virginia. In addition to these the school gave the income from the advertisements in the Courier to the Board of Missions to go toward the apportionment of the Chapel. As three-fourths of the income from the advertisements in the Courier go to the Sunday School fund the scholars can increase greatly the missionary work by getting advertisements.

We have been successful in having two new teachers for the school. Miss Robertson will have charge of the primary class and Mrs. Clark a class of boys. We are still in need of several more teachers and we hope to hear very soon from any who are willing to offer their services in carrying on this most important branch of the church work.

A reward has been offered, of a trip to Valley Forge, to any scholar who will bring three new scholars. So, boys and girls, get busy and win a trip to the historic battlefield.

A new system of lessons has been introduced, the International Lessons uniform series. We trust these will prove a stimulus to both teachers and scholars.

Another new feature is the lesson illustrated with colored lantern slides given in the Men's Bible Class, held every Sunday morning at ten o'clock in the Guild House, and led by one of the clergy. Every man and older boy of the congregation is urged to attend this class and bring a friend. The attendance is growing encouragingly.

The members of this class will act as ushers at the church services. Come next Sunday.

Saints' Days

There are two Saint Days this month. All Saints' Day which comes November 1st and St. Andrew's Day November 30th.

All Saints' Day was known long ago in England as All-Hallows and was introduced because it was not possible to keep a separate day for each saint. It was placed on November 1st, about the year 835, because this day, or the eve of it, had been observed as a festal one by heathen nations and the policy of the early church was to supplant, as far as possible, these heathen festivals by Christian observances.

St. Andrew's Day is kept in commemoration of the Apostle of our Lord who brought his brother Simon Peter to Christ, and later, in St. John 12:20, introduced the Greeks to our Lord. Enthused by the missionary spirit of St. Andrew, a young men's Bible Class of St. James Church, Chicago, organized themselves into a Brotherhood entitled The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, with two rules to govern them. First, each member pledged himself to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men; secondly, each member was to make an earnest effort each week to bring some one nearer Christ through the hearing of the Gospel.

The newly formed Brotherhood adopted for the badge the button seen on so many men's coats, black ground, with a red and yellow cross on it, in shape of an X, the symbol of the Cross on which tradition tells us that St. Andrew was crucified. The 32d Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has just closed its session here in Philadelphia. There were nearly 1500 delegates in attendance, some from as far as Seattle, Washington, and Panama.

One of the most inspiring events of the Convention was the Corporate Communion at the Church of The Holy Trinity, with 800 men partaking of the Blessed Sacrament. For that matter the whole convention was full of prayer and service. The speakers were each an expert on his subject, and those who heard them speak surely returned to their own parishes with a greater determination to pray more and work more than ever for the spread of Christ's Kingdom on earth. The Convention next year hopes to meet at Northfield, Mass., the home of the school founded by the great D. L. Moody.

We have a probationary Chapter in our Parish. Members, let us get together and make our Chapter a real live organization in the Parish and have our delegates at Northfield, next fall, to represent us.

"DO IT NOW."

Honor Roll

We wish to have the names of all of our boys who have gone into the military and naval service of the country. We hope they will write us from time to time and keep us posted, as far as possible, of their movements. We wish to post their names with those gone from the whole parish on our bulletin boards, publish them in the Courier and remember them in our prayers. Besides we would like to write to them personally and send them copies of the Courier. We recently had an interesting letter from Daniel Littleley, "somewhere in France" and also from Saml. Scott at Fort Hancock in Georgia. We hope all will write to us. We add these names to those published last month:

William John Griffith and Frederick E. Donaghy, Wissahickon Barracks, Company 12, Cape May, N. J.

Carl O. C. Klose, Ambulance Corps, Section 58.

George Ponton, Royal Engineers, Canada.

Bazaar

Don't forget the date set for the Bazaar. Friday, November 23d, afternoon and evening. Every organization of the parish is expected to take part and have a table or booth. Get your friends interested at once and make it a success. The proceeds are to be divided among the different organizations to carry on their work.

Music

The old fashioned hymn service, given under the leadership of the choir-master, was well attended and every one joined heartily in the singing of those hymns that they love so well. The choir will have something special each month. Watch the notices and be sure to be present.

Mr. Potter will give an organ recital every Sunday evening just before the Evening Service. This affords an excellent opportunity for lovers of organ music to become familiar with choice selections from the best composers.

Gaul's Holy City will be sung by the choir this evening, Sunday, October 28th. The music will be augmented by a harp. Be sure to be present and bring a friend.

Boys' Gymnasium

The boys' gymnasium opened the first Monday in October, with 52 boys under the care of Mr. Ward Beam, who has taken charge of this work in the Chapel for some years.

We hope every boy will take a keen interest and do the very best he can. This physical training will mean so much in the development of the boy and will be of great value to him in the years to come.

Four dozen wooden guns have been purchased for the use of the boys in drill work. This military feature will be a new one and will appeal to all of the boys.

Notice

Every worker in the parish is invited to attend a service in Holy Trinity Church on the evening of all Saints' Day, November 1st. After the brief service and address by the Rector, there will be a social gathering in the Parish House on Twentieth Street. Let us have a large attendance from the Chapel and meet the workers from the Parish Church and the other chapels that we may get to know each other the better and interchange ideas regarding our work.

Girls' Guild

Miss Eliza Simmons will be with the Girls' Guild again this season and she will have Miss Jennie Long, Miss Ethel Donaghy, Miss Gladys Thomas and Miss Eleanor Vogels to assist her.

The girls meet every Tuesday evening to work for some charitable object and on Friday evening the gymnasium class meets. This class is open to all girls of the Chapel. It affords opportunities that every young girl should grasp, especially those who are working or going to school, by giving them exercises in proper breathing and the development of muscles that under ordinary conditions are not brought into full use. Let every girl join at once.

May Riley,
Secretary.

Notes

On the first of October the Rev. Edgar Edwards, who had been serving on the clerical staff of Holy Trinity Church, started in his work as assistant at the Chapel. We wish every member to get acquainted with Mr. Edwards and in due course of time he hopes to meet you in your homes.

Members of the Fellowship attended service Sunday evening, October 21st, in a body. At the reading of the second lesson, which was 1 Cor. 13, the men stood and joined in the reading. The "Star Spangled Banner" and "My Country Tis of Thee" were sung. Lieut. S. B. Harris delivered a strong and inspiring sermon. We invite the men to come again at an early date.

Two groups of sailors have been entertained during the past month by some of the young ladies. The wholesome entertainments are much appreciated and enjoyed by our sailor boys.

It was a great pleasure to have the Rev. Robert A. Mayo, rector of Christ Church, West River, Md., and one time minister of this Chapel, to preach here Sunday evening, October 14th. Many of the former parishioners were here to greet him.

Several of the ladies during the summer have been working for the Queen Mary's Guild, at St. Mark's Parish House, as the work at the Chapel was closed during the summer months. Since October 1st eleven pairs of felt slippers have been delivered and more material is under way. We are glad to have all the English Women interested in this humanitarian work.

All boys desiring to become scouts see Mr. Warfield.

A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

These classes will be open to all who wish to attend, whether they have been confirmed or not. Let those who have not openly ratified their baptismal vows pray earnestly over the matter and come forward this year.

Editors' Column

The keeping of the Advent season is an ancient one in the Church. Just how old is not known. In its present form it is said to go back to about the seventh century. In Spain it was probably observed in the fourth century as a fast. The early Church very naturally looked forward to an early return of the Saviour to the earth. Some of those Christians even gave up their vocations with a view to preparing themselves for this second coming. One of the epistles to the Thessalonians shows that for this it was necessary for St. Paul to exhort them with them.

It is a season of meditation not only on the remembrance of the birth of Christ and the happy tidings connected therewith, but a looking forward to the second coming of the Christ as a Judge.

It is a study in eschatology. Death, Judgment, Hell and Heaven form the themes of the solemn meditations. "Before the Son of man shall be gathered all nations." "I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God." "Every one shall give an account of himself to God."

This great war is causing many men to think more of God and their relation to Him. Many are being brought closer to Him through the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit and its unbounded love of Jesus. This world will be a more united world. It will be a better world, purified in its cauldron of battle. What are we doing to help make it better? It is mighty solemn to think of ourselves as created in the image of God's immortality.

We can make this season more profitable than ever before by more concentrated thought and prayer. Let each of us do so.

Saints' Days

The month of December given in five "Red Letter" days. December 21, St. Thomas; December 25, Christmas; December 26, St. Stephen; Dec. 27, St. John, and December 28, The Innocents.

St. Thomas Day is kept in honor of the memory of one of our Lord's twelve disciples. St. Thomas was surnamed Didymus, from a Greek word signifying a twin; which meaning is also attached to the Syriac word Thauma, whence is derived his name Thomas. It was customary with the Jews, when travelling into foreign countries, to assume to themselves a Greek or Latin name of great affinity.

St. Thomas was by profession a fisherman, and for some time partner with St. Peter.

The most remarkable event recorded of him in Scripture is his sudden conviction of the truth of our Lord's resurrection, after expressing the most obstinate incredulity. The sphere of his Apostolic labors was chiefly in Parthia. He declared Christ to the Medes and Persians, and ancient writers tell us that he preached in India and Ethiopia. He finally suffered martyrdom in India.

In those churches where liturgical colors are used on vestments, etc., St. Thomas calls for red, which typifies the blood which was shed by martyrdom for Christ.

Christmas Day, the festival of the Nativity of Christ. This seems to have been originated in the very earliest times of Christianity, and to have always been reverently observed by the universal church. The giving and receiving of presents at this time is in commemoration of God's great gift to mankind of His Son. God's gift was for peace and happiness on earth. When we think of it, do not our Christmas gifts often represent anything but peace and happiness? For we buy things that we cannot afford to make a show and the gifts are too often the kind which do not carry peace nor happiness to any one.

It is interesting to know that there are records of sermons being preached on Christmas Day as early as the third century A. D.

St. Stephen's Day, Dec. 26, is the day on which the church commemorates the virtues and death of Stephen, the martyr. St. Stephen was one of the seven deacons of the early church, spoken of in Acts, 6th chapter. He was the first of Christ's disciples to suffer martyrdom for the Lord.

This festival is immediately followed by those of St. John, and of the Holy Innocents.

St. John, the Evangelist's Day, is appointed for the commemoration of the "beloved disciple." His name signifies the messenger of glad tidings. His brother James and he were surnamed by Jesus, the Sons of Thunder, for this peculiar zeal for His honor. He was the most beloved by our Saviour of all the disciples. The Liturgical colors for St. John's Day are white, because he did not lose his life for Christ, and tradition tells us that he was the only one of the "Twelve" that died a natural death. St. John is called a martyr like the rest, but a martyr in will not in deed.

St. Thomas and St. Stephen were martyrs in deed and will. St. John in will, for he willingly suffered for Christ, but never lost his life.

The Innocents are martyrs in deed, but not in will, for they knew not.

These were the little babes who suffered death under the cruel decree of Herod, who thought by a general slaughter of young children to have caused the death of the infant Jesus. There are some people today who are just as stupid as Herod; by their action and lives they appear to forget that God still rules this world and all that are in it.

It is lovely that the Feast day of the Innocents should come so close to the birthday of our Saviour. They suffered as babes to glorify the babyhood of their Saviour, your Saviour and mine; thus the 28th day of December should be a blessed day to mothers who have dear little ones. What a grand day for baptism of infants.

Woman's Auxiliary

Reports were given at the monthly meeting by Miss Burck and Mrs. Dougherty representing us at the Church House on the Diocesan and Domestic Committees. We hope more of the women of the Chapel will take an interest in this important woman's work and join us. We meet the fourth Thursday in each month, and we will be glad to see you here.

At our last meeting Mrs. S. G. Morton Maule was present and gave us an interesting and spiritual talk on missions. The speaker for this month will be announced later.

The Rev. Samuel Steinmetz, of the Prince of Peace Chapel, will be the preacher at the morning service December 16th.

Musical

The presentation of Gaul's Holy City October 28th was most successful in every respect, drawing the largest attendance of the year.

Among those present were a number of music lovers, who were enthusiastic in their praise of the work of the choir.

The beauty of the singers' work was much enhanced by the addition of the harp to the usual organ accompaniment. Mr. Vincent Fanelli, solo-harpist of our Philadelphia Orchestra, played with wonderful finish, adapting himself perfectly to the style and tone of the singers. All of the soloists were in good form and sang admirably.

The Elijah program was beautifully given by the choir Sunday, November 25th.

From time to time the choir will sing musical service made up of the works of some individual composer. Many men, whose lives have been dedicated to musical art, have written on sacred themes in a spirit of earnest devotion and reverence. The result of their inspiration cannot fail to be uplifting. On December 2, at the evening service, the entire anthem music will be from the works of Dr. J. Varley Roberts, a distinguished English composer, who is still living.

Dr. Adam Geibel's sacred cantata, "The Nativity," which was the first musical work sung by our choir boys, will be given at the evening service December 23rd. The composer has been invited to be present.

Christmas morning Adolph Adams' inspired Christmas song, "O Holy Night," will be presented in its original form at the offertory.

A patriotic service, similar to the one we had in the spring, was held November 11th. The choir, under Mr. Potter, did excellent work. The national anthems of the allied nations were sung where it was possible. In instances where suitable English translations could not be obtained, the anthems were played by Mr. Potter at the organ recital preceding the service. A stirring address on duty toward God and duty toward country was delivered by Rev. Mr. Warfield.

The Diplomatic Corps was well represented by its members, who occupied front seats and took part in the service. Among those present were Mr. P. Hegeaman, Consul General for Belgium; Mr. A. S. Anderson, Consul for Belgium; Mr. Victor Fonteneau, Acting Consul for France; Mr. Horatio C. Newcomb, Vice-Consul for Spain; Mr. W. R. Tucker, Vice-Consul for Russia, and Mr. J. J. Lewis, Consul for Cuba, and representative from Italian Consulate, Mr. Christian Moe, Consul from Norway. Others who were invited were detained by important diplomatic business. The attendance was large and all joined in the singing.

Provincial Synod

The women's meetings of the third session of the Provincial Synod of Washington were held in our Guild House and Sunday School Building Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, November 20th, 21st and 22nd. There were delegates from Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and District of Columbia. Seventy-one delegates were registered and 112 visitors, but there were many visitors who did not register. Classes were conducted in educational work in the various departments of Sunday School, Junior Auxiliary and Girls' Friendly, by leaders from different parts of the country, who are experts in their departments.

Conferences for Woman's Auxiliary, Daughters of the King, St. Barnabas Guild for Nurses and Periodical Club were well attended and addresses made by interesting speakers. The Guild House, with its large number of rooms, is well adapted for such meetings and we were very glad to place it at the disposal of the ladies.

The receptions given to the delegates by the Bishop, the Deaconess House, Holy Trinity Church and Mrs. Markoe, of Woman's Auxiliary in Philadelphia, besides trips to historic points, were well attended and much enjoyed.

The net proceeds of the bazaar were sixty-eight dollars. Very good indeed, all things considered.

Sunday School

The International Lesson, uniform series introduced last month in the Sunday School, is proving quite a success and is liked much better than the one formerly used. The first Sunday in Advent new class books were given to each teacher and they are asked to keep accurate marks for each scholar on attendance, punctuality, lesson and conduct. If at Christmas some scholars receive a better gift than others it must be remembered that these marks are counted. This is fair to those who have been regular and faithful scholars.

Mr. James Warnoch, Jr., has kindly consented to take a class of boys and starts his work today.

Another teacher is needed at once to take a class of older boys, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. William Davis.

Don't forget the prize offered for three new scholars. Let everyone try hard to win. It is open to each scholar. Several have two to their credit.

The Christmas carol service will be held as usual in connection with the other Sunday Schools of the Parish in Holy Trinity Church on Sunday afternoon, December 30th, at 3.30 P. M.

The entertainment of our school will be held Holy Innocents Day, Friday, December 28th, in the Sunday School Building, at 8 P. M.

The services on Christmas Day will be as follows: Celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 A. M. Morning Prayer and second celebration at 10.30 A. M.

On the holy days following Christmas, St. Stephen, St. John and the Innocents, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 A. M.

There will be a special service for Boy Scouts December 16th at 8 P. M. The thirty-one troops of District No. 2 have been invited to attend in a body in uniform and with flags. The "Star-Spangled Banner" and other patriotic songs will be sung, and a special address will be delivered. The visitors will occupy the front seats on both sides of the middle aisle, which will be reserved for them.

Boy Scouts

Scoutmaster Walter McKinley has kindly consented to help us in forming a troop at the Chapel. Let every boy who is interested come on Wednesday evening and hear about the scouts and the magnificent work these boys have been doing in this great war. Through this organization an opportunity is offered to every patriotic American boy to do his bit for his country. Such opportunities have never been presented before. Let every boy show his spirit and enthusiasm and attend this service and the Wednesday meetings.

Bazaar

A bazaar was held in the Sunday School Building the afternoon and evening of Friday, November 23rd. Tables of fancy articles, cakes, candies, household necessities, etc., were under the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, Woman's Guild, Girls' Guild and Little Helpers. The electrical booth, under the care of Rev. Mr. Edwards, afforded lots of fun for the children. Considering the great demand this year upon everybody for all war objects, the bazaar was a success. The proceeds were divided between the organizations taking part to further the work that each has in hand. We are much indebted to the persons and friends who contributed so generously and thus helped to make the bazaar possible. At the close of the evening a handsome scarf was presented to Mr. Warfield; a large fern to Mrs. Warfield and a large blooming chrysanthemum to Mr. Edwards. These were great surprises and are much appreciated by the recipients.

The past month our branch of the Red Cross has accomplished a great deal of work. The surgical dressing class on Tuesday afternoons became so large that it was necessary to continue it Tuesday evenings, and often it was necessary for the overflow to use another room in addition to the regular one. Mrs. Davis, of Bala, who has had charge of this department, has resigned to go to France with her husband in the interest of Red Cross work there. We wish to express our thanks to Mrs. Davis for her kind instruction and assistance and wish her a "bon voyage" and success in her work on the other side.

The successors to Mrs. Davis will be Mrs. Frank Battles, as instructor, and Mrs. Frank Smith, in charge of this workroom.

There is room for more workers in the garment department on Thursday afternoons and evenings, which meets in our large assembly room. A number of sewing machines have been installed and every convenience provided. Facilities have been provided so that business women may come right here from the office or store and get a light supper and no time be lost on the work.

The chairman, Mrs. Clarence Wynne, has been very busy meeting the troops as they pass through the city, and serving refreshments and magazines, under the canteen department.

Twenty-eight Christmas packages have been sent to the boys in France. Many other Christmas presents are under way for the boys in the various cantonments at home. Applications for membership may be made to Mrs. Clarence Wynne Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Guild House, 2216 Spruce Street.

Come, Thou universal Saviour,

O holy night! the stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of the dear Saviour's birth,
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.

A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious moon,
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!

Truly He taught us to love one another,
His law is love and His gospel is peace.
Chains shall He break for the slave is our brother,
And in His name all oppression shall cease.

Sweet Hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,

Let all within us praise His Holy Name.
Christ is the Lord, then ever, ever praise we;

His power and glory ever more proclaim.

Sunday School

We are glad to announce the names of those scholars of the Sunday School who are on the Honor Roll as having the best marks during the past year, and were especially remembered at the Christmas entertainment.

Misses Lillian and Mae Riley head the list. Then follow Katherine McGarvey, Mabel Thompson, Anna Scott, Emma Young, Ethel Ehman, Rebecca Esher, Elva McGarvey, Edna Pruden, Beatrice Smith, Anna Disher, Arthur Riley, Robert Littley, George McKeown, Morris Shugg, Aaron Scott, John McGarvey, Stephen McGarvey, Charles Ellison, Roy Ellison and Anna Anthony.

Try to be on this list next year. Each teacher is asked to mark carefully in the class book the attendance, punctuality, conduct and lesson of every scholar.

Do not forget the entertainment on the night of December 27.

Editors' Column

To all my dear friends of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel I wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. It has always seemed to me such a coincidence that these two great times of rejoicing come so near together. First comes the day when we rejoice in the dear Lord's birth and feel Heaven near us as the angels sing; and then comes the day for good resolutions and a new start, which we can make without fear, because God loves us.

This Christmas is unlike any other Christmas in the history of the Christian Era, for it comes when practically the whole world is at war, and we of the United States are striving for freedom and righteousness. Many of our people, men and women, have gone or are preparing to go to the front. And so we are inclined to be a little sad and we feel the clouds hanging over us. But we must trust God, and know that He is over us and caring for us, and we must cheer others, particularly those who are at the front, with our greetings and prayers. It is our duty this year, I think, to try to be unusually happy, so that we may prove to God how much we love and trust Him, and by our faith tell the dear Christ that we know He did not die in vain.

Especially let us strive to love each other this Christmas, when there is so much cruelty in the world and our friends in France and Belgium, in Syria, and Armenia, and Serbia, are suffering. These trials should draw us all nearer together and make us patient with each other and drive away any little differences which tend to separate us. Let us join hands, as they did in the olden days, and "gather around the Christmas Tree" as brothers and sisters who all belong to the Lord's family. And as we come to the Holy Communion and thank God for the great gift of His Son, let us pray for the day to come when all men everywhere will love each other and when peace shall come never again to be broken.

May the blessing of the Prince of Peace rest upon all your homes and make this Christmas a wonderful time of comfort.

Affectionately yours,
FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

The January number of the "Courier" is issued the Sunday before Christmas to remind all of the Christmas services and entertainments.

On Christmas day there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 A. M. Last year there were only twenty at this service. Let us have many more this time. Make up your mind to be there. The second service will be at 10.30 A. M., consisting of Morning Prayer and a second celebration. Last year there were 52 communicants at this service. With the communicant list of this Chapel there should be many more to partake of the Holy Communion on this Holy Day of the Nativity of our dear Lord.

Saints' Days

In January there are three Feast Days. The Circumcision comes on New Year's day to commemorate the circumcision of our Blessed Lord, when Joseph took Him to the temple on the eighth day after His birth. The Jewish or Old Testament law required that every male child should be circumcised on the eighth day, thus our Lord was obedient to the law. This rite admitted the child to membership of the Church, and in a way took the place of our Baptism, but without the special gift received at baptism. Adults who came into the Jewish Church from without were also baptized. As a Feast Day in the Christian Church it has been kept since before the sixth century. And the Epistle and Gospel for it appeared in the English Prayerbook in 1549 edition.

January 6th is the Feast of "The Epiphany; or Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles," and denotes the day in which the wise men came from the East to worship the infant Jesus. Let us be thankful for the light of the Gospel, which on that day began to shine on those who sat in darkness. Some ancient writer called it the "Day of the Holy Light." In some parts of our country there is held on this day a special service of light, using many candles and tapers. It would be a fine thing if we could have such a service in our church on that day.

On January 25th occurs the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. The Acts of the Apostles give us a wonderful account of St. Paul's Conversion.

The Church does not commemorate the day when St. Paul was martyred as for the other Apostles, but the time when he was converted, which was so wonderful in detail. It was one of the greatest events in the Early Church and the most beneficial to us, and the whole Christian Church, because of the writings which he left for all time.

St. Paul died a martyr, but we do not know the exact time or place. It is believed he was beheaded outside of the city walls of Rome. He suffered more for the cause which he held so dear than any other of the Apostles of the Lord. What a wonderful example to us in these days. It costs us so little today to be a Christian, and we are so easily offended.

O, how it does put us to shame when we read of what he suffered for his faith and compare it to us who are always looking for offense from some one else, in order that we may give up the work which the Lord has for us and we were so gladly ready to take up. St. Paul withstood all the criticism and persecution which was heaped upon him and never gave up for an hour. I sometimes wonder, when Christian men and women get cross at some of the devil's work and quits his or her part, who is most pleased with such conduct, the Lord or the devil? Can you answer it?

At the last issue of the Liberty Bonds a campaign was made by the children of the public schools of the city. The results were magnificent. We are happy to announce that one of our boys, the Secretary of the Sunday School, was presented with a handsome open face gold watch at the close of the campaign bearing this inscription: "Alfred N. Harris, presented by E. T. Stotesbury for selling largest number 2d Liberty Loan Bonds through the Philadelphia Public Schools, 1917."

Little Helpers

Leaders, Miss Nellie Mitchell, Mrs. Sara Burns.

Secretary, Mrs. Edith Kendall.

Treasurer, Miss Sara Moore.

The Little Helpers held their first meeting this season, October 27, in Guild House, and meets every Saturday afternoon, 2 until 4 o'clock, when they dress dolls, make pin cushions, sewing bags, muslin scrap books, calendars, double picture cards, etc., which are all sent to Missions, closing with their service, children also play few games. On November 24 children attended Rosebud Indian services in St. James' Church, which they all enjoyed, and heard about Christmas in Alaska, also some exhibits of all Junior work in Sunday School before service; also their own work which they had sent. Box valued at $30.00, all work children had made themselves—13 muslin picture books, 26 bead necklaces, 30 long Christmas tree chains, tree ornaments, 10 painted pictures, 35 hanging calendars, 1400 pasted post cards, etc.

On Saturday, December 29, we will have our Christmas party, and the Little Helpers will have as their guests some of the children of nearby day nursery, and we hope all children, also their mothers, will have an enjoyable time. We would like every child in the Parish to join us on Saturday afternoon; ages from 5 to 14 years. Mothers, send the children to do something for "His Sake." We wish to thank Rev. Mr. Warfield and Rev. Mr. Edwards for interest and kindness shown us during our meetings.

Mr. Frank Leonard, for a number of years sexton of this Chapel, has resigned. He always took a great interest in the boys and enjoyed being present at their games and sports and going on "hikes" into the country on Saturdays in the spring and fall. During the summer he had the oversight of them at the camp and always looked out for his boys. We wish him much success in his new work.

Woman's Guild

On the night of December 16th this Guild held a Christmas party. Although the night was cold a large number of the members and friends were present, and took a hearty interest in the various "pass-times." The large assembly room was prettily decorated, including a miniature tree. Mrs. Carolin Moore gave a character recitation, "Typical Matinee Girl," and told us of her work for the city's poor children, Red Cross and among the enlisted men. Miss Maud Rutter gave several recitations, "Killing a Mouse," "Snores in a Pullman Car Sleeper," and others. Mr. Thomas Murphy played the piano and sang; Miss Martha Smith, piano selection; Miss Anna Bader sang several solos, the one which impressed everybody most and brought tears to some was the "Prayer" composed by the "Mothers" of Canada, whose sons are in the service of the country. It was sung to the tune of "America," and could well be added as the last verse, and would it not be a greater means of uniting all the English-speaking nations into one—American and British National song blended into one? The words are as follows; let us learn them:

"God save our splendid men,
Send them home again.
God bless our men,
Send them victorious, upright and chivalrous.

They are so dear to us,
God save our men."

After other selections by volunteers all retired to the dining-room, which had been beautifully decorated by the attendants. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served. A little gift was placed at the plate of each. Rev. Mr. Edwards found that his contained a St. Patrick snake, which jumped out as soon as it was opened and caused much fun for all.

While the ladies were busy with their entertainment, Mr. Walter Fulp of Mayodan, N. C., walked in, dressed as Santa Claus. As he was a stranger to the party it caused some fun trying to guess who he was. Mr. Edwards amused all for a few minutes, imitating a seller of shoe strings.

Sunday School Festival

The Christmas festival of the Sunday School will be held in the Sunday School room on Friday after Christmas, December 28th, at 8 P. M. An outline of program follows:

I. The Nativity. Laura Weinmann, Herold Angel, George Sessinger, James Philips, Robert Stuart, Aaron Scott, Harold Philips, the Heavenly Host, which sing the "Gloria in Excelsis;" Anna Anthony and Elsie Edwards, Guardian Angels at the Manger.

Beatrice Smith, Goddess of Liberty; George Sessinger, Indian; James Philips, British; Robert Stuart, Russia; Aaron Scott, Chinaman; Harold Philips, Scotchman; Anna Scott, Chinese; Edna Prudent, Japanese; Anna Wallace, Red Cross; Elsie Edwards, France; Annie Anthony, Belgium; Ethel Ehman, Hawaii.

Prizes will be awarded to those scholars who have made the best record for the year.

Mother's Meeting

The Mothers' Meetings on Thursday afternoons, under the leadership of Miss Lee, are being well attended, although several of the mothers attend the meeting of the Red Cross, which happens to be held at the same time. Hereafter the meeting will be held in one of the rooms on the lower floor of the Sunday School building, where there are better closet facilities for their working material.

Several of the organizations remembered the boys from the Chapel who are in the service of the Government. The mothers sent boxes, consisting of a flash light, handkerchiefs, copy of St. John's Gospel, Christmas and New Year cards ready stamped for them to send to friends, nuts, candy and hard home-made ginger cakes, donated by Mrs. West. The boys to whom these were sent were Samuel Scott and Joseph H. Ailes at Fort Hancock, and Jay S. Carns in France.

The Mothers' Christmas dinner will be held Thursday, December 27, at 2 o'clock.

During January the following ladies will address the meetings, Miss Mary W. Schott, Miss M. S. Harris, Mrs. C. Allen. Let every one try to be present.

Confirmation

The Bishop has changed the date, as given in last month's "Courier," for his visit for Confirmation. The date will be January 27th, at the evening service. Kindly bear the change of dates in mind and every one make an effort to be present then. Bishop Rhinelander is expected.

Classes for confirmation instruction have been started. Mr. Warfield's class is held Sunday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the Church, and Mr. Edwards' class Wednesday evenings in the Guild House. It is only necessary for a candidate to attend one of these classes through the course. It is not convenient nor expedient to attend one class at one time and the other at another time. Stick to the class you enter. These classes are open to all, whether you have made up your mind to be confirmed or not. You can do that at the end of the course. They are also open to those who have been confirmed and wish further information on certain topics. Let every one not confirmed think this matter over seriously or talk it over with one of the clergy. Do not defer this important step in your Christian life. Do not think next year will answer. To you there may not be a "next year." If you are old enough to know the difference between right and wrong and have sense enough to do the right then come forward and renew the vows that were made for you at your baptism and be a full soldier of the Cross.

Gymnasium

The attendance at the boys' "gym" during the past month has been well attended. All are taking an interest in the drills and other exercises. After the regular work the older boys usually play basketball, having as their opponents the second team. This gives both teams good practice. On the nights the instructor is not present the marching and drill work is led by several of the older boys, whom Mr. Beam appoints, and who are well fitted for it.

There is usually a basketball game in our gymnasium with a visiting team. In these contests our boys have been quite successful. There is some talk of forming a church league for basketball. If properly organized we will be glad to enter it. This will increase the interest in this popular indoor sport. Our boys are expecting to get new suits and pass on to the second team those they have outgrown.

Monday, 16th, after the usual class, all had a treat of ice cream and cake. How we did enjoy it!

Theodore Leonard has been given a Lay Readers' license by the Bishop, and has been taking part in the services of the Chapel. He has recovered sufficiently from his recent operation to permit him to return to college after the Christmas holidays.

Rev. Mr. Warfield had the opening prayer and the benediction at the recent graduation exercises of the nurses at the University of Pennsylvania.

Our former assistant, Rev. B. S. Harris, who entered the Officers' Medical Reserve Corps as a Lieutenant, has been promoted to a Captain, and has been placed in charge of a base hospital at Jacksonville, Florida. We congratulate the Captain and wish him every success in his new appointment.

The late Bishop Mackay-Smith asked a little child, in a Sunday School, once what Manifestation meant. The reply was: One of the stations along the railroad, but that she did not remember which.

Those who live right will be sure to live out the number of their days, even though we are at war. God still rules the world.

"What would the kingdom of God be if all the workers are like me."

"What is a quitter?"

Answer. One who gives up a job or work because someone else offends, or someone who holds a responsible work, and because he or she cannot have their own way in all things, are always resigning their post of duty.

What is a parasite?

1. There is a bird which goes about and lays her eggs in some other bird's nest and goes her way, making that bird raise her brood.

2. A person who lives in a Christian land and always runs down Christianity.

3. A member of the Church who feels to be a good Christian, yet for some cause, does not work in the Church or Christ, but spends most of his time criticising others who are faithful in attendance and work. God have mercy on their souls.

A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lent

Lent is almost here. With the great war on the other side of the ocean and the conditions at home which war brings to us since our country has entered into it we should use every means to make this Lent a spiritual benefit to us by our prayers and attendance at divine service.

On account of the seriousness and uncertainty of the coal situation it has been thought wise to combine our services with those at Holy Trinity Church and urge our people to attend the services there except those stated below to be held here. Services every afternoon at Holy Trinity at 5 P. M., Wednesday evenings at 8 P. M., and Holy Communion Thursdays at 10 A. M.

Services at the Chapel Ash Wednesday 10.30 A. M. Litany, Penitential office and Holy Communion. 8 P. M. evening prayer and address. Fridays: evening prayer at 8 P. M.

During Holy Week services will be held daily at the Chapel, the hours to be announced in the Courier next month.

As has been the custom for many years the Rector of the parish will deliver the addresses on Friday nights during Lent. The subject is Bible Examples: February 15th, Enoch; February 22d, Abraham; March 1st, Samuel; March 8th, David; March 15th, Peter; March 22d, St. John. The Question Box will as usual be at the door and all questions placed therein will be answered by the Rector just before the address.

The Children's Service will be held in Holy Trinity Church, Wednesday afternoons during Lent at four o'clock for the children of the whole parish. The addresses will be given by Rev. Mr. Warfield. Parents are urged to bring or send their children.

In connection with the Mothers' Meetings on Thursday afternoons in the Guild House there will be a course of short talks on the prayer book. To these talks everyone is invited whether they belong to the Mothers or not.

Little Helpers

On the Saturday after Christmas the Little Helpers gave a party to some children from the Day Nursery. Although the weather was extremely cold there was a good attendance. Our children entertained their guests with recitations and songs; an address was given by the Vicar, and Mr. Edwards amused those present with tricks. Quite a hit was made when a live pigeon brought back a little girl's ring that had been destroyed by the magician's art. Ice cream and cake was much enjoyed. At the close of the party Santa Claus arrived and each child was presented with a gift, box of candy and orange. The ladies in charge would like all the little children of the parish to join. The meetings are held every Saturday from 2 to 4 P. M. Child garden work is done and games played; a short service is held at its close. Each child tries to bring a penny for the mite box. The contents of the home mite box will go this year to help support a native worker in Alaska.

Boys' Gymnasium

The Boys' Gym meets regularly with Mr. Beam as instructor. We are glad to announce that we have secured the services of Mr. Beam for every Monday evening, and he has introduced a course in military instruction with wooden guns. This is very helpful in strengthening the entire body of the boy.

Holy Trinity Memorial basketball team is doing fine work, having lost but one game the last month out of five played. New suits and a new official ball has been secured and now our team is completely equipped. Among the best games played lately one was with the "Giants" of the Southern Settlement. Some of the fellows looked like "seven-footers." Someone said all that was necessary to score for them was for the player to walk to the basket and drop the ball in, and it did look like it, for they won 50 to 21, but they could not stand prosperity and success. They came for another game, and they got it where the chicken got the hatchet; they were defeated 54 to 24. Keep up your courage, boys.

Girls' Guild

The Girls' Guild meets on every Tuesday evening, and a fine time awaits all. Work and play are the features of the evenings; work first, play next. We are forming a dramatic club among the members in order that we may have a social evening once in awhile and have the parents and friends to meet with us. The first display of our ability will be on the evening of February 12th. We hope that all of our friends will be present.

We are glad to note that the attendance at the Girls' Gymnasium on Friday evenings has been increasing. There is room for a few more girls. Kindly make application as soon as possible so that you will be able to catch up to the class. After the strenuous exercise the girls have some warm refreshments before they go home. Mothers will be gladly welcomed so that they may see the beneficial side of the instruction. As there will be church services on Friday nights during Lent it will be necessary to change the gym to another night for that period, due notice of which will be given.

Rev. Herman L. Duhring, D. D., died December 30th. He was born in Philadelphia 76 years ago and lived here all his life. He was superintendent of our City Mission for 25 years. He began his ministry as assistant to Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks, who at that time was rector of Holy Trinity Parish, and was the first minister in charge of Trinity Chapel, afterwards known as Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel, and served in that capacity from 1863 to 1868.

The death of Dr. Joseph P. Remington occurred in January, and the funeral services were held in Holy Trinity Church. Dr. Remington was for eighteen years a vestryman of this parish and served on our Chapel Committee. He was connected with Holy Trinity Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for twenty years and for the past ten years its director. He was the father of the Rev. Wm. P. Remington, who has recently been consecrated Bishop of South Dakota. The loss of his influence and counsel will be much felt in the parish.

Our Boy Scouts have a nice troop consisting of one patrol of twelve members. After the meetings on Monday evening they go to the gymnasium; Kinley; Patrol Leader, Robt. Simkins; Scribe, Wilford Lichentein. The patriotic work in which they are at present engaged is the distributing of President Wilson's Flag Day address and the establishing of agencies throughout the city for selling War Saving Stamps. They have also been appointed as Government messengers. A hike is enjoyed every Saturday afternoon, and boys not Scouts are invited to go on this hike. Any boys who would like to join please file their application with Rev. Mr. Edwards as soon as possible.

In the Service

The following excerpts give an interesting account of what American boys are doing in France:

"The new sector, which we are now working, has proved to be ideal in many ways. Instead of intervals of intense fighting, such as we experienced in our old sector, when we would go for several days without sleep and with very little food (so great would be the rush of wounded), the fighting of this sector is constantly severe. We get our three meals a day, and on an average of four nights sleep a week. The only disadvantages are that here our camps as well as our posts and roads running up to them, are subject to the fire of the big German guns; and we are gassed every time the wind is favorable. Our posts, five in number, are all very close to the Germans, ranging from eight hundred yards (the one in which I am writing) to half a mile; and we are shelled heavily enough to make it unhealthy to remain outside of the 'Abu,' or dug-out, any longer than necessary.

"By crawling cautiously up to the top of our 'Abu' we get a fine view of the surrounding country, cut up by the communicating trenches, and also the first line trenches, both French and Boche. We hear the sharp crack of some field piece (there are batteries all around us; one is only fifty yards from the post) follow the projectile through the air by its peculiar shriek and finally see the cloud of dust and debris arise from the German trenches or the batteries in back of them and hear the muffled roar of the explosion of the shell as it strikes.

"A few days ago several enemy avions flew over our 'Abu' as they do nearly every day, and two of the stretcher bearers were foolish enough to show themselves. Despite the fire of the anti-aircraft guns, they managed to get back to their own lines safely and ten minutes later were properly 'strapped' for over-carelessness. 150s and 210s began dropping around the 'Abu,' making a terrific noise; but doing little damage other than to dig up several cubic yards of earth. It happened to be my luck to have to take three wounded to the hospital at just that moment. Now, that morning someone had taken my steel helmet from my bunk, and had left theirs in its place. It did not fit me and so when I started out I did so bareheaded. We had not gone 200 yards from the 'Abu' when a big Austrian 250 (about 9-inch) landed in the ruins of an old church nearby (this 'Abu' is in the ruins of a little town). A piece of the shell, or a piece of rock thrown up by the explosion gave me a clip alongside of the head, raising a good lump and giving me a rather nasty cut. It did no damage to speak of, however, except to give the fellow who is on the car with me, and myself, a bad case of 'shellitis.' When the malady strikes you, it is useless to go on duty for a few days at least, as it is physically impossible to force yourself to drive over the shelled road. It's just a case of nerves, I guess.

"Since the roads leading up to our posts are used by every kind of soldier and by the artillery, they are, naturally, shelled all the time. It is very exciting to go along a road, just after the German 'barrage' has destroyed the camouflage, and realize that with their powerful field glasses, the Boche can nearly read the numbers on your car. You hear the vicious rat-ta-tat of the machine guns, but we are seldom hit, as a moving car offers a small target. At night you will be driving along an inky black road, steering by the star light which filters through the trees, when the whiz of a shell will cause you instinctively to duck (though you know it is useless) and the roar of the explosion will make you unconsciously increase your speed, though it is a good deal like trying to avoid lightning."

Truly, our young men are rapidly getting used to army life and beginning to view with more or less calm its quick changes and sudden shifts. In civil life a curt command implies some impatience on the part of the commander and some dereliction on the part of the commandee. In army life it is the rule; and simply means, impersonally and dispassionately, but none the less definitely and succinctly, "you move!" And you move. How much you understand of the purpose of the order depends on your own intelligence and training, but you move, anyway.

To new officers, their superiors' commands coming to them unexpectedly in this way are apt to be disturbing to their peace of mind. As one recently put it when in the midst of arranging a regimental Christmas tree he was summoned to headquarters, "cold chills ran up and down my spine and I wondered what I had done to be fired so soon." But he was much relieved when he found that the summons really meant that he was detached for the purpose of investigating certain type of machinery, with which he was familiar, which were being developed and applied for use in the artillery. Since success in this branch might easily mean a promotion, his former tumultuous apprehensions were at once dispelled and gave way to a sturdy ambition. Thus he was more or less prepared for the next command: "You go to B—— tonight, pack up and get ready!"

To use his own words he "slung some things into his trunk, suit case and bedding roll, hopped into a side car and ran for the Q. M. to get transportation request, got a jitney and beat it to town as fast as the law would let him and—just missed his train! Had to stay there overnight!"

Another officer, whom he met on the train, had also been ordered to the same place, and had left in such a hurry that he hadn't time to get his overcoat, so he sold him his trench coat and both were comfortable, and became quite "chummy."

When they arrived at their destination they found themselves quartered in a sanitarium, where the management had become so accustomed to "feeding old ladies and invalids that they didn't know how to provide for a hungry man." Occasionally, "pie and doughnuts for breakfast and oatmeal for supper," with here and there "an alleged hot biscuit that would kill the cat if it happened to roll off the table and hit her," constituted part of the menu.

It is difficult to see just how they manage to pay for such, but that is a bit of executive arithmetic that a mere layman cannot hope to grasp. But pardon this speculative digression. To return to our officer. He says "we are very comfortably located, although the other officers call our place the 'nut factory.'" But, he says, "they are jealous because we sleep in beds that do not walk off with us!" The others are at a hotel!

Entertainment

An entertainment will be held in the Sunday School Building, Shrove Tuesday, February 12th, at 8 P. M. The proceeds will go to the Lenten Mite Box offering for Missions. There will be ice cream and cake for sale. The following verses have been sent, with a blue sock, to a number of people. If you did not receive one consider this as your invitation and make sure to be present, bringing your size with you:

This little sock we give to you

It is not for you to wear;
Please multiply your size by two
And place therein with care,
In pennies or in cents,

Just twice the number that you wear.
(We hope it is immense)

So if you wear a number ten,
You owe us twenty, "see,"
Which dropped into our little sock
Will fill our hearts with glee.

"Tis all we ask; it isn't much
And hardly any trouble,
But if you only have one foot
We'll surely charge you double.

Now if you have a friend quite dear
You'd like to bring with you,
Or if you know some one who'd con'
We'll gladly give you two.

So don't forget the place and date:
We'll answer when you knock,
And welcome you with open arms,
But don't forget your sock.

Little House

Friday evening, February 8th, Dr. Whitlock-Rose will deliver an address before our branch of the Red Cross. Dr. Rose has spent considerable time in France since the war began and can therefore tell much of interest regarding the conditions there. You and your friends are invited.

We have given a room in the Guild House to the active workers of the "Little House," in which to pack boxes which are being sent to France at the rate of fifteen per week. The organization was founded in February, 1915, by Drs. Elise Whitlock-Rose and Elizabeth F. C. Clark, having for its object the sending of surgical supplies, drugs, anesthetics, instruments, clothing, etc., to some of the smaller and poorer military hospitals of France. To those hospitals which are receiving no other outside aid and which are often overcrowded and always pitifully poor, i. e., those hospitals having from 100 to 450 beds.

Since the beginning of the war the Founders had been sending what they could to France. As time went by, kind friends wanted to help, and gradually the work of shipping to some of the smaller military hospitals grew until it was decided to form a little society, as by that means the shipments could be handled better and the work organized so that more people would become interested. After the formation of the Society it became necessary to choose a name and the Founders being physicians chose that of the early Christian physician, Saint Pantaleon.

In the summer of 1916 the Founders spent two weeks in France visiting their hospitals to find out first hand what they most needed so that the following winter's work would be more useful. As well as visiting hospitals they took with them over a thousand dollars' worth of drugs and hypodermic syringes, which they delivered to the hospitals. They brought back with them two thousand dollars worth of lace from the Cluny region, which was sold subsequently at bazaars, thereby benefiting the lace makers and making a small profit with which to buy surgical supplies for the hospitals.

The Society is sending supplies to 22 hospitals, 14 orphanages, 3 French Societies for the Relief of Refugees and the inhabitants of the devastated regions.

The Society has shipped over 500 cases, has 10 Chapters, several classes, 200 members and over a thousand people working for it.

The Chapters are groups of people, the head of which is a member of the Society. The Chapters meet at stated intervals and work for the Society. They have their own officers and their own treasury and it is their pride to be self-supporting.

The Lafayette Chapter is the teaching Chapter and meets every week at the headquarters of the Society, Twenty-second and DeLancey streets, for the purpose of giving instruction in the making of surgical supplies.

Smoker

A "Smoker" for the men of the Chapel was given Saturday night, January 19th, in the Guild House. It was not as well attended as had been hoped probably due to the cold night and the fact that some of the men had to work at night. An interesting lecture on Mexico was given by Mr. Warfield, illustrated by beautifully colored lantern slides showing some of the ruins of the Aztecs, the ancient inhabitants of that country before the coming of the Spaniards and also views of native life as found there today. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

Another "Smoker" will be given Saturday, February 2nd.

Musical

At the carol service at Holy Trinity, December 30th, our Parish's "only boy choir" created a most favorable impression, singing the carol assigned to them with a fine purity of tone and blending of the parts. Mr. Potter accompanied them on the great organ. After the carol service our boys were served with an excellent dinner in our Guild House.

The Victory Service.

A service of song and prayer for victory in our national struggle for world democracy, was held at the Chapel Sunday evening, December 30th.

Stirring and inspiring addresses were made by Brig. Gen. L. W. T. Waller, U. S. M. C., and Chaplain C. H. Dickens, U. S. N.

This was the third service of this character.

The choir has been invited to sing at the Navy Yard, January 31, in the new entertainment auditorium just finished.

This notable work by Sir John Stainer, descriptive of our Lord's great miracle, will be given by the choir Sunday evening, February 3d. The fine tenor aria "My hope is in the Everlasting;" the beautiful tenor and soprano duet, "Love divine, all love excelling;" and the splendid chorus, "Awake, Thou that sleepest," are all from this work.

A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

LENT

There never has been a Lent like this to us. The great world war has brought so many new conditions. America has entered it to win, and win we must. Our allies are fighting for us as well as our own boys whom we have sent over there. We must back them up with our whole strength. Not only some of us, but each and every one of us. We must make sacrifices and denials such as we have never made before. With war the forces of Satan travel. With these there must be combat. The strength and weapons needed are those that come from God. Follow our Lord in His temptation. Lent should be a time of getting close to God. Are you making renewed efforts? Are you endeavoring to put yourself in a position to receive strength? If you cannot attend services conveniently in your own Church, attend them elsewhere. Take a few minutes from your lunch hour and attend the mid-day services. Pray! Pray for our Country and her Allies. Pray for our rulers, soldiers, sailors, marines. Pray for your families. Pray for yourself. Get spiritual strength to fight the world, flesh and devil through the Holy Communion.

Since the February COURIER was issued the Vestry decided to have the Chapel open for Lenten Services, as by closing the Sunday School building we will probably have sufficient fuel to keep the Chapel furnaces going.

A list of the services has been issued on a special card and is also given below.

The addresses on Monday and Saturday afternoons are given by Rev. Mr. Edwards, and the topics are as follows:

- "The Holy Communion Service"
- Feb. 16. First Three Rubrics.
- " 18. Opening Prayer and Summary of Law to Fifth Commandment.
- " 23. Summary of the Law, to end of Commandments.

- " 11. The Exhortation.
- " 16. Invitation, Confession, Declaration of Absolution.
- " 18. Comfortable Words, to end of Sanctus.
- " 23. Proper Prefaces and Prayer of Humble Access.
- " 25. Prayer of Consecration.
- " 30. Reception to end of Blessing.

The addresses on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon and Wednesday evening are given by Rev. Mr. Warfield.

The topics for Tuesday are:

 Permanence of Life.

The Rev. Dr. Tomkins has chosen for the Friday evening addresses "Bible Examples," Enoch, Abraham, Samuel, David, Peter, St. John. Those evenings that the Rector will be absent from the city, Mr. Edwards will take his place.

SPECIAL PREACHERS

The Rev. John E. Hall, Rector of All Saints' Church, Philadelphia, was the special preacher at the evening service of February 24th. His sermon on the text, "What think ye of Christ?" was a scholarly and inspiring one.

At the evening service of March 10th the Rev. Stewart P. Keeling, Rector of St. Peter's, Germantown, will be the preacher. Mr. Keeling's ability as a speaker is well known and it is hoped every one will avail himself of this opportunity of hearing him.

The Rev. J. J. D. Hall, superintendent of the Galilee Mission, will be the preacher at the evening service, March 17th. Mr. Hall's experience in work among men, both in Alabama and Pennsylvania, has been a very large one. Many will recall his visit to us a year ago. We hope the Church will be filled to hear his earnest and inspiring message.

On the evening of Palm Sunday the Choir will sing the sacred meditation, "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer. As this music is fairly lengthy, there will be no sermon.

SMOKER

The second Smoker of the season was held Saturday evening, February 2d.

After a lecture on Hawaii, illustrated with beautifully colored views, the gentlemen present took part and contributed somewhat of their talent. Mr. Potter played several well-chosen selections on the piano. Mr. Douglas Buchanan sang catchy Scotch songs—that is, those who were not very conversant with the broad Scotch tried to catch them; and Mr. Bayard, whom we hadn't seen for a long time, contributed from his repertoire, one piece being his own composition. Throughout the evening general conversation, jokes and smokes were interspersed.

Late in the evening coffee, pie and cheese were served. Judging from the number of the men at the service the next morning the coffee must have been too strong or the pies war pies. After Lent, when we can all smoke again, we will have another.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

At the January meeting of the Womans Auxiliary, Mrs. G. Morton Maule became its President. Mrs. Maule, some years ago, had been closely identified with our branch at the Chapel, and it is a great pleasure to have her with us again. We hope every member will show her interest and enthusiasm by being present at every meeting for the remainder of the season.

At the January meeting Miss Anna Williamson, who has been doing missionary work in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, gave an entertaining talk on her work and something of the life in general of these mountain people.

A collection was taken in the Chapel, February 17th, as a working basis for the missionary box, which the Auxiliary expects to send at the close of Lent.

LITTLE HOUSE.

Since the last issue of THE COURIER the work of the "Little House" has progressed well in its new quarters in the Guild House. The members are very enthusiastic because they realize the enormous amount of good to poor suffering humanity in France even our little efforts are accomplishing. We are now sending surgical and other supplies to twenty-six hospitals, clothing and other things to sixteen orphanages and clothing to three French societies for its relief of refugees in France, from Belgium, Servia and Montenegro. One of these societies works chiefly toward rehabilitating the recaptured villages of France. Up to the present time more than six hundred large boxes have been sent, or, in other words, about one hundred during the past month. There are now fourteen Chapters, consisting of two hundred and twenty-five members. We wish to express our appreciation of the kindness of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel in placing at our disposal a pleasant room in which to do our packing. New members will be gladly received at any time; also contributions of clothing, bed linen, shoes or medical supplies. These may be sent to the Guild House Mondays and Tuesdays. E. W. R.

TRIP TO THE NAVY YARD

Mr. Potter, our Choir Master and Organist, made an arrangement to take the Choir to the Navy Yard to sing for the "Boys" on the evening of February 5th. About thirty-two men and boys left the Guild House at 7 P. M. on car No. 18. We exchanged at Fifteenth street for the League Island car, but no car came after waiting forty minutes. As the weather had reached zero, plus, we began to feel our limbs congeal somewhat. To reverse this unpleasantness and also in the hopes of getting to the Yard before breakfast, we decided to walk to Twelfth street, where we waited another twenty minutes before a car came. After being packed together, in a way to put sardines to shame, we started on the last lap to the Yard. We reached the Navy Yard about 9 P. M. When we tried to enter a "Non Com." refused to let us in until we told our pedigree, and as the past life of many were in darkness, as well as that present existence, we were held up another fifteen minutes, while Mr. Potter tried to convince the officer of the day that the Chaplain had made arrangements for us to sing for the "Boys" that night, and that we did not desire breakfast, those of us on the outside were wishing that we were in our nighties back at home. Before the stretcher-bearers arrived we were let in and began another transcontinental drive to the Auditorium. Somewhere in the neighborhod of 9:30 P. M. we began to sing. After the effort, for a few minutes, it was time to start back home, which was accomplished with haste. The trouble at the gate, we learned later, was caused by the neglect of the Chaplain's assistant to notify the "Non Com." of our visit. Laying the hardships aside, we had a fine audience, as the room seats about 1200, and it was packed, for there was a movie just before our turn. Several of Mr. Potter's frieds helped us with a fine tenor solo and violin obbligato. The sailors joined heartily in the choruses of the popular songs. Judging from the applause they were gratified and satisfied with our bit. Sailors are not generally profuse in thanks unless pleased. Boys, let's go again.

I. WENT.

ENTERTAINMENT

On the evening of Shrove Tuesday an entertainment was given, in the Sunday School building, by the young people of the Sunday School, for the purpose of increasing our Lenten offering. Little stockings had been previously distributed with an invitation to those who attended to place therein pennies to the number of twice the size of the stocking worn.

The program consisted of a Drill of the Nations, solos, instrumental and vocal, and a play, entitled "A Surprise Party."

Those taking part in the drill wore the costume and carried the flag of the nation represented. The youngest ones behind the footlights were Irene Ehman, dressed in Eskimo furs, and Madeline Lee, representing a Red Cross nurse. "They certainly look cute." How did they manage to keep still? They did.

Those giving their musical talent were Mr. Potter, Miss Dorothy Warnock, Mr. Warnick, Master William Nevin, Miss Helen Donaghy, Miss Anna and Master Frank Anthony.

Mr. Glasgow made his debut as stage manager and prompter in the Surprise Party.

Frank and Ruth made some hit as Papa and Mama. That mustache tried to get away from where it did not belong, Art and Diet playing the same game against each other—both lost. Maybe in real life it will be different. Was this the surprise, or was it Bob and Sister?

Others taking part were Frank Long, Frank Anthony, Wesley Anthony, Fred Deftman, Arthur Riley, Lillian Leonard, Ruth Gilbert, Laura Weinman, Phillips Brothers, Mildred Pruden, Edna Pruden, Katherine McGarvey, Robert Litteley.

Those taking part in the Drill of the National were Emma Young, American Indian; Beatrice Smith, Goddess of Liberty; Anna Wallace, Red Cross; Wilma Schall, American; Ethel Ehmann, Hawaii; Edna Prudent, Japan; Annie Anthony, American; Elsie Edwards, Japan; Irene Ehman, Eskimo; Madeline Lee, Red Cross; James Philips, American; Harold Philips, China.

To all of them we express our thanks.

After the farce candy and ice cream were on sale, and in a short time the supply of both was exhausted.

After the expenses were deducted we had $37.76 to increase our Lenten offering. But the fun was worth something.

T. O. U.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

The fourth patriotic service was held on the evening of February 10th. The attendance was large and every one joined heartily in singing the stirring patriotic hymns which had been printed on separate slips. Colonel Sheldon Potter, former Director of Public Safety of Philadelphia, delivered an arousing address, which brought out lengthy articles with conspicuous headlines in the daily papers the next morning.

The fifth of the series will be given on the evening of March 3d, and the speaker is expected to be ex-Governor Edwin F. Stuart. The program will be similar to the former ones. Several well-known patriotic organizations have been invited and it is hoped they will attend in a body.

We are desirous of having a complete file of the Year Books of the Parish at the Chapel. The book for 1906-1907 is needed to complete that file. Will you kindly look over your old ones at home, and if you can find this one, send it to us. It is expected the new Year Book will be out in a few days. We cannot give every one a copy, but we can give every family a copy. Please read it carefully.

MISSION STUDY

A Mission Study Class has been organized, and is being conducted by Mrs. William Carver, of Ardmore. It is held Monday evenings at 8:15, in connection with the Woman's Guild, but is open to all members of the Chapel and their friends. So far the class has been well attended, and much interest has been shown. The book used is "The Gospel of the Kingdom," by Bishop Rhinelander, and is the one used throughout the diocese for these classes. The course is for the six weeks of Lent.

IN THE SERVICE

As the troops are subject to change without notice, it is not easy to keep a correct mailing list of our boys. The clergy like to send these boys a copy of THE COURIER and also to write to them personally, and are always glad to hear from them. We have just heard from Sam Scott. He writes he is very well and enjoying life at Fort Hancock. Fred Donaghy has just been sent from Wissahickon Barracks, to—we, as yet, know not where. We had the pleasure of seeing him and wishing him "Godspeed" just before he left. Will Griffith was home recently from Lewes, Del., on furlough, and came to service. Sailor's life seems to agree with him, from his looks. Will the boys or their parents keep us posted whenever a move is made? Please give us the name of every body in the service who was baptized in our Chapel.

BOHLEN LECTURES

The Bohlen Lectures will be given in Holy Trinity Parish House by the Rev. J. C. Ayer, Ph. D., of the Philadelphia Divinity School, on Mondays, February 25; March 4, 11, 18, 25, at 4 P. M.

The subject is "The Constitution of the Mediæval National Church," subdivided into (1) Church in the Feudal State; (2) Taxation of the National Church by the State; (3) Courts of the National Church; (4) Councils and the Legislation of National Churches; (5) National Churches and the Roman See.

An invitation is extended to all to attend.

Miss Ethel Donaghy embroidered, very beautifully, a fair white linen cloth for the Communion table. The design is sheaves of wheat, arranged in the form of a cross.

The red leather binding of the Communion Service books rubs off badly on this linen cloth and soils it. To prevent this, and at the same time be serviceable, the gift of a brass book rest would be very acceptable. This might be a memorial like our flower vases and in keeping with them.

NOTES

Rev. Mr. Edwards preached in All Saints' Church, Sunday, February 24th; in St. James' Church, Moore, Pa., February 20th, and in St. Georges, Richmond, February 3d.

Rev. Mr. Warfield was special preacher at Phillips Brooks' Chapel first Sunday in Lent, and will be at St. James', Moore, March 20th.

We are so glad to hear that Steven McGarvey, one of our choir boys, who was badly hurt by an automobile quite awhile ago, has been discharged from the hospital, and is doing nicely, though he will have to walk with a cane for some time. We hope he will soon be able to be back in the Choir and Sunday School.

Due to the fact that our Choir will sing at the Carol Service in Holy Trinity Easter afternoon, after which there will not be sufficient time to go home, get supper and return for the evening service here. Supper will be served in the Guild House as it was at Christmas. It is hoped all the ladies of the Vestment Committee will be on hand to assist in serving.

The boys' gym continues to hold its meetings in Holy Trinity Parish House. It is open to members of the Boys' Scouts as well as of the Choir.

The closing of the Sunday School building has prevented our Basketball team from practicing as well as having contest games at home. Therefore they have not been successful in the last four matches. Do not lose heart, boys. As soon as the building can be used without fires, we will get in our practice, and then woe to the team that tackles us.

During Lent it has been necessary on account of the Friday evening service to change the girls' gym from that night to Saturday evenings. In spite of these changes the attendance has increased, and it may be considered advisable to continue on Saturdays. There is room for a few more girls. There is a little social gathering after the exercise and a cup of tea before leaving for home.

MARYLAND SPOON BREAD

One cup of corn meal (white preferred), put in centre one teaspoonful salt and one level tablespoonful lard. Scald this with boiling water sufficient to cover. Beat two eggs light and then add one and one-half cups milk. Beat this into the mixture, then gradually add one-half cup corn meal (unscalded); add one and one-half teaspoons baking powder. Bake 30 minutes in hot oven. Served in same pan. Dish out with spoon.

IT'S UP TO US

Most every one has felt this winter the effect, in one way or another, of the coal and food situation. We must send grain from here to help our allies and our own boys over there. "Temperance" for February gives one something to seriously think over in informing us that it takes a pound of coal for every pint of beer that is made, and that the breweries use sufficient grain to make 4,000,000 loaves of bread per day. Canada has declared Prohibition for the period of the war, and for twelve months, the time allowed for demobilization, after the making of peace. England, which uses 600,000 tons, and the United States, which uses 800,000 tons of grain annually in brewing, might wake up and follow suit. To do this, besides the saving of food, how many of the boys would be saved from the demon Drink and his co-partners!

The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, namely, that "after one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited," has been ratified by the Legislatures of Mississippi, Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota and Maryland. The Legislatures of four other States will meet in 1918.

We live in what has been called the "wettest State in the Union." The liquor interest in this country is a decided help to Germany. We can be patriotic by helping Pennsylvania to ratify the amendment. Let every one show patriotism!

A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Editor's Column

Food

What are you doing about the food question? Are you trying to comply with the requests and recommendations of your government in this matter? Are you trying to save the kind of food the government has asked you or are you complaining because you have to eat war bread? Every one would resent being called unpatriotic. Then show proofs of patriotism. The situation is critical. Maybe you have not sons to give. Your neighbor and friend has. The Allies are giving theirs for you. We can not afford to be careless or selfish or disloyal. We can not afford to be enemies at home. Examine into the garbage pail. America has been a very wasteful nation. Now we must learn different methods. When our friends are crying for bread will we give them a stone? No! That has never been the American spirit and it will not be the spirit now. All we need is enlightenment and the facts. These the administration is trying to give us. Our land is full of all manner of store. We do not need to starve. A change of diet is often very beneficial. At present it is particularly so. Sacrifice is an excellent quality. Lent should have taught us that. Every sound wasted or unnecessarily eaten is a pound lost to a hungry soldier or a starving ally. How would you feel if that pound were withheld from your soldier boy which otherwise might have helped him to strike a stronger blow or prevented him from some sickness? If it isn't your boy it is some other boy who is working in the hardest kind of way for you.

How quickly we all fell into the new light saving plan! Has any one grumbled or complained?

"That crust of bread is no good." Yes it is. Might as well say "that little drop of water or that little grain of sand is no good," and yet

"Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean
And the pleasant land."

The Little Helpers

The Little Helpers, who meet on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 in the Guild House, have been working very hard.

Their leaders would like everyone to know what good work these little fingers are doing for "His Sake." All winter they have worked most faithfully making very pretty paper balls, string beads, scrap books, etc. The girls have hemmed silk squares, which are to be used for handkerchiefs.

We are very much in need of more silk, old or new, light or dark, anything that would make a handkerchief. They are also busy knitting washrags, which with the handkerchiefs, a cake of soap and chocolate, are being sent to the boys of the chapel who have enlisted.

They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that now goeth on his way weeping and beareth forth good seed, shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him." Ps. 126.

Liberty Loan

The campaign for the selling of the third issue of the Liberty Loan opened last Saturday. Philadelphia has already subscribed for millions of dollars' worth. This loan will yield 4 1/4 per cent. Have you subscribed? If you have not, question yourself very quickly about your patriotism. If you have, go at once and subscribe for another. You do not have to place money down at once. You may do it on very easy terms. Go to the booth nearest your home or any bank and have the terms explained.

It is not a gift. It is a loan. What has America done for you? Think of the freedom and blessings of democracy such as you enjoy! What is America doing for you now? It is helping to keep these blessings for you and your children, and to give them to other parts of the world. It is helping to keep the Hun and the barbarian from these shores. It is helping to put down Teutonic Kultur and spread abroad the light of the world. Can a nation that has committed such awful atrocities as have been committed and that wishes to legalize polygamy to rebuild its depleted ranks be called Christian? Help your country and help her quickly. Buy a Liberty Bond at once.

Mothers' Meetings

All who have attended these on Thursday afternoons have enjoyed themselves. It was planned to have during Lent informal talks on the Prayer Book by Mr. Warfield, but after the vestry decided to keep the chapel open these were delivered there and the mothers attended the Thursday afternoon service in a body.

In March, Deaconess Carroll gave a very interesting talk on the work done by our Church among the Italians in this city. For this mission the mothers decided to work during Lent with the result that they sent three aprons, four women's coats, two girls' coats, two dresses, one pair of shoes, four union suits, two night dresses, four dresses, four skirts and two pairs stockings. Maundy Thursday evening the mothers had supper in the Guild House after their work and attended with their leader, Miss Lee, the evening celebration of the Holy Communion.

They are now engaged in making new caps and skirts for the Vesper choir and new curtains for the vestibule doors of the Guild House.

In the Service

Since our last issue two more of our boys are serving their country. William Stewart, who has gone into the merchant marine, and Arthur Riley, who has joined the Marine Corps and is now training at Paris Island, South Carolina.

Frederick Donaghy, who is on the "Seattle," was in church last Sunday, having just returned from the other side.

His ship is the one which took Secretary of War Baker to France. Fred has some interesting experiences to relate. On one occasion he was nearly washed overboard by a large wave which struck the ship and though in peril was able to point out a companion who had been swept into the sea, but whose life was saved.

We have received nice letters from Samuel Scott, at Camp Hancock, and also copies of "Trench and Camp," which is a paper published weekly at the camp, and from Ponton, in France. We are always glad to hear from our boys and make a point of promptly answering their letters. They have our thoughts and prayers. They are sent a copy of the Courier, which it is hoped they receive in due time. Boys, keep us posted about yourselves as far as you are able.

Boy Scouts

One of the most interesting products of the modern spirit of mutual helpfulness is the Boy Scout movement. The purpose of this organization is to organize all boys throughout the United States and elsewhere into units and to teach them—or cause them to be taught—discipline, patriotism, courage, habits of observation and self control, and the ability to care for themselves in all the exigencies of life. To become a Boy Scout, a boy must be at least 12 years of age and be able to pass tests in the following subjects: Knowledge of the Scout Oath and Law; history and composition of the American Flag, and knot-tying. After he has passed these he is permitted to take the Scout Oath, become enrolled as a "Tenderfoot," and wear the "Tenderfoot" badge. When he has served one month as a "Tenderfoot" he is at liberty to advance to the grade of "Second Class," provided he passes the required tests. To reach the highest rank in general requirements, that of "First Class" Scout, a boy must pass still harder tests, which are intended to teach him his obligations as an individual to the community, so that he may be "prepared" to co-operate with others and render public service, whenever it is needed. The Scout program offers great opportunity to the boy who desires to be of service to his country, by working for the Liberty Loan, Red Cross, collecting books and magazines, etc., for the soldiers and sailors. Boys 12 years and over who are interested in this work can find out more about it by attending our Scout meeting held in the Guild House every Wednesday evening at 8 P. M.

The Fox Patrol of the Chapel went on a hike to Darby Creek, near Eagle Hotel, the afternoon of March 30th, and collected cocoons and different minerals. Not long since one of the Scouts found a perfect Indian relic, a stone axe. Our boys are taking hikes every Saturday afternoon, and as soon as the weather permits, they expect to camp over night. It is very interesting to see the boys' bark shelters in which to sleep, and rustic bridges over streams. Through the kindness of those interested in the Scout movement several cabins have been built just outside of Philadelphia, where the boys may spend the night, where they have a camp fire and stories are told the boys. We are forming another patrol, and there is an opening for several more boys. Make application to Mr. McKinley or Mr. Edwards and attend the next meeting.

WALTER McKINLEY,
Scout Master.

If any family has not yet received a Year Book, please ask for one at once. The copy this year is a most interesting one. It will give you an idea of what this large parish is doing in a spiritual and institutional way. It is your work. You are part of it. You are helping to do it. Familiarize yourself with all the branches.

Woman's Auxiliary

As the time for the regular March meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary came in Holy Week it was postponed until the first Thursday in April. Mrs. Maule presided. The meeting was well attended and the names of five new members added to the roll. During Lent a box was prepared under the charge of Mrs. Willsey, to be sent to the Mission of St. John the Baptist, in Bluff Ridge, Virginia.

At its January meeting the president presented to all members who would accept it a quarter as "talent money." When returned, this "talent money" had grown to $14.50, which was fine, considering the small number of members who accepted it. There are others yet to be heard from.

Mrs. Maule gave an interesting account of the great need of supplies in the hospital at Napa, Mexico. To this very urgent appeal we sent $10.00. We also sent $10.00 to help Bishop Howden in the mission at San Juan, New Mexico. In as much as the Rev. Mr. Mayo's work in the mountains of Virginia suffered much by a recent fire we sent him $10. Our Sunday school is supporting a scholarship there this year also. After the adjournment of the meeting we all spent a social hour at the vicarage upon the invitation of Mrs. Warfield. All the members extended a vote of thanks to the Rev. and Mrs. Warfield for their hospitality and kindness to us. Everybody had a most enjoyable evening.

JENNIE S. LONG,
Secretary.

Girls' Guild

During Lent the Guild could not engage in much frivolity, so the past month has been a busy one. The chief work has been making and filling fracture pillows with "snips" for some of the minor hospitals in France, and five games. These will be sent through the Little House of St. Panteleon.

At present our girls are knitting various kinds of woolen goods, at their homes, for the boys who are in the service of our country. We are only girls, so we are not allowed to go to the front as some of the Russian girls did. So we want to do what we can for the boys, even though it be small. We have also made fifteen garments for children—clothing was provided for two poor families, and toys for five shut-in children.

We are beginning to work on a play which we hope to give early in May or whenever Mr. Warfield invites us.

We had a very enjoyable party the Wednesday after Easter. The Misses Donaghy, Thomas and Vogels acted as chaperones. Prizes were awarded for putting the tail on the donkey. First prize was won by Minnie Stanley and second by Martha Griffith. "Going to Jerusalem" was won by Edna Pruden. Mr. Edwards took a flashlight of the company, which it is hoped will turn out, when developed, successfully. Bob had to pull Diet out of bed to get him here, consequently there were no refreshments left when they arrived, so they were presented with a handsome Easter tie as a souvenir.

We would like each girl to bring a friend as a new member at the next meeting, which is held Tuesday evening in the assembly room of the Guild House at 8 o'clock. Be on time. Don't come late.

MINNIE STANLEY,
Secretary.

Patriotic Services

The fifth of the series of patriotic services was given on the evening of March 3d, when ex-Governor Edwin E. Stuart gave a talk full of "snap" and "pep." The congregation was the largest that has been in the chapel for many a day and the singing was hearty and enthusiastic.

The sixth such service will be given Sunday evening, April 14th. The speaker will be Lieutenant L. O. Newson of the Royal Field Artillery. Let every member of the chapel show his patriotism by being present and bringing a friend. Join in the singing of the national anthems and the prayers for our own boys and the others who are giving their services and maybe their lives for humanity, justice and righteousness that the world may be a better world after our allies and we have won this war. For win we will.

Easter Services

The Easter carol service at Holy Trinity was well attended by our Sunday school. All joined heartily in singing the sweet carols and as usual our choir, which sang a carol by themselves, did justice to their choirmaster.

After the service our men and boys returned to the Guild House, where they enjoyed a good dinner, which had been prepared for them. Members of the choir committee acted as waitresses and were kept busy waiting on thirty hungry people. Grace was said by the Vicar. Mr. Potter had the unenviable position as chief carver, while the assistant occupied a seat at the opposite end of the long table. After a brief recess all were ready for the evening service, which was beautifully rendered.

On Low Sunday we had our service in the chapel and collected the mite boxes, the contents of which amounted to $56.27; but some boxes have not yet been returned. To this sum is to be added what was made at the entertainment on Shrove Tuesday.

The chapel was beautifully decorated with potted plants in full bloom and palms on Easter Sunday. This year the first celebration was held at 7 A. M., which being new time made it quite early. There were 24 communicants. At the 8 A. M. celebration there were 42 and at the 11 A. M. services 90 communicants. This was the first Easter for the boy choir and the music was fine. The circular letter sent out just before Easter brought good results.

There were present some members of the chapel who had not been here for a long time. We all had a very happy and we trust a beneficial Easter.

The collections for the day amounted to $89.60, which goes to make up our apportionment to the Board of Missions. Several persons who for one reason or another were unable to be present sent their contributions, one coming from Pittsburgh. To these we extend our many thanks and best wishes.

Vesper Choir

Many will remember the vesper choir that was at the chapel some years ago. During Lent Mr. Potter spent an evening a week drilling a group of young girls with a view to again organizing such a choir which has met with success. About a month ago they began to take part in the music at the evening service. They march into the chapel with the regular choir and take their place in the gallery, rejoining the procession during the recessional hymn. Those who have joined are the Misses Dorothy Warnock, Lidie Willsey, Elsie Edwards, Anna Anthony, Ethel Ehman, Edna Pruden, Margaret Pruden, Emma Coyle, Anna Scott, Beatrice Smith, Eleanor Vogels, Ethel Donaghy, Helen Donaghy, Minnie Stanley, May Riley, Elva McGarvey, Katherine McGarvey, Martha Griffith and Isabel Griffith.

The rehearsals are held Monday evenings. Any young women who would like to join will please give their names to the choirmaster. Besides singing at the evening services, we hope this choir will be on duty at the Sunday school monthly services held in the church and at all special services.

Memorials

Miss Emily Bennett, gave a handsome brass book rest, for the communion table, made by Gorham & Co., of New York. It bears the inscription:

In Memoriam. Thomas W. and Anna J. Bennett. Easter, 1918.

It will be very useful to the clergy.

We hope that in time there will be other memorials to those in times past who were devoted and faithful members of the chapel.

Please do not forget to send flowers for the communion table as memorials or thank offerings. Besides this they beautify the House of God. During March they were given by Miss H. L. Lee and Mr. Paul Hoeflich. Open dates may be ascertained by consulting the minister in charge or the sexton.

Mission Study Class

This class, which was conducted during Lent on Monday nights was well attended by an interested group of women. We wish to express to Mrs. Charles Carver, of Ardmore, our appreciation of her earnest and efficient leadership and hope that she will be able to be with us again next year. The class gave five dollars for the chaplain's work in one of our training camps.

Girls' Gym

This class, which has become popular on Saturday nights, has great fun. We go through various kinds of free hand drills, military exercises (though we hardly expect to go to France) and acrobatic stunts (though we do not expect to join the circus). As the gymnasium has been closed on account of saving fuel, we had to use one of the rooms in the Guild House. Therefore we have been unable to use the apparatus for several weeks. Now that the weather has moderated and we can use the gymnasium without heat, we expect the real work to begin once more. We always have light refreshments at the close of the evening, to which everybody is ready to do justice after such strenuous girlish exercises.

We are all very anxious to give Mr. Beam, our popular instructor, a pleasant surprise by filling the "gym." Just think of it! Therefore everybody come and bring a girl.

MISS GUESS,
Floor Manager.

Canada War Cake

Two cups of brown sugar, two cups of hot water, two tablespoonfuls of lard, one box of seedless raisins, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of ground cloves. Boil all together and continue to boil for five minutes after it begins to bubble. Cool this mixture and when cold add one teaspoonful soda, dissolved in a little hot water. Then stir in three cups of sifted flour; this makes two cakes. Must be baked forty-five minutes in a slow oven. Said to improve with time like fruit cake.

Entertainment

We were planning to have early in May a "home" gathering of all those who at one time or another have been members of the chapel or who are present members. Another notice with the date will be given later. It will be in the form of an entertainment in the large Sunday school room, followed by a social gathering that all may be better acquainted.

There are a number of people whose names are still on the Parish Register who have not been here for a long time and whose addresses we do not know.

Help us to get in touch with them by giving to the clergy at once the names and addresses of all those whom you can think of that an invitation may be sent to them. Make it a real success. Bring back olden times.

Foreign Visitors

There have been visits to Philadelphia by two notable personages from across the water. One was the Most Rev. C. Gordon Lang, D. D., Archbishop of York and Primate of England. This archbishopric was founded in the year 604, although there was a Bishop of York before the Saxon invasion. The present incumbent is the eighty-ninth in succession.

The other was the very Rev. Sir George Adam Smith, D. D., principal of Aberdeen University, Scotland, known the world over for his scholarship and Biblical research.

Both preached in our churches and spoke in our largest buildings and drew enormous crowds to hear them. Both brought very definite messages from the other side and sounded very certain notes regarding the world war. The opportunity of hearing these distinguished gentlemen is one that does not often come to Philadelphia. fortunate were those who availed themselves of the opportunity and privilege.

Magnificat in C.....J. Varley Roberts

Hymn 476
Offertory, Elijah.....Mendelssohn
Aria.

It is enough, O Lord, now to take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers:

I desire to live no longer; now let me die, for my days are but vanity.

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts, for the children of Israel have broken thy covenant, and thrown down thine altars, and slain all thy prophets with the sword.

And I, even I, only am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

Trio:

Lift thine eyes, O lift thine eyes, unto the mountains, whence cometh help. Thy help cometh from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth. He hath said thy foot shall not be moved.
Thy keeper will never slumber nor sleep.

Chorus:

He watching over Israel slumbers not nor sleeps. Should thou walking in grief long wish He will quicken thee.

A Parish Prayer

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; comfort the sorrowing; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth and bring all to be of one heart and of one mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church: prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Editor's Column

Word has come from the Board of Missions that "the Board is gratefully aware that your congregation was on the honor roll last year and is taking it for granted that the people will want to do all they can again, especially in such a time as this." Our apportionment is $398.27. So far we have paid in $216.16, leaving a balance of $69.42. Can we not make this amount up very shortly, or even go beyond it? The opportunity before the church is greater today than it has ever been. Men are hungry for Christianity. The Church must try to satisfy that hunger. No other religion has been able to supply these needs and cravings. If every member does his or her part great will be the harvest.

The date of the primary election is May 21st and the polls are open from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sometimes little interest is shown at this election. But this year, when patriotism is running very high, it is the patriotic duty of every citizen of this State to vote at this election to nominate a Governor and members of the State Legislature. One of the matters to come before the Legislature is the ratification of the Federal Prohibition Amendment. At present the chief enemies of this country are Germany with her Allies, and liquor. And of the latter the Kaiser said before the war began: "The country using the least alcohol will win the war."

Statistics show that in 1916-17 the United States made 60,817,379 barrels of beer, compared to Germany's 7,700,000 barrels. In other words, the United States made eight times as much as Germany. The following is from the Brewers' Journal:

"Whatever little news the autocratic governments of Germany and Austria reluctantly permit to be published in regard to the pitiable economic conditions of the inhabitants of their respective countries certainly does not show any improvement of the German and Austrian brewing industry. The outlook is decidedly gloomy. Of the thousands of small breweries which have been closed, many will never be opened, as their business has been totally destroyed. Others will be used for manufacturing anything but beer. Of late the government has commanded a number of breweries and converted them into meat packing plants and other facilities urgently required for the production of food for the starving population and the needs of the army."

Now Germany is under prohibition. Two large elements in war are grain and fuel. We must feed our men, our Allies, ourselves. Fuel must be had for transportation of troops and supplies, and making implements of war. Two large elements in brewing are grain and fuel. At present which has first claim, war or brewing?

It has been estimated that breweries use one pound of coal for every pint of beer made; that breweries destroy 4,000,000 loaves of bread per day; that it requires 700,000 cars a year to haul grain to and liquor from the breweries—which has first claim, war or brewing? These are questions of vital importance to be considered in connection with this approaching election. Some time ago tests were made in Swedish army of marksmanship with and without liquor. Results showed without liquor 359.5 points; less than two glasses mild beer, thirty minutes before shooting, 277.5 points.

Lay aside, if you wish, all the evil and horrible consequences of liquor and consider it only in relation to war:

Mississippi, Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina, North Dakota, Maryland, Montana, Texas, Delaware, South Dakota and Massachusetts have thus far ratified the Federal Amendment. What will Pennsylvania do about it? What is the Christian voter of Pennsylvania going to do about it? The ratification of Pennsylvania depends upon its Legislature. Is the primary election on May 21st to nominate a Governor and members of the Legislature important or not?

THE BAR

Written by a life convict of Joliet Prison.
The Saloon is sometimes called
A Bar—that's true.

A Bar to heaven, a door to hell;
Whoever named it, named it well.
A Bar to manliness and wealth;
A door to want and broken health.
A Bar to honor, pride and fame;
A door to grief and sin and shame.
A Bar to hope, a Bar to prayer,
A door to darkness and despair.
A Bar to honored, useful life;
A door to brawling, senseless strife.
A Bar to all that's true and brave.
A door to every drunkard's grave,
A Bar to joys that home imparts,
A door to tears and aching hearts;
A Bar to heaven, a door to hell,
Whoever named it, named it well.

The Elijah oratorio, which was to have been given by the choir in April, had to be postponed to the first Sunday evening in May.

The choirmaster has arranged for two other musical programs on Sunday evenings this month. On May 12th the music will be from the French composer, Charles Gounod, and on May 26th the selections will be from English composers, preceded by Handel's "Largo." Do not forget the dates and invite friends to come with you.

May 7th will be the first anniversary of our boy choir and we wish to express to Mr. Potter, the choirmaster, our congratulations for the success he has accomplished and to the men and boys our appreciation of their progress and faithfulness to duty and service. We hope that each one will, in the future, look back with loving remembrance and thankfulness to the choir days at the Chapel.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Two of these services were held during April, on the 14th and 28th. At the eleventh hour word came from the British Headquarters that it would be impossible for Lieut. Newson, who was to be the speaker, to be present. He had been wounded twice and gased once in engagements and his health at that time was such that his physician forbade him keeping his engagement. The U. S. is always ready to help her Allies. So in this instance Sergeant G. R. Clayton, Co. E, 18th Inf., U. S. A., came to the rescue and delivered the address. He was amongst the first of the U. S. boys who had been in the trenches and told of his experiences. He had been invalidated on account of rheumatism and sent home to recuperate.

At the second service Major W. A. Garrett gave a most instructive and interesting talk on "Some of my observations in France." The major had been sent abroad by our Government to study certain very important situations. This gave him an opportunity to travel far and see much so that every one had a clearer vision and stronger reality of war conditions, and should have been made, if possible, better patriots.

We are planning to have another service of this character May 19th,

GIRLS' GUILD

The Girls' Guild has met each Tuesday evening in the Guild House for work. During the past month they have spent their time making vestments for the Vesper Choir, about twenty girls having been provided for. Also the girls have been practicing for a short play to be given May 22nd, "The Home Coming Day." The play is called "Aunt Susan Jones" Those taking part are as follows: Minnie Stanley, Aunt Susan Jones; Katherine McGarvey, Mrs. Mackley; Laura Weinmann, Arabella; Martha Griffith, Anna Wilson; Norman Harris will take the part of Augustus Salderfrac.

There will be a scream for the spectators from beginning to end of the comedy.

IN THE SERVICE

It is a pleasure for the clergy to get letters from our boys in the service of the country. Harry Bingham writes from Camp Hancock: "This camp is considered the healthiest and best trained soldier camp in the U. S. We have a beautiful field service here every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The chaplain is doing wonderful work for the boys, including football, basketball and moving pictures."

William Stuart is on the "Calvin Austin." He enjoyed receiving a copy of the Courier. It so happened that there was on the same ship another William A. Stewart, who received the Courier and finding it was not meant for him turned it over to "our" William Stuart.

Samuel Scott was home from Camp Hancock on furlough, but was suddenly recalled by telegram before the expiration of his furlough. Several days afterwards his sister had a chance to see him for five minutes as his troop train passed through this city. He is now at Camp Merritt expecting very shortly to go "over there." From him and Edward Ryder we had nice notes of thanks for copies of the "Soldiers' and Sailors' Prayer Book." We hope to send a copy of this excellent little book to each of our boys. We have not heard from those across the water for some time. We want all of them to know we think of them and remember them in our prayers. From home mail it looks like Dan Littleley is now at the front. We are glad to hear through Chaplain Grotan of the Christian activities of Joseph Ailes at his camp. We trust every Chapel boy is doing the same.

Do not forget the "home coming" Wednesday, May 22, at 8 P. M., in the Sunday School building. Make no other engagements. The Chapel expects every man and woman to be here.

The following young men have been appointed ushers for the month of May: Wesley Anthony, Robert Littleley, John Weir, Jr., Norman Harris, Frederick Dietman and Frank Long.

THE BOYS' GYM

The boys' gym has had a very successful season. One of the boys, Arthur Riley, enlisted in the Marine Corp and soon was made a physical instructor at the camp on Paris Island, S. C., where he is stationed, thus showing the thoroughness of his training in our gym under Mr. Beam. There is such a demand for instructors now, with good pay, each boy ought to put his heart and soul in the work and become efficient, so that when the call comes for such work he will be ready to take it up. After the close of the practice on Monday, April 29th, refreshments were served in the Guild House and the official season closed for the summer vacation. But the gym will be open each Monday night for exercise and any of the boys who desire may come. Wesley Anthony, Frank Long, Robert Littleley and the other of the larger boys are in charge and will instruct the smaller boys.

The basketball team did very good work during the past season, winning about two-thirds of the games played. Because of the coal shortage, the chapel gym room was closed for two months, thus necessitating the boys playing elsewhere. When we were able to return to our own quarters the season was over. Boys, let us hope for better luck next season.

LIBERTY DAY

On Saturday, April 27th, the Bishop of Pennsylvania invited his clergy to join with him in the parade for the Third Liberty Loan. Therefore, about 200 of the clergy, led by Bishops Rhinelander and Garland, marched down Broad St. in our place in the parade. Back of us came the ministers of the other denominations. Mr. Warfield was not able to attend because of a funeral, but Mr. Edwards was there to represent the chapel.

The first of the parade reached City Hall about one o'clock, the last reached there about six. If all had been in one straight line at one time it would probably have covered the full length of Broad St. and more.

GIRLS' GYM.

The Girls' Gym, under the direction of Mr. W. Ward Beam, is growing in interest each meeting night. On Saturday, April 20th, the girls had a "war time" party in the dining room of the Guild House at 6.30 P. M. Each member brought a part of the food, and when the 25 members present had devoured what each could reach, mingled with jokes and laughter, it was very difficult to go through the gym. exercises which followed the supper. Mr. Beam, being "top sergeant" in the Home Defense Reserve, came to the gym Saturday evening, April 27th, in his new uniform and really made a hit in it.

Two of the girls gathered up some rice and confetti from the doorsteps, the remainder of a marriage which was performed earlier in the afternoon, and when Mr. Beam and Mr. Edwards came out with some of the members of the gym, at the "close of a perfect day," the rice and confetti were thrown upon them. A pedestrian passing by thought it was a war wedding party and enjoyed the fun until it became evident all was a joke.

BOY SCOUTS

Our Boy Scouts are doing nicely and we hope to soon have all registered in a new troop with Scoutmaster and Patrol Leader all our own. Mr. McKinley is helping us finely and we are very grateful to him. Bispham has been elected Patrol Leader of the new Patrol and we know he will make a good leader of the boys.

CONVENTION

The 134th convention of the church in this diocese will be held in the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany on Tuesday, May 7th.

The officers and teachers of our Sunday School are invited to supper at Holy Trinity Parish House Monday evening, May 6th, at 6.30 o'clock, to meet the teachers from the other parts of the parish. Let every teacher make an effort to be present. Supper will be over in time to keep later engagements.

LIBERTY LOAN

Many committees, organizations, churches and schools have been working hard for the Third Liberty Loan. Miss Burk, Miss Sarah Moore, Miss Margaret Greer and Mrs. Riley were appointed to represent our chapel and solicit subscriptions. They form a branch of the Church Committee of the South Philadelphia District. So far they have obtained 25 subscriptions. Many of our people have subscribed through other channels. The number of names on the Honor Roll is growing: Messrs. Wm. Glasgow, James Warnock, Jr., John Weir, Sr., George Kitelman, Robert Fulerton and George G. Kell were appointed a committee to see that all of our members who have subscribed placed their names on the roll. At present the following names are on the roll: Jennie Long, Wesley Anthony, James Warnock, Jr., George Kitselman, Anna Watts, Paul Hoeflick, Mrs. Elizabeth Hammond, Charlotte Hammond, Frank Long, Mae Riley, Lillian Riley, Edgar V. W. Edwards, Lidie B. Willsey, John Riley, Miss John Riley, Frances L. Vogels, Eleanor S. Vogels, David Vogels, Emily N. Bennett, Annie M. Collins, Mrs. James Warnock, Jr., Mary J. Burk, Wm. J. Bennett, Mabel Disher, Alex. Ellison, Mrs. Alex. Ellison, Wm. Ellison, Mrs. Francis Ward, Geo. Gilbert, Arnold Shugg, Mrs. Elizabeth Dougherty, Mrs. Margaret Speirs, Marguerite Speirs, Goodell Clark, Edna Pruden, Beatrice Smith, Thos. Scott, Jennie Small, Sarah Moore, Adolph Ehmann, J. Ogle Warfield, Jr., Edwin S. Warfield, Mrs. J. Warfield, J. Ogle Warfield, Frederick Donaghy, Mary McCloskey, Ernest F. CONVOCATION

The Convocation of South Philadelphia held its April meeting in the Parish House of St. Michael's Chapel. The business meetings of the men and women were held separately. Mr. William Glasgow and Miss Gladys Thomas were present to represent our Chapel. We regret that our other delegates were unable to be present. After the business sessions a splendid supper was served to all the delegates both clerical and lay, men and women. At the close of the supper addresses were made on the topic, "Reform Work in South Philadelphia." Mr. Robert D. Dripps, formerly Councilman, gave an excellent address on these conditions in general as they exist there today and particularly so as that is where our Navy Yard is located. He pointed out the grave dangers confronting young girls by reason of these things.

The Rev. H. Cresson McHenry spoke of things as they were in the neighborhood of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of which he is minister in charge. He read copies of letters that had passed between him and city officials in his effort to have the police authorities make that section of the city cleaner morally than it now is. The Rev. J. M. Niblo, vicar of St. Michael's, spoke of the reform and rescue work being done by that chapel in its particular locality. All of the speakers showed the large field and important opportunity for social reform work in this thickly populated part of our city.

WOMAN'S GUILD

The Mission Study Class, composed of the members of the Woman's Guild, presented Mrs. Chas. Carver with $5 to purchase linen for the chaplain's house at Camp Meade.

The members of the Guild have been very enthusiastic over the Third Liberty Loan. Nearly all of the members have subscribed.

A rummage sale will be held on the fourth Friday and Saturday in May. Donations of any kind will be thankfully received at the Guild House, 2216 Spruce St.

LITTLE HOUSE OF SAINT PANTALEON

Dear Mr. Warfield:

It gives us great pleasure to tell you again how much help we are receiving through your kindness in allowing us rooms in the Guild House. Our work is not only made more effective but it is doubly pleasant because we have so much more room and so much more space in a room that is so delightfully cheerful. We want to be worthy of the help of all our friends, and I am happy in being able to tell you that since our last letter more than a hundred boxes have been packed.

As the news comes of village after village being taken by the Germans this has for us not only its political significance, but also the terrible significance of homes abandoned and of unhappy, fleeing refugees. Each foot of ground lost means, too, some brave men have fallen, and so the daily news comes to us as a great cry—the call for help to both refugee and wounded. We are, therefore, doubly grateful that we have such excellent facilities for packing and we thank all those of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel who help us in our work and who are kind enough to cheer us by words of welcome when we come in with our loads.

With very kind regards,
Sincerely yours,
Elsie Whitlock-Rose.

Memorial flowers were given last month by Miss Mary McCloskey. They have been promised for May 5th and 12th. May 19th (Whitsunday) and May 26th (Trinity Sunday) are still open. We hope somebody will offer to supply them for these two festival Sundays.

Mr. H. A. Gordon, Acting Scout Executive, will be the speaker Sunday evening, May 19th. Patriotic Service.

NEW TESTAMENT LEAGUE

Last year seventy-two of our people became members of the New Testament League. To become a member only two things are required, namely, to read a chapter of the Bible

Offertory from the "Creation," Haydn

And God said, let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself upon the earth. And it was so.

With verdure clad the fields appear,
Delightful to the ravished sense,
By flowers sweet and gay
Enhanced is the charming sight,
Here fragrant herbs their odors shed;
Here shoots the healing plant.
With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves;
O'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

every day and to carry with you a copy of the Bible or Testament. We hope none of our girls and boys have forgotten these promises. If any of our adult members would like to join the clergy we would be glad to give them membership cards. President Wilson has joined this league. A campaign is under way to get 1,000,000 American sailors and soldiers to "sign up." What a mighty army of Bible readers this would make without counting the thousands of civilians who have joined!

WAR PRAYER

The following prayer may be useful in private devotions:

O Almighty God, King of kings, and Lord of lords, we commend to Thy fatherly goodness the men of our army and navy and our Allies, especially those from this parish, who are enduring the pains and perils of war for us on land and sea, under the sea and in the air. Be Thou their tower of strength in the midst of so many and great dangers and help them, in life and death, to put their trust in Thee, Who art the only giver of all victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A scholarship has been offered to the Cambridge Conference, to be held this summer in Cambridge, Mass. It is open to scholars in the Sunday schools of the Diocese of Pennsylvania between the ages of 17 and 25 years. The examination will be held in the Church House, Twelfth and Walnut streets, Saturday, May 25th, at 10 A. M. The subject will be "The Old and New Testament and the Prayer Book," through the confirmation service. All those who would like to enter the contest will please consult the clergy as soon as possible.

Hath to mortals given
Life for evermore.

Chorus (unaccompanied)—"Jesus, Word of God, Incarnate."

Of the Virgin Mary born,
On the Cross Thy sacred body
For us men with nails was torn;
Cleanse us by the blood and water
Streaming from Thy pierced side,
Feed us with Thy body broken
Now and in death's agony—

O Jesus, hear us,

O grant us, Lord, Thy mercy. Amen.

Aria, Tenor—Ah, cast me not away, receive me though unworthy. Hear Thou my cry. Regard, Lord, my complaint. Let not Thy vengeance smite me, though righteous Thine anger, O Lord. Thy pity show in my great anguish.

O Redeemer Divine, I pray Thee grant pardon and remember not my sins.

Chorus from the Redemption—

Unfold, ye portals everlasting!
With welcome to receive
Him ascending on high,
Behold the King of Glory,
He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the heavenly mansions hastening.
Unfold, for lo, the King comes nigh.
But who is He, the King of Glory?
He who death overcame,
The Lord in battle mighty,
Of Hosts He is the Lord,
Of angels and of powers,
The King of Glory is the King of the Saints.

Aria:

Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and earth were passed away. And I saw the Holy City, New Jerusalem.

Chorus—Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.

Air:

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, nor any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

Chorus—Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.

Air:

I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. Above it stood the Seraphim, and one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.

Anthem—Solo and Chorus,

Sir Arthur Sullivan

I will mention the loving kindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us. For He said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie. So He was their Saviour and the angel of His presence saved them. In His love and in His pity He redeemed them, and He bare them and carried them all the days of old. Thou, O God, art our Father.

Quintette—(Holy City)....A. R. Gaul

List! the Cherubim host, in thousand choirs,
Touch their immortal harps of golden wires,
With those just spirits who wear victorious palms
Singing everlasting devout and holy psalms.

And I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps; and they sung as it were a new song before the throne; and no man could learn that song but they which were redeemed.—Rev. xiv. 2, 8.

Duett (Daughter of Jairus),

Sir John Stainer

(Words of Hymn 432)

Solo and Chorus.....Sir John Stainer

Ye shall dwell in the land which gave to your fathers and ye shall be my people and I will be your God. I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, and the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by, and they shall say, this land that was desolate is become as the garden of Eden. Give thanks unto the Lord. His mercy endureth forever.

O blessed is that land of God,
Where saints abide forever,
Where golden streams spread far and broad,
Where flows the crystal river,
The strains of all its holy throng,
With ours today are blending,
Thrice blessed is that holy song,
Which never hath an ending.

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and tions of Thy people and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen

SERVICES

The musical programs on the Sunday evenings in May were very interesting, and were rendered by the choir. May 5 a part of the oratorio of Elijah was given; May 12 the selections were from the French composer Gounod, while May 26 the selections were from the best English composers. May 19 another patriotic service was held with an address by Mr. H. A. Gordan, Scout Executive. A large number of Scouts was expected, as Mr. Gordan had announced the service through the Scout papers, but as the weather happened to be beautiful that day it is possible the lure of the outdoors was too strong for the boys; only a small number came. We hope that they will come in larger forces the next time.

The musical side of the services for June will be found on another page of the Courier. It may be more interesting if the parishioners bring their copies and follow the words which are there printed.

It is hoped to have one more patriotic service in June. Announcement will be made later.

CAMPS

It is expected that the Boys' Camp at North Asbury will open Monday, July 1, with a group of boys from the Prince of Peace. Mr. Edwards will be in charge of the camp this year.

Applications from those who would like to go should be made to Mr. Warfield as early as possible. We can accommodate about twenty-four boys at one time.

The Holiday House at Sellersville will open June 29 with a service by the rector. Applications from the women and girls who would like to spend their vacation there should also be made to Mr. Warfield at an early date, so that room may be reserved for them.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

As the President, Mrs. Morton Maule, expected to leave the city soon the last meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held on Thursday evening, May 2, when there was a very good attendance.

Several nights later some of the members came to the Guild House and packed the bundles to go to St. John the Baptist Mission in Virginia. It was thought that it would be safer and quicker to send the things by parcel post and insure each package, which was done. These had to be put in several bundles so as to comply with the postal requirements in regard to measurements. They contained seven dresses, three blouses, six aprons for children, six aprons for women, six petticoats, one fancy dress for a child, thirteen pairs of drawers, six boys' caps, twelve babies' caps and twenty coats. Total valuation, $75.

A letter has been received from Miss Anna Williamson, who is in charge of the Mission, expressing grateful appreciation for all the things and complimenting us on the way they were packed. Each bundle had been sewn in burlap before being wrapped in paper. The work of the Auxiliary this year has been more encouraging and since Mrs. Maule took charge the attendance has been larger.

We trust that when we reopen in the fall every woman of the chapel will become a member and assist in the good work we are trying to do. The dues are only fifty cents a year.

JENNIE L. LONG,
Secretary.

SMOKER

Another smoker for all of the men of the chapel and their friends will be held on Wednesday evening, June 19. Men, this is your invitation, so please do not forget the date. No postal cards will be sent. We hope each one of you will be there and help to make the evening an enjoyable one. Mr. Edwards will give an illustrated lecture on the German destruction in France and Belgium.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

According to our custom for the past two years, the session of the Sunday School will be changed from the afternoon to 10 o'clock in the morning, beginning the first Sunday in June, and so continue until further notice. The session will be a short one and this will afford teachers and scholars an opportunity to go right from the school to the morning service. Members of the boys' choir who attend other Sunday Schools in the afternoon can now come to us in the morning. The last monthly service in the church until next fall was held the third Sunday in May. It will be interesting to read the following letter, which Mr. Warfield recently received from the mother of the little boy in France whom our Sunday School is helping to support and educate. The translation is:

Caen, May 2, 1918.

Sir:

I want to thank you for the postal order which you have been kind enough to send me through the committee of the United States, and I want to thank you also with all my heart for interesting yourself in my son Andrew who is learning the trade of turner according to the desire of his poor dead father. I send you the photograph of my dear little Andrew asking you if you will be kind enough to acknowledge its receipt, because in case it is lost I will send you another. Please accept, dear Sir, with my respects, the expression of my most lively gratitude.

Your entirely devoted,

Widow LeTise.

Andrew's picture came safely and may be seen in the Sunday School. How nice it is to help one of the fatherless children of France!

TEACHERS' MEETING

The teachers of the Sunday School and the members of the two Bible classes, Miss Lee's and Miss Tomkin's, are requested to attend a meeting in the interest of the school on Wednesday evening, June 5, at 8.15, in the Guild House. Please let everyone make an effort to be there.

MOTHERS' MEETING

Under the leadership of Miss Harriett Lee the Mothers' Meeting has had a happy and successful season. Of late they have been engaged in making some requirements for the Vesper Choir and sewing carpet rags, the latter a most monotonous but at the same time helpful kind of work. We are indebted to Miss Helen Donaghy for playing the piano at the opening exercises and taking charge of the children who accompanied their mothers.

The last official meeting of the season was held on Thursday, May 28, when refreshments were served which included some of that good home-made cake that Miss Lillian McCuen has been so kindly making for us for weeks past. The table was prettily decorated with mock orange blossoms from Miss Lee's country place and at each plate was a potted geranium, also the gift of Miss Lee.

The Vicar was presented by the mothers with a beautifully bound copy of the Bible and Prayer Book combined, and the Curate with a fine linen surplice with a handsomely embroidered cross on the front of it.

A picnic has been planned for Wednesday, June 12, to go to Willow Grove and we anticipate a happy day in the country if the weather is favorable. These meetings will be resumed early in October and it is hoped that more mothers will avail themselves of the opportunity of meeting with us and spending a pleasant afternoon. The Vicar has promised us the use of the large assembly room for our meeting and provision will be made to take care of the children whom the mothers may find necessary to bring with them.

FLOWERS

Memorial flowers for May were given by Mr. Paul Hoefflich, Miss Margaret Armstrong, the Misses Pruden, Miss Annie Collins, Mr. and Mrs. James Warnock, Jr., and Mrs. Elizabeth Hammond.

June 23 and 30 are still open. We hope some persons will take these dates.

HOME COMING

The Home Coming which was held in the Sunday School Building Wednesday evening, May 22, was quite a success. Though the evening was warm there was a large attendance. Nearly four hundred invitations were issued. After a few words by the Vicar the Rector gave an address of welcome. The choirmaster, Mr. Potter, had charge of the musical side of the program, which consisted of selections by the two choirs, the male choir and the Vesper choir, and solos by men and boys.

The play entitled "Aunt Susan Jones," under the management of Mr. Edwards, was well given. The characters were taken by Minnie Stanley, Katherine McGarvey, Laura Weinman, Martha Griffith and Norman Harris. Later in the evening refreshments were served by ladies of the chapel. We were so glad to have with us friends of the chapel who had not been here for a long time and we hope they will come to see us soon again. Regrets were received from the Rev. Messrs. Edwards and Mayo, former ministers-in-charge.

PICNIC

It is expected that the Sunday School picnic will be held Friday, June 28. We hope to go on the morning boat to Burlington Island Park. It will be a parish picnic, as the Sunday Schools of Holy Trinity and the Prince of Peace will join with us. The boat is a nice one and the ride on the Delaware will be enjoyable. Let every one talk it up and make preparations to go. Invite your parents and friends to join us and make it a great success. Tickets for those not connected with the Sunday School will be fifty cents, with half fare for children. There will be no charge for members of the Sunday School. Those who cannot go on the morning boat may take the afternoon one, but we hope you will make a full day of it. Then you can rest on Saturday for Sunday. Don't forget the date. Get tickets from the clergy.

THE GIRLS' GYM

The Girls' Gym came to a close officially Saturday evening, May 18, with a sumptuous feed. Mr. Beam, the instructor, was present with his wife and little daughter. (By the way, what happened to Mr. Beam and his household? Did they eat too much or was it the cooking? A few days after the affair he was called up over the phone by one of the girls who was informed that Mr. Beam and family had gone to the seashore for their health.) Mr. Potter and Mr. Edwards were the other honored guests. After the party was over, a few expert gym stunts were pulled off for the benefit of those present. While officially the season is closed, the hall will continue to be open for the girls to exercise and play. The gym class will have a little outing at the seashore for a few days the end of June.

We leave Philadelphia June 24 A. M., returning July 1 on the first train in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and Miss Ethel Donaghy will have charge and Miss Minnie Stanley has volunteered to cook for the crowd. "Girls, get your stomachs copperplated." The girls' parents need not fear to let the girls go for they will receive careful attention, especially the smaller ones. Further details later.

We thank the Misses Vogels, Simons, Thomas and Donaghy very much for acting as chaperons for the past winter. We hope they will have a helpful vacation and will return to aid us again next season, which will open in October.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Woman's Guild, on May 24 and 25, 1918, held a rummage sale, which netted $41. It has been found that there is no more satisfactory way for raising money. It is of great benefit to those who are in need of clothing and shoes and cannot afford to pay the full price, and it is an opportunity for those who have cast-off clothing to help along in benevolent work.

MRS. L. WILLSEY,
Secretary.

BOY SCOUTS

Division No. 2, of Troop No. 22, which has been meeting with us for the winter months, has returned to the old meeting place at Holy Trinity Parish House. We regret to see the "boys" leave us, yet we are overjoyed because of the enthusiasm they left with our own boys for a troop at the chapel. As soon as all the boys have passed their "tenderfoot" test we are going to ask for a charter for our new troop.

Mr. Edwards went on a hike with a few of the new Scouts and a few of the members of Troop 22 to the woods on May 18 and had a great time. Starsman was color-blind, thinking a dark place in the creek was a log and attempted to cross to the other side. When last seen Starsman was sitting on a rock, like a frog, in his birthday suit, waiting for his uniform to dry, hanging on a shrub near by. Sessinger is some "Daniel Boone," when he goes camping over night. He needs neither tent nor shelter and his blanket was spread so high one passing by would think he expected the tide to wet his feet before morning. Ralph Lamond is a good Scout and even the skeeters have to carry lanterns to catch him napping. We can always tell which Scouts belong to Mr. Potter's choir, for when Mr. McKinley, the Scoutmaster, whose weight corresponds with Mr. Potter, would suddenly appear the boys at once became very quiet, expecting to be fined for misbehaviour or made to march into church and back again for discipline.

E. E.

NOTES

Rev. Mr. Warfield preached in Holy Trinity at the afternoon service on May 12, also on the morning of Trinity Sunday, as the Rector had to be absent to present one of the young men from the parish for ordination.

Theodore Leonard, one of our boys, who has been attending William and Mary College, will during the summer vacation act as lay reader in Holy Trinity Church.

LITTLE HELPERS

On Saturday, May 11, the work of the Little Helpers closed for the season with a devotional service in the chapel. A short address was given by the Vicar. After the service Miss Bayard, one of the Diocesan officers, talked to the children in the Guild House and they were entertained with lantern slides showing some of the scenes of German destruction in the great war. Then followed the "party." There were thirty-one present and all had a jolly time. We appreciate very much the interest that the leaders, Mrs. Burns, Miss Moore, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Kendall have taken in this important part of our parochial work and we trust that they will be with us again in the fall. Mrs. Kendall will still meet with some of the older girls to teach them to knit. Prizes were awarded to Lidie Willsey and Emma Coyle for not having missed a session, to Lydia Baker for bringing three new scholars and to Ruth Norris for the largest amount in the mite-boxes. Who will win them next year? Every one must try.

Arthur Riley has been removed from Paris Island, S. C., Camp, to near Washington, D. C., on the Virginia side of the Potomac River. Joseph Ails left Hancock and is now a member of the military police at Camp Upton, N. Y.

Robert Logue, another of our boys, left Sunday, May 26, for training at one of the cantonments.

Samuel Scott, from Camp Hancock, has arrived safely in France.

Lewis Mellon is at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va. Lewis is one of the chapel's old boys but of late has not been very regular in his attendance.

Boys, our prayers go with you and may God's blessing rest upon you. Serve your country nobly and well.

Mr. Edwards preached in Christ Church, Pottstown, on the evening of May 5, also in St. Matthias', Philadelphia, on the evening of May 19.

CONFERENCE FOR BOYS

The Diocesan Board of Religious Education gave a conference and supper for the boys of the church at the City Club, Broad street, on May 18. Mr. Glasgow, Mr. Edwards and Morris Shugg represented the chapel. The supper was grand, the speaker very helpful. The purpose of the conference was to help the boys to choose high callings and to become leaders of men. The call to the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ was foremost in the minds of the speakers. Dr. Steinmetz, head master of the Episcopal Academy, was chairman and introduced the speakers, Bishop Rhinelander and a missionary from China. Everybody had a pleasant evening and felt very much helped by the addresses. It would be just fine if another of our boys would offer himself for the sacred ministry. Boys, consider this a call and speak to one of the clergy about it. Nothing is higher or more noble than being a minister of God in His church.

E. V. E.

The second series of Sunday afternoon services on the Parkway, on the property allotted for the purposes of the Cathedral, began on Trinity Sunday at five o'clock. A prominent speaker will make the address each Sunday.

In accordance with the Proclamation of the President of the United States appointing Memorial Day as "a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting," a service of intercessions and patriotic hymns was held in the chapel at nine o'clock.

Do not forget the picnic Friday, June 28.

Remember the change of the hour of Sunday School to 10 A. M. beginning June 2.

Chorus from the Holy City, Alfred H. Gaul

No shadows yonder,
All light and song,
Each day I wonder
And say, "How long,
Shall time me sunder
From that dear throng?"

No weeping yonder!
All fled away!
While here I wander
Each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder
My long, long stay.

No partings yonder!
Time and space never—Again shall sunder—
Hearts cannot sever—
Dearer and fonder
Hands clasp forever.

None wanting yonder!
Bought by the Lamb,
All gathered under
The evergreen palm—
Loud as night's thunder
Ascends the glad psalm.

Tenor Aria (Holy City)

My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God; when shall I come to appear before the presence of God? My tears have been my meat day and night, while they daily say unto me, "Where is now thy God?" O bring me out of all my trouble.

And unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Zion,

Soprano Aria Torrente

Show me Thy ways, O Lord, lead me in Thy truth. Full of compassion, gracious in mercy, kind is the Lord! Then shall sinners come unto Thee. For Thy name's sake, O Lord, blot out all mine iniquities! Lord, pardon all mine iniquities.

Tenor Aria from the Daughter of Jairus Sir John Stainer

My hope is in the Everlasting, that He will save you; and joy is come unto me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come to you from the Everlasting, our Saviour.

I sent you out with mourning and weeping. But God will give you to me again with joy and gladness forever.

Duett and Chorus from the Hymn of Praise Mendelssohn

Of the Virgin Mary born,
On the Cross Thy sacred body
For us men with nails was torn;

Soprano Recitative and Aria from the CreationJoseph Haydn

And God said, let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit, after his kind, whose seed is in itself upon the earth, and it was so.

With verdure clad the fields appear,
Delightful to the ravished sense,
By flowers sweet and gay
Enhanced is the charming sight.
Here fragrant herbs their odors shed,
Here shoots the healing plant
With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves,
O'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

War Prayer

The following prayer may be useful in private devotions:

O Almighty God, King of kings, and Lord of lords we command to Thy fatherly goodness the men of our army and navy and our allies, especially those from this Parish who are enduring the pains and perils of war for us on land and sea, under the sea and in the air. Be Thou their tower of strength in the midst of so many and great dangers and help them, in life and death, to put their trust in Thee,
Who are the only giver of all victory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The members of the Monday Evening Guild entertained a large number of sailors from the Navy Yard Wednesday, the 26th.

Mrs. Moore had very kindly provided for entertainment by a number of friends who sang and recited. Miss Nan Parks saw to it that there was no dearth of girls and the young people had a great time singing the popular songs of the day and dancing. There were present in all about 125 or 130. The ladies had a bountiful supply of cake and ice cream. The boys seemed to have a thoroughly good time. Philadelphia has won for itself a name in the generous way the residents have treated the boys who are in our Army and Navy.

It would be nice if one of the other organizations could repeat this some time during the summer.

This is the one Guild that remains open all the year. Even the other week, when there was one thunder storm after another, there was one member present. Let every member try this summer to be present as often as possible when she is not out of town and keep the Guild thoroughly awake. Your presence will add cheer to the others who may be here.

SERVICES

There will be no change in the hours of the services during the summer. We hope that all of our members will regard it as a duty to be in their accustomed seats when Sunday rolls around if they are in the city. There is no difference between Christianity in the summer and winter. All of us need the services that the church has to offer us and if we do not take advantage of them the loss is ours.

Your presence is a stimulus to other members and an encouragement to your minister. He does not enjoy preaching to empty benches—your prayers will be a great help to the boys who are fighting on the other side and have few opportunities of attending services in God's house.

There has of late been a falling off in the attendance at the early celebrations. It is very pleasant to go to God's house early in the morning and partake of the Blessed Sacrament and fulfill His command. It fits and strengthens one for the tasks of the week. It helps to keep the heart and mind in accord with God's will. When once the habit is formed the benefits and advantages will be realized. If you have not formed the habit try it this summer.

Of course it may mean rising a little early, but one does not consider this when some secular enjoyment of the day requires it. Secular matters are temporal, religious ones eternal. Life here passes into eternity. We cannot change that. It is most important then that life here be prepared for the life hereafter. Partaking of the Body and Blood of the risen Lord is a help.

Our apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions is $398.27. Our account at present stands as follows:

Chapel Collections	$256.08
S. S. Mite Boxes	103.72
One-day Income	10.00
Woman's Auxiliary	5.00
$374.80

Balance due 23.47

Last year we were on the Honor Roll. Can we not make up the balance at once or go beyond it? The collection July 14 will be for that purpose.

June 29, 1918.

Dear Mr. Warfield:

It is a great pleasure at all times to express the gratitude which we feel towards everybody at the Guild House who make our sojourn there so pleasant. Many activities are now ceasing, but the war unfortunately is not among these; the boys are still "carrying on" during every one of these summer days and nights. And if war can do so, we feel that war-relief should not lag behind. So the Little House of Saint Pantaleon is going to continue its work all during the summer; and it is when we think of the pleasant, airy quarters in which we pack that we feel like writing of our gratitude for the continuation of your great kindness to us.

The news from France shows that there is no cessation of suffering, and when we read of the continued, sustained endurance of those who have known invasion, our own best efforts seem far indeed from any real sacrifice. In receiving lists of orphans for adoption, we have passed beyond such descriptions as "a poor family, intelligent, worthy of interest," to the tarter words, "frightful poverty; please help here first." Military hospitals which desired only aid for the wounded now ask for aid for everyone. One hospital nurse in French Flanders (very near the front) tells us of victims received there, a "baby two months old," "a boy fourteen years old who has just died. On his death-bed covered with flowers," she wrote: "This innocent victim brings tears to all eyes." The baby, the wounded, the boy—all were victims of air raids—"the bombs which the enemy showers on us during every beautiful moonlit night of spring."

We who have slept peacefully through these "beautiful, moonlit nights," are urged on by such tragic letters to help those who have been so unfortunate in our cause. While we have been enjoying this spring, many whom we are helping have fled in terror from homes once as happy as our own, fled in terror along the road, listening to the noise of the guns. Many are already looking forward to a winter without coal and without food. "Can you not do something," writes a friend, "for the aged lace-workers, the poor old women whose means of livelihood is gone? Could you help us to give them one daily meal, so that next winter they may not starve?"

We in America are asked only to "spare a loaf." France is on a compulsory bread ration. We are far from "the lines," a large part of France is behind those lines, in the cruel grasp of Germany.

It is only natural therefore that we should long to send over all that we can to lessen that great toll of suffering from which we are, mercifully, so largely exempted. We have packed in a narrow hallway, in a laundry, even in a cellar,—and it seems to us a luxury to have our new packing room. We want to do all the more because our work is made so easy.

We want also to thank Miss Donaghy and the Girls' Guild, who have so kindly given us clothing for our poor orphans. Our chapters, members, and friends have been most generous, and we are happy to have passed another hundred mark in cases—over 800 having now started on their long voyage. It made our longing to help a little less poignant when, in June, we stood on the steps of the Guild House and watched 58 cases carried away on the first stage of the journey "overseas." With best wishes for a pleasant summer to all our friends at the Guild House,

Sincerely yours,
Elise Whitlock Rose.

The above letter speaks for itself in the great work for humanity that is being done by the Little House of Saint Pantaleon and we are very happy that we are in a position to give its officers a room in the Guild House in which to do their packing.

I heartily urge upon all of our members to give all the assistance that they can. Packages marked "Little House" may be left at the Guild House any time.

(Signed) J. Ogle Warfield.

OUR BOYS

More of the boys are in France. It is rather hard to keep track of them. They are moved suddenly these days. So many are "going over."

Dan Littleley has been in the thick of the first line trenches in the recent engagements. William Stuart kindly sent us a card from Norfolk, Va., into which port he had run for a few days, and William Griffith sent us one from Charleston, S. C. We have also recently had two letters from Sam Scott in France.

The following excerpts from letters will speak for themselves. Home folks will please keep the Vicar posted. He is always glad to hear directly from the boys and will answer their letters.

"The five days I spent in Paris were certainly the best I have spent in my life. We lived in a big hotel and like kings at that and the thing most pleasant was the eating out of regular plates and sleeping in a real bed for the first time in six months (the first time in two years for some of the fellows). The subway system in Paris is built in layers, one under the other, and for the sum of five cents we could ride first class all over town all day—the price on the regular street cars, and no one is allowed to stand up in the car. After visiting all the places of interest, such as Notre Dame, the Royal Palaces, the Tuilleries Gardens, the Bastile, the Moulin Rouge, the Rue Montmartre, the Arc de Triumph, etc., we went to Versailles and saw the Royal Palaces of King Louis XIV and Marie Antoinette. By slipping the keeper a few francs we were allowed to go all through and into the king's private gardens, which are immense in distance and quality. I have among my papers a rose which came from Napoleon Bonaparte's grotto, which no one is supposed to enter, but I guess I had better quit or you will be wanting to come over here. I could rave forever over Paris. It is modern, clean, up to date and the people treated us white. Christmas Day was a much better day than I expected. In the afternoon I went to a large place where a company of Americans had a large Christmas tree and presents for all the small children of the town. After speeches by Americans and French a bus dashed into the ring with Santa Claus in it. You can imagine the surprise of the French and the joy of the kids at this strange object. In France on Christmas Eve the kids put their shoes at the chimney and believe that God himself comes down in the form of Noel with gifts. That is why December 25 in France is called Noel. All the children surely enjoyed themselves over the candy and presents, for most of them are war orphans and would not have received any presents. Many were the cries, "Viva la Americaine," all over and there were thousands there. Oh, yes, we had turkey for dinner. A friend gave me a cigarette case for Christmas, but I think I will send it to Dad for a birthday present. I can't carry it along with me."

One of the boys describes the life at a training camp in the following terms: "We get up at 5.30 and have about ten minutes to dress and get out for formation. We are dismissed as soon as the squads report. We then have just enough time to take a hurried wash in ice water and get in ranks again for breakfast, or mess, I should say. We eat in just about ten minutes. Believe me, we grab and shove it down in a hurry. Then we have to make up our bunks and go on police duty up the streets, that is, we have to pick up every match stick around the barracks. So you see how particular they are. We come in, grab our rifles and run out for drill at seven o'clock. Then we drill until 12 M. and have mess at 12.10.

Out again at 1.20 and work hard until 4.30. Mess again at 5.25 and then a retreat formation under arms at 6.10, study hard from 7 to 9 and taps at 10 P. M.

Those little times we have off we have to clean our rifles. They are hard to keep clean, for it is as sandy as the dickens. We have to wash our clothes at spare moments, too. On rainy days we have lectures and study. Just so it is not raining we drill, no matter how wet the ground is. Last Friday our battalion had to walk way out into the rocky country and have a battle (with blanks of course). I was put in a reserve party and had to take care of some prisoners for a while. We were then ordered to reinforce the firing line. We got half way up to it and orders came to hold our position, so we fell down for half an hour and almost went to sleep. We were then told it was all over, so we went back, got our prisoners and came home."

MOTHERS' MEETING

The annual picnic of the "mothers" was held at Willow Grove Wednesday, June 12. There was not quite as large an attendance as had been hoped, due no doubt to the fact that it rained hard early in the morning. Those who did go had a very enjoyable day. It was nearly lunch time when the party arrived, so it did not take Mr. Ehman long to start the fire and Mrs. Gilbert soon had the pot boiling to make the tea.

All the mothers had brought a goodly supply of edibles. Mr. Warfield arrived during the lunch hour and spent part of the afternoon with us. Miss Lee and Mr. Edwards had gone with us in the morning.

After satisfying the hungry appetites Miss Lee very kindly saw to it that we took in the "sights." The laughter caused by what was seen in the Mirror Maze greatly assisted in the digestion of the potato salad. Some were afraid to venture on the mountain railways, but nothing daunted Mrs. Street. She took everything in that came along and some more than once.

Venice and the Movies were the two things that all were not afraid to visit.

Mr. Edwards ate so much it made him sick. (He said it was a cold.) That cake that Mrs. Ehman took looked like a birthday one, but no one confessed to having a birthday. Mrs. Wadsworth enjoyed the fun as well as the rest of us. Mrs. Buzby went out in the afternoon and Mrs. Gilbert remained to chaperon her.

THE VOICE FROM CAMP

Mr. Edwards, assisted by Miss Ethel Donaghy, took a bunch of girls from the gym class down to the boys' camp at North Asbury Monday, June 24, to spend a week.

The conductor said it was the jolliest crowd that had ever ridden on his train and none of the other passengers doubted his word.

When they arrived each girl started to carry her grip from the station on that long walk, but Mrs. Learing took compassion on her own sex and sent all the grips over in her auto. Many thanks to her for this kindness for the bathing suits made some of them very heavy.

Maybe there were not some hungry girls at that first dinner! Strange to say, the appetites kept up the whole time. The first night could not pass without a sight of the ocean and none would own up that she was too tired to go there. With the ocean goes the boardwalk and its varied attractions.

Ruth, Catherine and Lillian tried very hard to capture the brass ring from their steed on the merry-go-round, but the horses, not being used to such riders, balked and the poor girls failed. No one can tell how many pounds of salt water taffy were consumed. The sugar regulations were not so strict that week.

Of course everybody wished to raise blisters at the same time by rowing, so to accommodate them Mr. Edwards had to hire an extra boat.

Evelyn won the prize for catching the first and at the same time largest fish. Mr. Edwards' turtle was not allowed to be counted. Pauline hooked four perch! No fish will bite during periods of laughter, hence Martha's ill-luck.

Saturday Miss Eleanor Vogels enforced the staff of chaperones which was much needed, as everybody did not wish to go in the same direction at the same time. Miss Eleanor was the champion swimmer, crossing the lake, something less than five miles wide, twice.

Somehow or other Minnie and the lake seemed to be afraid of each other.

On Friday Mr. Beam put in an appearance to enlarge the police patrol and then the fun was renewed. No one ever told how often he and Mr. Edwards slipped off to go after real fish and nobody ever ate any they caught.

Anna much preferred rowing to sudden dives in three feet of water.

Who was it that really killed that snake? Probably it simply died of fright.

Mr. Rosensteel is such a jolly man, being a bachelor he might have been a little timid at first, but when he realized it was not leap year he felt much relieved. To him we are indebted for his leniency and good nature. When the week was up a sad crowd returned to Philadelphia, and no one felt like taking up duties again.

Mr. Edwards was quite haggard when he came home for Sunday service, but the lure was upon him and he begged off from the night service to get back to camp and—

If the boys behave half as well as we did they too will have a jolly outing.

NOTES

Mrs. A. Ehmann entertained the Missionary Band on Monday evening, June 24. A large number of the ladies were present and all enjoyed the evening. They are working on an infant's outfit for a soldier's family. The meeting next month will be held at Miss Lee's country place at Wynnewood.

Mr. Warfield and Mr. Edwards preached last month in the Church of the Atonement, West Philadelphia.

During the month of August Mr. Warfield will have charge of the Church of the Advocate. Should his services be needed by any of the parishioners of the Chapel he can be reached by applying to the Sexton.

Mr. Edwards will return from camp each week to take the Sunday services at the Chapel.

Rev. Mr. Charles Long, of Moores, Pa., will be in charge of the Sunday services at the Prince of Peace in August.

PICNIC

The last Friday in June the combined Sunday Schools of Holy Trinity, Memorial Chapel, Chapel of Prince of Peace and Transfiguration in South Philadelphia held a picnic at Burlington Island Park. There were about five hundred in all. We practically had the boat to ourselves.

The day was a beautiful one, which made the boat ride all the more enjoyable. We left Arch Street wharf at 9 A. M. and as the tide was against us we did not arrive until 12 M. Everybody hunted up tables in the grove and spread lunches for by that time appetites were keen. After lunch the children visited the swings and merry-go-round, for those were the chief amusements in the grounds. Later in the afternoon many of the young folks bathed in the river. This was great fun. The afternoon boat brought up quite a number who were unable to go in the morning. The rector spent the entire day with us, the other clergy of the parish were present also.

Mr. Steinmetz and a group of young people from his choir enlivened things very much on the boat both going and coming with merry songs, their Vicar being the leader.

We reached the city before dark and while there were many tired little bodies it was a happy day long to be remembered.

The women's delegates of the convocation of South Philadelphia have undertaken to raise a sum of money to help build a chapel at what is generally known as the Piggeries. This is the mission work in which Dr. Harris, who was assistant here last year, was much interested. Our chapel has been asked for fifty dollars. The Sunday School gave ten dollars, the Woman's Guild five. This, with gifts from several individuals, and a church collection, amounts to $42.22. May be there are several friends who would like to give the remaining $7.78, so that we may contribute the full amount asked of us. The minister would be glad to receive any gifts for this purpose.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

The ninth patriotic service and the last one of the season was held Sunday evening, June 23. The attendance was very good. This was a Scotch evening, as there were representatives present from the various Scotch societies in the city, both men and women, wearing their plaid scarfs and other insignia. The address was also made by a Scotchman, Dr. J. L. Cameron.

Next fall we hope to have the various patriotic and other orders attend in a body at different times.

Will our members who belong to any society or order kindly talk the matter over with Mr. Warfield and arrange for dates so that invitations may be sent out in sufficient time to insure a large gathering? It would be nice if we could have one such service each month during the fall and winter.

SMOKER

The smoker given on Wednesday evening, June 19, was attended by twenty-one men. Mr. Potter very kindly gave us some instrumental music and also played for the singing. Mr. Edwards showed some lantern views which he obtained from the Government, giving a good idea of the frightful and wanton destruction of the Cathedrals and village churches in Northern France and Belgium. There were humorous tales given by some of those present. Cigars and refreshments were served and all seemed to enjoy the evening.

HOLIDAY HOUSE

As usual our Holiday House at Sellersville for women and small children opened the last Saturday in June.

Rev. Dr. Tomkins conducted the service in the afternoon. Amongst the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Yarrow, Miss Lee, the Rev. Messrs. Warfield, Steinmetz and Huggins. All enjoyed the dinner that Mrs. Bayne and Miss Cushing had provided for the guests.

Those of our congregation who would like to spend a vacation there will please apply to the Vicar at once

June 25, 1918.

Dear Mr. Warfield:

"We are delighted to note that the Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel members are renewing their subscriptions to Holy Trinity Memorial group of the Drexel Biddle Auxiliary No. 9. We surely do appreciate the spirit in which these people work. Our Auxiliary is not only busy in the Surgical Dressing Department, and the garment work, but also in the Canteen Service, two days each week and two Sundays each month. On one day's work we served just 14,000 men who were very grateful for the apples, cigarettes, magazines, post-cards and newspapers. Their sincere appreciation of the efforts of the workers is certainly an inspiration to those who so gladly help, and in this connection we cannot refrain from voicing our appreciation of the wonderful work which our chairman, Mrs. C. P. Wynne, is doing in the Canteen. We are very proud of her, as we realize the splendid manner in which she handles this work in the capacity of captain.

Naturally, we all think our own Auxiliary the best, but we have heard from other sources that Auxiliary No. 9 is a live wire. We were called on for service at the horse show at Narberth in the sale of a very valuable pony, and we enjoyed this work very much. A Midsummer Dansant was given by our Auxiliary on June 21 and a large number of men from the Ambulance Corps were invited from Allentown, Pa., and Captain Bateman gave us a splendid talk on the wonderful work being done at that camp, and what assistance is being rendered by the Red Cross. This affair was a great success, and we hope to have many more of them, as it creates a feeling of good-fellowship among the workers and is a source of enjoyment and recreation to the men in the service. This affair, which was such a success, was conducted by Mrs. H. Gardner Taylor and Mrs. Jacob Wise, who are two of our earnest energetic workers on the entertainment committee.

L. J. SPACTER, Secretary.

 Offertory from the Crucifixion,

*Fling wide the gates for the Saviour waits

 And lovely beyond compare,
 Though weary and worn with a merciless scorn
 Of a world He has come to spare.
 The burden of wrong, that earth bears along,
 Past evil, and evil to be
 All sins of man since the world began
 They are laid, dear Lord, on Thee.*

 With Thy banner lifted high!
 To suffer, endure and die.

One inch, double column, each issue, $1.00.

With this number of the COURIER it starts on its third year of publication. It is earnestly hoped that it has found a place in every home and that it is carefully read. Its object is to tell from month to month what is being done at the chapel. We wish every family to have a copy each month. If you are not present when it is distributed on the last Sunday of each month, kindly ask for a copy the next time you come to church, or send twelve cents to cover postage, and it will be mailed to you.

The welfare of your parish depends in large measure on your interest and assistance in the work. The clergy are always ready and willing to do their part, but there are many things in a parish which are entirely out of their line, and which must be done by the members.

It is easy to criticise and expect results, but please remember that results depend upon you. If, therefore, they are not as you would like to see them, just ask yourself, "Why do I not help to produce them?"

We wish and we need every member to take an active part in some particular branch of the work, to which he or she is best fitted. There is plenty of opportunity. One of the fields that should be most fruitful of results is the Sunday School. The children are the future men and women of the church. In the Sunday School they should get a preparation, which they may not get elsewhere, to fit them for the larger duties in life. We are in need of teachers to care for this training of the children.

There must be some in the congregation who are willing to offer themselves for this work.

Many of the things and methods of the past are not going to be those of the future. This world war is going to change things in the church, as well as in business. Our boys will come home with entirely new ideas about religion and Christianity. The war has made them think about these things as they have never thought before.

The Church at home must be ready to meet these new conditions, or it will fail in the opportunities before it. That means the fathers and mothers at home. When a boy overseas writes home and says, "Father, you promised to pray for me every night, will you not do so every morning also?" that boy is thinking of the power of prayer and the welfare of his own soul.

Can parents afford to stay away from the services of the church and their communions, the source and fountain head of inspiration and divine strength?

The mothers and sisters are sacrificing themselves and taking part nobly in the various branches of war work and war relief. Fathers and brothers are also nobly furthering those war helps that come within their bounds. But in it and through it all there should be not only patriotism, but patriotism coupled with a deep religious spirit. The good Christian is the good citizen. This is no time for slackers in the country's cause. There should be no slackers in the Church.

What we would like to know is, where are the men on Sundays? Many are not in their pews. Where are they? We have on our lists a good many men who are communicants, and whom we have not seen for a very long time. Men, what has become of you? Your place has been vacant many times on Sunday. It would be a great help to your clergy and encouragement to the congregation.

The Guild House is open every evening, where you may come and spend pleasantly several hours.

Can you not start the fall by coming around more frequently, and getting better acquainted with the clergy and each other? You are not often at home when parochial calls are made. The clergy know you wives and children, but they wish to know you better. Let each one make an effort to do more for his church this year.

How about the old Saturday Night Club? Why not make it go again this winter? It can easily be done if you will it so. We need you. You need your Church. Come.

WAR WORK

We are looking forward with much expectation to having a large war work going on in our Guild House this winter. The Society of the Little House of Saint Pantaleon, which for the past year has been using one of our rooms for packing their boxes that are sent overseas, open on October 1st a new work room in the Guild House, where varied kinds of work will be carried on, sewing, mending, the cutting out of garments, the making of hospital dressings; in fact, all the activities usual in war relief.

The workroom will be open every weekday except Saturday, from 9 until 12 in the morning, and from 1 until 5 in the afternoon; and on Saturdays, from 9 until 12 in the morning. Any volunteers from our congregation will receive a warm welcome, and it is hoped every woman of the parish will make it possible to give at least a portion of one day a week to this most important work. The work will be under the supervision of the founders, Doctors Elise Whitlock, Rose and Elizabeth F. C. Clark.

A better knowledge may be gained from these extracts, culled from one of the Bulletins:

Our coal allowance is limited, sugar is limited, we should eat only war bread. But let us, on some chilly evening, imagine how we would feel if we could buy only fifty pounds of coal at one time, if we could have only a limited amount of bread, if we were refugees who had an income of twenty-five cents a day for ourselves and fifteen cents for the daily maintenance of each child.

When France had been in the war as long as we have been, it was almost impossible for the Little House to get lists of needs from hospitals, orphanages and friends overseas. Now they have endured so greatly they must needs speak, and the hearts of those in the Little House are wrung with pity.

We are going to remind ourselves that gifts sent to the Little House before September 13th will bring Christmas cheer to some sad home in France, that money for warm clothing will save some soldiers' lives this winter. More than a million Frenchmen who went first into the breach have given up their lives. Would it not be worth while to save some of the babies, to keep some of the sad widows they have left behind?

Would it not be an offering worthy of the Christ-Child to send the Christmas gift of $36.50 which would enable some unhappy mother to support her child at home? "The streets are full of armless and legless men," could we not help some of these? Fifty dollars will buy an excellent artificial arm and leg, and we who are well and sound can scarcely imagine the physical aid, the encouragement which such a Christmas gift would bring to a discouraged and mutilated fellow being.

$50.00—Artificial limb.

$36.50—Will keep a child in its mother's home for one year.

$10.00—Will give a wounded soldier warm bedding with good sheets.

$5.00—Will buy a warm "layette" for the most appealing of orphans—the little new-born baby.

$5.00—Will buy enough to amuse a small ward.

$25.00—Will buy 8 to 10 back-rests, bringing great comfort to convalescents and economizing pillows.

$10.00—Will buy twelve pounds of the precious chloroform.

$75.00—Will buy a wheel stretcher.

Soap is scarce and dear in France.

Feather pillows are wearing out.

Clothing of all kinds is needed, the Germans destroying everything which the civilian populations possessed.

Shoes are greatly needed.

Think of the destitution and the suffering, where one dares not think of a plaything for a sad child, but must beg for bare necessities and thousands of them.

For those of our members who wish to collect the money, we have little coin holders which we will be glad to forward. Money may be sent for Christmas uses to the Little House, and in the New Year's Bulletin a list will be given of all that we have been able to accomplish. Do not do your "bit," do your best. Come tomorrow and work.

NEW SERVICE FLAG

On Sunday morning the feast of St. Michael and All Angels, our new Service Flag was unfurled, with an appropriate service of patriotic music and address. The flag is a beautiful silk one, purchased from contributions by the families and friends of those in the service, and is hung in the choir opposite the Stars and Stripes. At the close of the reading the names of those on the honor roll the flag was unfurled by Master William Nevin. As the flag dropped the organist played the "Star-Spangled Banner," in which the large congregation present joined heartily in singing.

More stars will shortly have to be added to the flag, as the new registration has called others to the service. We are proud of the fact that a star is for one of our girls, Miss Gladys Thomas, who goes abroad to nurse under the Red Cross. Miss Thomas has been in New York for some time, waiting to sail. By some misfortune her passport has been delayed or misplaced. It is probable she will be on the sea before the "Courier" is printed. The clergy are always pleased to get personal letters from the boys, and glad to reply to them. We hope they will write us as time and opportunity permit.

Parents will kindly notify us as soon as any boys are called, so that their names may be placed on our list. So far the Honor Roll is as follows:

Daniel Littley, Samuel Scott, George Ponton, William Ponton, John Finley, Frank R. Charlton, Lewis R. Mellon, Robert Logue, Archibald Michael, Harold Leonard, James Davis, Edward A. Brown, Richard Potter, Miss Gladys Thomas, all in France; William Griffith, Frederick Donaghy, Robert Weir, John G. Stewart, William A. Stewart, William Lee MacFarland, Irvin MacFarland, on the high seas; Frank Mansley, David Campbell, George Duncan, Samuel P. Flood, Harry Wilson, in camp; Arthur Riley, destination at present unknown. One of the boys, William Griffith, happened to be on furlough, and was present at this service. Members of the congregation are asked to earnestly remember these boys, especially in their prayers.

BOYS' CAMP

The boys' camp, at Asbury Park, N. J., closed August 23d, after another successful season.

This year Mr. Edwards had charge of it.

On account of war work, some of the boys, who had been there each season for several years past, were not able to go down this summer, but there were new ones to take their places. No bad accidents nor sickness interfered with the fun and recreation of the boys. Each group returned with lots of sunburn and stories to tell of the fish and crabs they caught, or of the ghost stories which Mr. Edwards told when on the hikes. Mr. John Lawrence, the oldest member of the camp this year, seems to have most to say about the lake catfish which he caught.

The boys this year were most successful in making new friends among the residents and summer visitors at Asbury and Wannamassa, and we want to thank Mr. O'Hara and his sister, Mrs. Nearing, of Sunset avenue, who so often treated the boys to auto rides to and from the beach; Mr. Emerlie, the manager of the Steeplechase Playhouse, who always entertained our boys free. The boat owners along Wannamassa lake front also added their services to make the boys happy with motor rides on Deal Lake. Our boys also have something to their credit. After a very big storm the lake rose to about eight feet, and many boats and canoes sank or floated downstream, but the boys of the camp were equal to the occasion. Having obtained the use of two boats, seating five boys each, and two canoes, seating three boys each, they set out salvaging the lake. Five canoes were returned to the owners, and some raised which were sunk. Emberger, Weinmann, Phillime and Parks were very helpful to the camp. They repaired the boat dock, putting a rail around the landing to keep people from falling down, and when the camp was without a cook for a week these boys did the cooking act for them until another cook appeared. One of the interesting happenings of the camp life was the raising of the camp flag. The boys of Holy Trinity Chapel bought a large flag, and on the day and hour of raising it the boys, with the children of the neighborhood, gathered near the flagpole, some dressed in bunting. The choir boys of our own chapel lead the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner," in which all joined. Mr. George Rosenstiel, who lived next door to the cottage, made a short address, and Mr. Edwards had prayer for our nation and her Allies. Mr. Rosenstiel, mentioned above, again this year showed his loving character in the interest he took in the boys and their welfare, always a friend and big brother to all.

GIRLS' GYM

The girls' gym will start its work Friday, October 4th. We are glad to have Mr. Beam with us again this year. We are looking forward to some real earnest work this season. To accomplish what we have in mind, and to get the best results from the instruction, we must have at least fifteen girls in the class. No girl will be permitted in the gym room who does not expect to take part in the exercise, and who does not have on proper clothing and shoes for the work, except the chaperones.

Each night the gym room will be open at 7.30, and work begins promptly at 7.45 o'clock. So, girls, be ready and in gym suits by 7.45 o'clock if you want to be in the class for that night. After the strenuous exercise a cup of warm tea will be served before going out into the night air. The class must be a success or it will be discontinued. It is open to every girl who belongs to the chapel or one of its organizations.

Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Shug have resigned from the Vestment Committee. Mrs. George Gilbert, Miss Jennie Long and Miss Annie Young have been appointed new members.

NOTES

During the month of August Mr. Warfield had charge of the services at the Church of the Advocate.

September 29th the Bishop sent Mr. Edwards to take the services at Pottstown, as the rector there is serving as chaplain at one of the camps.

One of our oldest members, Mrs. Margaret Wadsworth, entered into paradise September 15th. Just a month previous she had been on a picnic with some of us and was in good spirits and health. Her regular presence at the services was a lesson to many, as she was in her 88th years. She will be much missed in the Mothers' Meeting.

Mr. John Weir, Sr., has been appointed a member of the Chapel Committee.

Mendelssohn's wonderful war oratorio, describing the ancient battles between righteousness and paganism (particularly appropriate at this time) will be sung November 17th. The famous "War March of the Priests" is taken from this work.

The choir is to sing for the ladies of the Emergency Fleet Corporation at the Orpheus Club room, October 10.

MOTHERS' MEETING

Miss Harriet Lee will have charge again this year of the Mothers' Meeting. The opening will be Thursday, at two in the afternoon. Announcements were mailed to all the old members and to a number of others, inviting them to join us this year. Miss Lee will then present definite plans for this year. Mothers who cannot leave home without their small children may bring them along. Miss Helen Donaghy very kindly assists Miss Lee, and finds something to interest the little ones.

ENTERTAINMENT

An entertainment will be given by the children of the Temperance School in the Sunday School building, Thursday Nov. 14th, at eight o'clock. There will be a sale of ice cream and candy. Donations of ten cents and more will be received. The object is to raise funds to support a French orphan. Let every one come and help in this worthy war object.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The opening meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary for the fall and winter work will be held on the fourth Thursday in October, the 24th, in the Guild House, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. S. G. Morton Maule is president. Let every member be present at this meeting, so that she may get a definite idea of the plans for the year. This is an organization to which every woman in the parish should belong, as it is not parochial, but belongs to the whole Church. A cordial invitation is extended to each woman to come to this meeting.

LIBERTY LOAN

The drive for the Fourth Liberty Loan is on and in full force. We have a woman's committee, consisting of Miss Mary Buck and Miss Sarah Moore. They would be glad to have all subscribe through this Church Committee. You pay at your bank, trust company, or at your place of business, as before. The first Liberty Loan was dated June 15, 1917. Two billion dollars was the amount of the issue. The second loan was dated November 15, 1917, and $3,808,766,150 of bonds were issued. The third loan was dated May 9, 1918, and $4,170,019,150 of bonds were issued. The fourth loan is for six billions and oversubscription. Our people are growing more patriotic every day. Subscribe for as much as you possibly can, and do it soon. Let many join in this liberty crusade, Saturday, October 12th.

CONVOCATION

The Convocation of South Philadelphia will hold its fall meeting in our Guild House Monday afternoon, October 28th. The program of speakers will be announced later. These addresses will follow immediately the supper, which will be served at six o'clock. The Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation will meet at same time and place.

It has been a long time since the Convocation has met at our Chapel. We extend to all the members a cordial invitation and hope there will be a large attendance.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Last year we had a number of patriotic services on Sunday evenings, with special music and appropriate addresses. The first of the series will be Sunday evening, October 6th. The speaker will be Major General L. W. T. Waller, U. S. M. C., who is well known to Philadelphia audiences.

General Waller was one of our speakers last year, but as the night was one of the coldest of the winter many were probably deprived of the pleasure of hearing him. Keep the date in mind, come, bring your friends, and join in the patriotic singing.

A new anthem, entitled "Unfurling the Flag," will be sung. We sang this for the first time at the unfurling of our service flag. It is probably destined to become one of the great songs of the nation.

CHANCEL GUILD

A new Chancel Guild, which has been much needed at the Chapel, has just been appointed by the Vicar, with Mrs. W. Goodell Clark as leader. The other members are the Misses Eleanor Vogels, Louyse Warfield, May Riley, Anna Disher, Mary Weir, Mary McCloskey, Josephine Young, Emma Young, Martha Griffith, Birdie Langley, Isabelle Weir, Ruth Gilbert, Gladys Williams. They will start their duties the first Sunday in October.

FLOWERS

Memorial flowers during the summer were given by Mr. Paul Hoeflick, Miss Slack, Miss Emily Bennett, Mrs. Littleley, Miss Annie Collins. A number of Sundays they were given by Miss Helen Donaghy.

BOYS' GYM

The boys' gym and basketball teams will open on the same nights, Monday and Tuesday respectively, as last year, in the chapel gym room. We hope that all the boys will be on hand, for we want to have a live time this winter.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School will resume its afternoon session at 2:45 P. M., October 6th. Let every scholar be in his or her class, and let us start with a large attendance. We regret to announce that circumstances compel Mr. James Warnock, Jr., to give up his class this year. Several new teachers are needed at once. Will some of the members of the congregation consider this seriously and offer their services?

AN INSIGHT INTO AN INSPIRATION

The author, Clara Endicott Sears, of the new national song, entitled "The Unfurling of the Flag," tells of the circumstances under which it was written:

"Now, at about 2 A. M. (on the day that Congress declared war) I awoke in a great state of agitation. I could not sleep on account of it, and could not understand what was the matter. Being by nature a very peaceful sleeper, I was unused to any such feeling. Finally I arose and lighted a candle, went downstairs, and walked through the hall and into the drawing-room and library. I had no idea what impulse made me do this, but as I entered the library the words, 'It's the flag we've named Old Glory that's unfurling to the breeze,' swept through my mind. I stopped short and asked myself what this meant. Then it came again and took possession of me. I returned quickly to my room, sat down with paper and pencil, and the whole poem came quickly, and just as it is now. When it was finished I was completely exhausted, and for two or three days seemed to have no strength in me. When the morning papers came, on April 6, they were full of the all-night session of Congress and its result. The headlines were, 'The United States Enters the War,' and I felt as if the edge of the vibration from the scene of tense excitement had in some way caught hold of my brain and used it for a means of expression. However you may explain it, the words came like a flash. That is the story of how the poem came to be written."

NOTES

The clergyman, the Rev. Edgar C. Young, in charge of our Phillips Brooks Chapel, will become a Benedict Saturday, October 5th. Mr. Young for some time has been doing an excellent work at the chapel.

Just as we go to press word has come that Mrs. Jane Robson, one of our "mothers," and an old member here, was found dead in her room.

Editor's Column

Lent will soon be here again. It comes a little early this year, so it is time to begin to think about it. It brings with it a challenge. No doubt we all feel that we are not living the kind of Christian lives that we would like to live. It will test the sincerity of our purposes in life. We recognize the unreality—and superficiality that is in us. We want to overcome these that we may live a little closer to God. There are so many habits which we would do well to get rid of. We want to try earnestly to cultivate those habits that will tend to give us mastery both in body and mind.

"Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. He will teach us of his ways and we will walk in his paths."

We can get very near to God in prayer. If we do not know how to pray then Lent is a very good time to learn. Frequent practice will be a good help.

"Have we trials and temptations?

Is there trouble anywhere?

We should never be discouraged,

Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find a friend so faithful,

Who will all our sorrows share?

Jesus knows our every weakness,

Take it to the Lord in prayer."

"O God, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; grant to us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord."

We can get very near to God in the Holy Communion, by partaking of the body and blood of His Son, that mystical union betwixt Christ and us. How often have we been coming to it? Have we been starving ourselves when we might have been fed?

Let us start Lent with it that we may be better prepared to fight against the world, the flesh and the devil.

"Thus may we all Thy word obey,

For we, O God, are Thine;

And go rejoicing on our way,

Renewed with strength divine."

May God carry us through these forty days to have a deeper knowledge of the meaning of His Cross and passion that we may have a greater joy of His resurrection!

Prayer

O Lord, support us all the day long through this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening come, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of our life is over and our work is done. Then in Thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last with Thee forever. Amen.

This letter was recently received from Bishop Capers:

My Dear Mr. Warfield:

I am deeply grateful to the members of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel for their generous gift of $11.84, made in behalf of my relief work for the church and her people, who suffered so fearfully in the storm and tidal wave of last September.

I want the makers of this gift to know that they have helped me tremendously in supporting and rebuilding the church in her supreme hour of need.

Very gratefully yours,
WM. T. CAPERS.

Shop Meetings

The Pocket Testament League, whose headquarters are in the Witherpoon Building, is conducting a widespread series of Noon-Day Shop Meetings throughout the city and suburbs of Philadelphia, and, through Bishop Garland, who is chaplain of the Philadelphia Local Assembly of the Brotherhood, they have made the request that cards returned to them, naming the Episcopal Church as the preference, shall be given to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for distribution and use. As the shop meetings are very great in number, there will be thousands of these cards eventually returned.

These cards, carefully followed up, will produce numberless opportunities for personal work in the plan to attach these shop workers to the various parishes of our church in the Diocese, and the Brotherhood bespeaks the earnest and effective consideration of the work on the part of rectors and people. It is a fine part of the actual application of the nation-wide campaign.

Christian Americanization Conference

Among the great problems of very vital importance before the Christian Church is that dealing with foreigners who have come to this country to make it their future home. You may recall the several sermons Mr. Warfield preached on this topic shortly before Christmas.

Now a five days' conference on Christian Americanization will be held in the Arch Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Broad and Arch streets, February 8-13, under the auspices of the National Reform Association and the citizens of Philadelphia.

It will be a rally of all leaders of Christian, patriotic and social service for a study and survey of national and world conditions and the message of Christianity for the needs of the hour.

It will be the inauguration of a nation-wide campaign, having for its purpose the revival of true Americanism throughout the land.

The program will be unique, unsectarian and non-partisan, full of information and inspiration, with more than 40 representative speakers from our own and other countries.

Among those listed to make addresses are:

Hon. P. P. Claxton, Hon. Henry W. Temple and Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Washington, D. C.; Drs. Charles Stelle, Sidney L. Gulick and H. L. Bowby, of New York city; Dr. Jonathan Petros, Teheran, Persia; Mademoiselle J. Merle d'Aubigne, Paris; Professor Bulus Khatuli, Syria; Dr. Joachim Alexopoulos, Athens; Dr. Isaac T. Headland, formerly of Peking, China; Dr. William La Rue, Rochester, N. Y.; Professor William Pickens, L.L. D., Baltimore; Hon. Frank J. Cannon, Denver; Drs. T. H. Acheson, James S. McGaw and James S. Martin, of Pittsburgh. Well-nigh a score of others are to be added to this list, among whom will be the leading statesmen of our country.

Sessions daily at 2 P. M. and 7.45 P. M. Admission free.

Go and be wideawake to the questions of the hour.

Women's Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held Thursday evening, January 22d.

It had been hoped there would be a large gathering, but the rain and sleet prevented many ladies from attending, so the attendance was small.

A most entertaining address was given by Miss Anna Williamson, of Ivy Depot, Virginia, on her work amongst the mountaineers of that section. The next meeting will be held February twenty-sixth. It is hoped every woman who signed the service card will be present then and engage in the Lenten work.

On the evening of February 8th, Dr. H. B. Matteossian, a native of Constantinople, and a member of the Holy Trinity Chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, will make an address upon the Armenians and other oppressed peoples of the Near East, and the collection will go toward alleviating the suffering there. The latest surveys estimate there are more than four hundred thousand orphan children in these Bible lands to be cared for. Five dollars a month will support one of these children.

Dr. Main, who has been there serving on the American Committee, sent back this cablegram:

"I have been handling refugee concentration along the former boundary line between Russian and Turkish Armenia. Alexandropol, a large center, and Ejchmiadsin, a small one, are typical. In the one are 68,000 refugees by actual census at our bread and soup kitchens. In the other there are 7000. Refugees have streamed into these places hoping to find it possible to cross the border into their former homes in Turkish Armenia near Kars. Concentration at these two places and many others without food or clothing and after a winter of exile in the Caucasus and beyond has produced a condition of horror unparalleled among the atrocities of the great war. On the streets of Alexandropol, on the day of my arrival, 192 corpses were picked up. This is far below the average per day. One-seventh of the refugees are dying each month. At Ejchmiadsin I looked for a time at a refugee burial. Seven bodies were thrown indiscriminately into a square pit as carrion and covered with the earth, without any suggestion of care or pity. As I looked at the workmen, I saw a hand protruding from the loose earth. It was a woman's hand and seemed to be stretched out in mute appeal. To me this hand reaching upward from the horrible pit symbolized starving Armenia. The workmen told me that the seven in this pit were the first load of thirty-five to be brought out from the village that morning. The cart had gone back for another load."

Vesper Choir

Members of the Vesper Choir will kindly meet Mr. Potter Wednesday evenings in the choir room for rehearsals.

This choir will be a great help in the services during the season of Lent. Mr. Potter will be glad to receive new members and enroll them during the next two weeks.

Confirmation

Last Sunday morning, St. Paul's Day, Bishop Rhinelander visited the Chapel for the administration of the rite of Confirmation. The Class presented was not large, only nine persons, three of whom were members of the boy choir. The names of those confirmed are given elsewhere in the Courier. This was the second class presented within a year. Some, for one reason or another, were prevented from joining this class. The Vicar would be glad to have given him now the names of those who would like to be in the next class and if the number justifies it, it is quite possible another class can be formed, in the near future, to be presented to the Bishop in the early summer, as was done last year. Think the matter over seriously and give in your name now. An early decision to renew your baptismal vows means just so many more years of Christian service. Somebody has worked out this table:

Age of Accepting Christ.	Probable years of service that may follow. (Based on Life Insurance Actuaries Tables.)
20	41.49

Notes

Will those officers of the different organizations kindly hand in at once their reports of the past year for publication of the Year Book? The Editor would like to get the book out at the earliest possible date.

On account of the sickness of the Rector of St. Matthias' on January 4, our clergy took his place, Mr. Edwards preaching in the morning and Mr. Warfield at night.

The January meeting of the Convocation of South Philadelphia was held in the Church of the Redeemer, Seamen's Mission, Front and Queen streets.

This being the meeting for the election of officers, Dr. Toop, of Holy Apostles', was elected Dean in the place of Dr. Tomkins, who had some while ago resigned, and Mr. Warfield was elected secretary in the place of Mr. Stockman, of Old Swedes', who declined the election on the ground of too much other work.

It is hoped that the nation-wide campaign will make it possible for the minimum salary of the clergy in the diocese to be $1800 per year. One of the points strongly urged by the new Dean was the raising of a fund to help these rectors along until the funds from this campaign become available. Here are some actual cases:

Case No. 1.

"I was $300 in debt. I took outside work and paid it off, but in less than a year I have gotten $400 in the hole again. I make some extra money by selling garden truck. I have bought no books in five years."

"My wife and I have for some time been living on two meals a day because we cannot afford three. My wife has not had any new clothes in five years. The pair of shoes I am now wearing, my only pair, I have been wearing for the past three years."

Case No. 3.

"I have not been able to buy any clothes for my wife and myself in the past two years. Books are practically a dream of the past. Raising truck in my garden and keeping chickens has given us a little more to eat."

Case No. 4.

"During the past year my expenses have been $650.00 greater than my salary and we have had to do without many things at that."

Case No. 5.

"I am getting tired of hearing my wife tell me on Wednesday that she has only $1.25 to keep the three of us for the rest of the week."

Case No. 6.

"My wife's clothing and my own are a mass of patches. If it were not for gratuities from friends the four of us in our little family would often not have enough food. We are deeply in debt, and my wife on her own responsibility has been teaching herself shorthand at night after working hard in the house all day and threatens to go out looking for work to help keep us going."

Case No. 7.

"If it were not for my outside secular work we would not have enough to eat or enough to wear."

The vicar would be glad to hear from any who would be willing to help in this urgent matter.

On Sunday evenings in Lent the sermon will be preached by visiting clergymen. February 22d, the Rev. Herbert L. Hannah, of the Chapel of the Holy Communion. February 29th, the Rev. Stewart P. Keeling, of St. Peter's, Germantown. March 7th, preacher to be announced later. March 14th, the Rev. William J. Edwards, of the Good Shepherd, Germantown. March 14th, the Rev. Charles H. Long, of Trinity Church, York road. March 28th, the Rev. H. K. Ogle, formerly of the Church of the Covenant.

Below are the names of those whose cards for the nation-wide campaign have come in since the last report:

Richard Young, Sr., Mrs. Richard Young, Sr., Richard Young, Jr., Mrs. Richard Young, Jr., Miss Annie Young, Miss Gertrude Young, Miss Emma Young, Mrs. Wm. G. Clark, Mrs. Arnold Shugg, Mrs. Alfred Harris, Fred. Donaghy, Mrs. Catherine Smith, Harry E. Smith, Mrs. Martha Paul. Those who have not yet returned their cards will kindly do so at once. Will every one be careful to seal the envelopes so that the money can not slip out upon the plate?

Mrs. Frank Tressler has kindly consented to take charge of the Cradle Roll department of the Sunday School. Will all mothers who have children too young to attend the Sunday School kindly send to her the names and ages of the children that they may be enrolled at once?

This month the Christian Nature Series will be taken up in the primary department. We think the children will like the work, and the teachers will find it very helpful.

Basket Ball

The record for the basketball team for this season stands as follows: Out of 14 games played we have won 11, not counting the three games which were forfeited to us.

Tuesday, November 25, we defeated the Protective Home Club by the score of 32 to 19.

Tuesday, December 2, we defeated Union M. E. Church by the score of 21 to 15.

Tuesday, December 9, we defeated Dudley A. A., of Camden, by the score of 27 to 24. This was our seventh straight victory.

Tuesday, December 23, we had our string of victories broken at the hands of Tip Tops basketball team, who defeated us by the score of 40 to 23.

Tuesday, January 6, we went down to Twenty-sixth and Tasker streets, and again lost another game to St. Aloysius Church by the score of 20 to 14.

Tuesday, January 13, we got back on our feet and won a game from B. T. P. basketball team by the score of 40 to 22.

Saturday, January 17, we went down to Twenty-second and Snyder avenue and defeated St. Andrew's Reformed Church by the score of 31 to 14, before a large crowd.

Smoker

There will be a Smoker for the men of the Chapel, Friday evening, February 13th. Men, do not make any other engagements for that evening, but come here and see your old friends and make new ones. Don't forget the date.

Entertainment

An entertainment will be given by members of the Sunday School on the evening of Shrove Tuesday, February 17, in the Sunday School building, for the purpose of enlarging the Lenten mite-box offering.

Word has just come from the treasurer of the Board of Missions that the accounts for 1919 have been balanced, and that in the Lenten offering Pennsylvania won the first place with a per capita offering of $1.29. North Dakota was a close second with $1.20.

Our Sunday School did well last year. Let each one strive hard to do much better this year and maintain the first place.

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing,

Sing praises to His name, He forgets not
His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His Kingdom divine,
So from the beginning the fight we are winning;
Thou, Lord, wast at our side, all glory be Thine!

We all do extoll Thee, Thou Leader in battle,

CONFIRMATION

January 25—Ida May Wolcott

Editor's Column

Lent is going by rapidly. Stop just a moment, if you have not done so before, and ask yourself what you are putting into Lent, and what you are getting out of it. Have you ever taken stock of yourself as a merchant does of his goods to see how he stands, whether there is profit or loss?

We have many failings and short-comings and dangers and temptations. These are quite natural. Did those temptations become sin? They were not so at first. Did those failings of yours become habits?

The dripping of water is as nothing at first, but it may wear a hole in the stone. The glacier moves unperceived to the eye, but after a while an iceberg breaks off and floats away, probably to impede shipping.

A physical examination may often be very helpful in pointing out the weak spots—the danger spots—where concentration should be placed to get normal again.

Self-examination sizes up the spiritual condition, whether the good is growing stronger or weaker. Those besetting sins as we call them, what about them? They are so profitable or so pleasant. You can give them up—yes, you can.

The man said he could stop smoking, and so in the morning he let his pipe die out and laid it upon the mantle-piece. In the evening he picked it up and lit it, saying that he was satisfied that he could stop smoking.

How about your church attendance? You have been here once on each of the two Sundays so far in Lent? Well, a great many have not.

A systematic attendance would certainly be an encouragement to the minister, an example to someone else, and it might be a real help to you. Try it for the remaining Sundays in Lent, and when you come, bring someone with you. That friend might be just waiting for your invitation.

In this parish we observe the old custom of celebrating the evening Communion on Maundy Thursday, "for in the night in which He was betrayed, He took bread; and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, 'Take, eat, this is my body, which was given for you; do this in remembrance of me.'"

Last year the attendance at this service was 75, of whom 57 received the body and blood of the Lord. The night was cloudy. Will you not make an effort, sacrifice if necessary, to be present at that service this year? And then after having watched with those at the foot of the cross on Good Friday and contemplated on those things on Easter Even, will you not come on Easter morn to learn of the risen Christ, and again obey His command?

There will be three celebrations that day. Last year the number of communicants at 7 A. M., was 16; at 8 A. M., 42, and at 11 A. M., 93. It is earnestly hoped that every confirmed member will make his or her Easter Communion at one of these services.

By some mistake the name of Ida May Wolcott was omitted from the list of those confirmed as printed in the Courier last month.

Sunday School

On the evening of Shrove Tuesday an entertainment was given in the Sunday School building by a number of girls and boys of the school. There were instrumental and vocal solos, but the main features were two short plays, one given by the girls and the other by the boys.

The characters and those taking them in "The Girls of Glen Willow" were:

Carlotta, Edna Pruden.
Marjorie, Ethel Ehmann.
Peggie—Lydia Shubert.
Mollie—Mildred Pruden.
Leila, Birdie Pruden.
Maud, Mrs. Brown, May Milleken.
Lily White (the colored cook), Evelyn Stewart.

Those of the farce, "Box and Cox," by the boys, were:

Mr. Box, Frank Long.
Mr. Cox, Wesley Anthony.
Mrs. Bonner, the housekeeper, Eric Richmond.

There was much applause by the large attendance.

There was a large table at the end of the room on which was for sale after the performances cake, candy and ice cream, which found ready purchasers. The ice cream and cake were contributed, so the sale of them was clear profit. An itemized list of the profits is given elsewhere.

The object was to increase the mite-box Lenten offering from the Sunday School.

Mite boxes were distributed the Sunday before Lent. Children, make some real sacrifice and let us make the offering from our school far in excess of what it was last year, thus helping our diocese to maintain the first place, per capita; which it held last year.

If any child did not get a mite-box please ask for one at once and do your best.

At every service held in the church on the third Sunday afternoon of each month there has been, since the fall, one or more baptisms. Last month there was one at the service and one immediately afterwards. There are a number of unbaptized children in the parish. We earnestly hope that every effort will be made to bring them March 21st or on Easter Even. Parents are often not as punctual and careful about this as they should be. Great distress is sometimes experienced by a parent when an unbaptized child dies. We cannot think that our Heavenly Father would deny one of these innocent little ones a place in the heavenly mansions, but we do think the responsibility rests upon the parents. Christ gave special commands about baptism. And He also said: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God."

Mr. Warfield received recently a very nice letter from Madam Virical, the mother of little Pierre, the new French boy who is receiving the benefit of our scholarship, thanking us heartily for our gift.

Chancel Guild

The deferred meeting of the Chancel Guild was held on the evening of March 4th, in the sacristy.

The appointments for Chancel work during the month of March are as follows:

Miss Louise Warfield, 11 A. M., March 7th, and evening lessons during the month.

March 7th, 8 A. M., Miss Mary Weir and Miss Isabel Weir.

March 14th, Miss Anna Young, Mrs. Edward A. Brown.

March 21st, Miss Gertrude Young, Miss Mary McCloskey.

March 28th, Miss Margaret Mellon and Miss Jennie Long.

Due notice will be given of the regular March meeting of the Guild.

Mother's Meeting

The weather on Thursdays during February was not always good. Of course, this had its effect upon our attendance.

We were agreeably surprised to have Mrs. Montgomery at one of the meetings. This was made possible by Mr. Edwards bringing her in and taking her home one nice afternoon. She had not been here for some time and we had missed her.

During Lent as many of the mothers as can, attend service in the chapel after the meeting.

On Maundy Thursday supper will be served to all those mothers who can remain that they may be able to attend the evening celebration of the Holy Communion. Let all the mothers make arrangements at home so that they can stay.

Mr. Warfield wishes to express his appreciation and thanks to all of the mothers for the crocheted rag rug which they recently presented to him for his home.

Monday Guild

This Guild is going along in its accustomed methodical way with its usual regular attendants. Their report for the year may be found in the Year Book. They would be glad to welcome some new members. Plans are being now made for a supper Easter Monday, and it is hoped all the members will keep this date open.

Girls' Guild

The attendance at the meetings keeps up well. The girls have nearly completed the towels for which they purchased material some time ago. All of them have been sold.

We much regret the resignation of Martha Griffith as secretary. We hope that she will drop in to spend Tuesday evening with us whenever she has the opportunity. We greatly missed, at our last meeting, our leader, Miss Long, who was kept away on account of sickness. We hope that she will soon be well and back with us. We hope to have a little entertainment soon after Lent for the benefit of the work of the Guild.

Sunday Evening Services

These services are short and bright. The music is hearty and good. The sermons are inspiring and uplifting. Those in February were especially so.

The visiting preachers for March are the Rev. Stanley R. West, of Pottstown, March 7; the Rev. William G. Edwards, of the Good Shepherd, Queen Lane Manor, March 14; the Rev. Charles Long, of Zion Church, Logan, March 21; the Rev. H. K. B. Ogle, of Old Christ Church, Philadelphia, March 28. If you have not been in the habit of coming, get into the habit. Do not miss the next one. You will enjoy it, and you will enjoy your work the next day better for having come.

Fridays in Lent

The theme, with its subdivisions, of the talks on Friday evenings in Lent, given by Dr. Tomkins, is "Growth."

- Feb. 20—Personal Growth.
- Feb. 27.—Church Growth.
- March 5—Missionary Growth.
- March 12—Fellowship Growth.
- March 19—Intellectual Growth.
- March 26—World Growth.

Dr. Tomkins being absent March 5th his place was filled by Rev. Joseph Morris. Dr. Tomkins will also be absent March 19th. On this evening there will be a special musical service suitable to Lent. Notice is given elsewhere.

The Little House of St. Pantaleon

The Little House of Saint Pantaleon is preparing its annual report for the year ending February 1, 1920, and in the next Courier hopes to be able to give some interesting figures. At present all the data are not in order, but everything seems to promise that 1919 has been the most successful year of the Little House.

That our work should continue is most important. Only this morning came a letter from one of our orphanages saying that food was so dear and money so scarce, the funds of the institution were sufficient only for the table—the destitute war-orphans in that place depend absolutely on us for all clothing.

This is but an example of responsibilities assumed during the war. The war is over for the present, but to desert our less fortunate children would seem a mean and unworthy thing, so the Little House calls for volunteer workers.

We have some materials, "left-overs" from hospital supplies, which we have prepared for little petticoats. There are several hundreds of these which are waiting the needle. Other materials should also be cut and fashioned into little garments. Our friends can find a most pleasant work-room given us through the courtesy of Mr. Warfield, and we would be glad of help, especially during the Lenten season.

ELISE WHITLOCK-ROSE,
Elizabeth F. C. Clark.

"Satan has a great many servants, and they are all busy and active. They ride in the railway trains and sail on the steamboats; they swarm along the highways of the country and the thoroughfares of the city; they do business in the busy marts; they are everywhere and in all places. Some are so vile looking that one instinctively turns from them in disgust, but some are so sociable, insinuating and plausible that they almost deceive at times the very elect. Among the latter are to be found the devil's four chief servants. Here are their names: First, 'There's no danger'; second, 'Only this once'; third, 'Everybody does it'; fourth, 'By and by.'" Selected.

Do you recognize any by their names?

Prayer

The Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all those who put their trust in Him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey; be now and evermore my defense; and make me know and feel that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom and through whom, I may receive health and salvation, but only the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Year Book

There has been a number of inquiries about the Year Book. For several reasons it has been much delayed, but we are glad to report that the material is now in the hands of the printer and it is expected the book will be ready for distribution by Easter Sunday. It will not be mailed, but delivered personally. There will be one copy for each family. Please read it carefully to familiarize yourself with the work that is going on in this large parish and keep the book handy for reference. Be sure to ask for your copy.

Lenten Services

Tuesdays and Thursdays—Evening Prayer and address, 4:30 P. M.

Wednesdays and Fridays—Morning Prayer and Litany, 10 A. M.

Wednesdays and Fridays—Evening Prayer and address, 8 P. M.

Missions

Last year our assessment for general missions was $453.89. We paid $472.19. Let us see what we can do this year.

This amount included the Lenten offering from the Sunday School, which was $219.63, the largest it has been for some years.

The mite boxes were distributed the Sunday before Lent. It is hoped that the parents will take an interest in this offering and encourage the children in making some sacrifices and putting something in the box out of their money.

The price of the movie now and then will greatly increase the contents or something saved from sweets.

The result of the entertainment given on Shrove Tuesday, which goes to the same object, was as follows:

Contributions on tickets	$23.80
Sale of ice cream	15.00
Sale of candy	13.78
Sale of cake	6.56

Total $59.14

It is hoped that this will reach $60 by the return of a little more ticket money.

One hundred and fifteen boys of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the Diocese, gathered at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, January 18th, in the Church of St. Simeon for their annual Corporate Communion. Bishop Garland was the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. George J. Walenta, rector of the parish. At the breakfast which followed, Mr. Randall, president of the Junior Assembly, presided and introduced Bishop Garland, who made a strong address to the boys on the subject of "Ideals." Mr. Charles Cain, director of St. Stephen's Chapter, Wissahickon, and a member of the secretarial staff at the National Office of the Brotherhood, spoke to the boys on the subject of the boys' camp, to be known as Camp Bonsall, proposed to be held at the Y. M. C. A. Country Club at Downingtown next July. Many boys have already signified their intention to spend the eight days at camp. John C.

Roak, of St. Simeon's, and J. Gardner Crowell, of St. Mary's, West Philadelphia, were introduced as new members of the Philadelphia Executive Committee, representing the Junior Department.

Wouldn't it be a fine thing if we had a Junior Chapter here at the Chapel? Isn't there some layman who is willing to offer his services for the organization and leadership of such a chapter?

The collection of the Chapel for the Near East Relief, after the address of Dr. H. B. Matteossian, amounted to $40.47.

Holy Week

Easter Even is a fitting time for baptism. Kindly make an engagement with the Vicar in advance.

Parents and guardians will kindly remember the service held every Friday afternoon during Lent at 4.15 P. M., in Holy Trinity Church, and see that the children are there. It is a special service for them, and is conducted by Mr. Warfield.

We would be very glad to have some of the older children sing in the choir on that occasion. Those who will thus help, please report to Miss Benethum in the choir room at 4 P. M. The service lasts but half an hour. We would like to see every member of our Sunday School present.

Basket Ball

Since the last Courier went to press, the basketball team has only played three games, due to the entertainment and sickness. We won these three games, which makes the season's record stand as follows: Out of seventeen games played, we have won fourteen.

On Tuesday, January 27, 1920, at our hall, we defeated the team from St. Moysius Church by the score of 34 to 8.

On Tuesday, February 10, 1920, at our hall, we defeated the Sylvania basketball team by the score of 22 to 13.

On Tuesday, Febrary 10, 1920, at our hall, we defeated Dudley A. A., by the score of 29 to 14.

This game was our fifth straight victory, and we hope to continue winning the remaining games, which we have to play before the season ends. This will be about the last week of March.

FRANK HONG,
Captain.

Boys' Gymnasium

This organization, for the younger boys, has not been as well attended of late as it should be. New life has been put into it by the desire of a number of choir boys to join. The choir rehearsal is not now held on Monday afternoons as it used to be, so there will be an opportunity for these boys to come to the gym. Monday nights. The room will be open from 7.30 to 9.30 P. M., and will be under the instruction of Mr. Wesley Anthony, who for some years was a pupil of Mr. Ward Beam, our previous instructor. Let all of the choir boys and all of the younger boys of the Sunday School be on hand next Monday evening. It might be interesting, after the instruction is over, to have a game of basketball, Choir boys versus Sunday School boys.

As usual, supper will be served for the men and boys of the choir Easter evening in the Guild House, following the carol service. As might be imagined, this is always a success. See what you miss by not belonging to the choir.

The numbers of the kneeling hymns, sung morning and evening between the closing prayer and the blessing, are 48 and 22. These numbers refer, as they do in the musical program, to the new hymnal. As far as possible the numbers in both hymnals are placed on the hymn boards, but on account of the size of the boards it is not always possible to place there the numbers of all the hymns. Worshippers might find it helpful to consult the Courier for the words of the anthem. They are printed for that purpose, but it is noticed they are not often so used.

An Easter Greeting

May all the blessings of this glorious Easter Day rest upon the dear people of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel! We remember the dear ones who have gone to be with Christ in Paradise, and this Easter Day rest upon the dear people of We deck our Sanctuary with flowers in token of our love and faith, and we sing our carols and hymns of praise to the Risen Christ with hearts full of peaceful gratitude for the truth. He has brought us of immortality and life. We do well to sing our "Alleluias" to Him.

Let us, on this glad day, reconsecrate ourselves to God. He has assured us of His love and care. He has taken away the sting of death, and made death itself, as our dear, brave soldiers expressed it, a "Going West." Now let us give up our hearts and bodies to go out and live the risen life and make the old world know that Jesus Christ is King, fighting evil and advancing good. May we prove that we have indeed "Risen with Christ."

FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

Miss Hattie L. Lee

The whole parish and Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel in particular, has met with a great loss in the death of our dear friend and co-worker, Miss Hattie L. Lee. For over 40 years Miss Lee has been a worker in Holy Trinity. Hundreds of our people have been helped and blessed by her ministrations. In her temperance work she was very successful, and her bands of W. C. T. U. and her Temperance School, held for 30 years, have resulted in untold good. In our Holiday House work she held a unique position, coming in touch, personal and loving, with all our guests and making the house a "home" of cheer and sunshine to all who enjoyed its hospitality. Her work in the Sunday School brought about her a band of girls and women to whom she was a personal friend as well as a teacher. Everywhere and in everything Miss Lee was a benediction.

Her personal life was a beautiful example of the sunshine of Christianity. In spite of the sorrows which came to her in the death of mother, brother and sister within a short space of time, her faith never wavered, and she found peace in ministering to others and forgetting her own trouble in seeking to lighten the burdens of others. We thank God for her life and work. She was a benediction to the parish.

FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

March, 1920.

"This is the day the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Thus did the writer of this psalm sing long before the coming of the Christ. The long-looked for Christ came, but Israel did not receive Him. He suffered and died, but they did not understand. He fulfilled the old things, He gave new life and light. But in order to do it He had to give Himself. He burst the grave and He conquered death. He came forth victorious—the Gentile world caught the brightness of His shining. The ages since have been impregnated with light and hope which He died to bring. Is it any wonder then that Christians are happy today and shout and sing Alleluiah. If we have been benefitted spiritually during these great forty days, if we have followed reverently our Lord through His temptation, the arrest, trial, denial, crucifixion—and were touched by those words from the cross and wept with those that wept, and early today heard the angels announce He is risen, surely we must thank God from our hearts and say "this is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Because of the removal of death's sting by His own resurrection, we may think of those loved ones caroling in their happiness in the Paradise of God. May this same Jesus breathe upon you today Peace!

Prohibition

The thirteenth of March number of the Literary Digest contained a most interesting article on "Labor's verdict on Prohibition." As a number of our readers may not see that magazine we give a synopsis. The question, "Has prohibition been a benefit to the working men and their families," was sent to the duly elected officials of union-worker organizations. Besides the mere answering of the question, opportunity was provided for "remarks."

Labor leaders, to the number of 526, replied to the question. From every State in the Union there were replies. "In sparsely settled sections, perhaps a reply does not represent the opinion of more than a few hundred, while another 'yes' or 'no' may represent from five to fifty thousand."

After going over the answers and the remarks the Digest summarizes thus, "Prohibition, a benefit to the working man, 345. Prohibition not a benefit to the working man, 143. Doubtful, 31. Prohibition has not been given a fair trial, 7." One secretary said, "Outside the Declaration of Independence, the Prohibition Amendment is the best thing that has happened to this glorious country." That secretary was from New Jersey. The Governor of that State ought to read his reply. The majority of working men after having had a trial and seen the results illustrated in their homes and families would, if they spoke the truth, we think, say it had been a blessing not only to those who used to drink, but to the community at large.

The Associated Charities of Boston has reported that for the year ending September, 1919, it gave aid to 3000 families and "approximately 10 per cent. of these cases were due to intoxicating liquor. During the four winter months since September not a single case of those helped has been traceable to alcoholism." The criminal division of the Municipal Court, in all the large cities, can, no doubt, show a most interesting record bearing on this matter.

A writer in a recent number of "The Christian Herald," says fundamentally two things have brought prohibition, "the essential badness of the saloon and the aroused American conscience. Facts have killed the liquor traffic; the cold facts of science, economy and government, and the burning facts of home, motherhood and religion. Science used to teach that alcohol was good for the mind, brightening the intellect, inspiring the imagination of the poet. Science in only recent years, has shown that drink attacks the brain cells and produces a large percentage of insanity. Alcohol, for 6000 years thought to be a food, has been proven in our time to be a deadly poison."

Every employer of labor, large or small, has long since recognized its deleterious effect upon efficiency and production. Politics and the dollar have been mighty weapons in the hands of leaders against it. They do not want to be honest with themselves. They are afraid to.

What a bold and far-seeing statesman is the governor-general of French West and Equatorial Africa! The territory contains 2,480,382 square miles. He issued "a decree prohibiting the importation of trade spirits into those colonies after January 1, 1920." Prominent characters in other lands are taking up the cause.

Science and the essence of religion will, in time, play their part well.

For some time past we have been thinking of and talking of a new pulpit for the Chapel. We have taken up several collections for the purpose, and have on hand about fifty dollars.

Designs and estimates have been submitted by two firms. They are ready to present at the next Chapel Committee meeting.

Since the death of Miss Harriett L. Lee it has been proposed that the pulpit now be made a memorial to her. This suggestion has met with universal favor.

We are informed by those who ought to know that Miss Lee's long service, about forty years, in the parish, was begun in this Chapel, and where, at the time of her death, she had a Bible Class for women, and had charge of the Mothers' Meeting. One of the last meetings that Miss Lee attended before she went to the hospital, was that of our Mothers.

The opportunity will be given for all, who have in any way come under Miss Lee's influence, to contribute to this Memorial.

We would be glad to have the smallest child in the Temperance School to the adult in the various other organizations give as they may see fit.

Place your gift in an envelope and mark "New Pulpit," with your name and place on the collection plate at any service, or hand to Dr. Tomkins, Mr. Warfield or any of the Chapel Committee.

We would like to see the pulpit in place and ready for consecration by the first of June.

On the six Sunday evenings in Lent we had visiting preachers. The sermons were interesting and helpful. It was a loss to those who missed any of them.

At last the long, cold winter seems to be over and the days are growing longer. We, therefore, hope you will be more regular in your attendance at the services.

If you have friends visiting you or they drop in unexpectedly to call about the time you ought to get ready to go to service, extend to them a cordial invitation to come to service with you. Maybe they have not been in God's house that day. So many of our own people are exceedingly slack about the duty of attending divine service. Some of these are fathers and mothers who should be setting an example to their children. Often there is good reason for mothers to sometimes remain at home. But what reason is there for you, fathers, unless you are keeping the baby and getting the dinner while the mother has gone to church? Unfortunately not many men see it that way. What a pity!

The report of those in charge of the funds for "Fatherless Children of France" has been issued. It is through this committee that our Sunday School for three years has contributed for one of the children from whom we hear from time to time.

The report shows that there have been contributed during the past year $124,478.63, of which $121,000 has been forwarded through the bankers and $3478.63 remain on hand.

Announcement is made that by the action of the National Committee the work of the society will be closed December 31, 1920. This work has been a blessing to many a little child in France deprived of fathers by war.

Chancel Guild

A meeting of the Chancel Guild was held in the Sacristy on the evening of Thursday, March 4th, Friday evening, March 5th, not being available owing to the Lenten service. Those present were Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young, Miss Louise Warfield, Miss Margaret Mellon, Miss Mary McCloskey, Mrs. Brown and Miss Long being unavoidably detained by illness.

At this meeting it was moved and seconded that the Lenten offering of the Guild should be donated to Mr. Warfield toward the purchase of a new pulpit.

A corporate communion of the Guild was arranged for the evening of Maundy Sunday, and after this service there will be a brief meeting of the Guild in the Sacristy, to prepare for the Easter celebrations of the Holy Communion.

The Guild is much gratified by the announcement of a new member to their number, Mrs. John J. Dunlap.

The Chancel appointments for April are as follows:

April 4—Easter Day.

Each member will be apportioned to one of the three celebrations.

April 11—First Sunday after Easter.

Miss Mary Weir.

Miss Isabel Weir.

April 18—Second Sunday after Easter.

Miss Anna Young.

Mrs. Edward I. Brown.

April 25—Third Sunday after Easter.

Miss Gertrude Young.

Miss Mary McCloskey.

Miss Gladys Williams and Mrs. John J. Dunlap will assist with the sessions, and 11 A. M. service during the month of April.

Monday Guild

This Guild will give an entertainment consisting of music and recitations on Easter Monday evening. The entertainment will be followed by a supper. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members besides a few invited guests.

The attendance during the past month has been about as usual. We would like to see it pick up this spring. To add more interest to the meetings there will be a special speaker once a month. The topics will be pertinent to the times.

Choir Supper

A new feature will be introduced in the supper for the men and boys of the choir, to be given tonight in our Guild House. It will be presence of members of the Vesper Choir in recognition of their attendance and services on the Wednesday evenings in Lent, and all Sunday evenings.

On account of the large number, the supper will be served in the Assembly room on the second floor.

Women's Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held Thursday, March 25th. Mrs. Maule presided. A most interesting address was delivered by Mrs. Edwin C. Grice, former president of the Home and School League. Her topic was the "Power of Prayer," using as

Prayer

We give a new prayer adopted by the General Convention last October, and to be inserted in the Prayer Book on page 40.

FOR CHILDREN

O Lord Jesus Christ, who dost embrace children with the arms of Thy mercy, and dost make them living members of Thy Church; give them grace, we pray thee, to stand fast in Thy faith, to obey Thy Word, and to abide in Thy love; that being made strong by Thy Holy Spirit they may resist temptation and overcome evil; and may rejoice in the life that now is, and dwell with Thee in the life that is to come; through Thy merits, O Merciful Saviour, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

The usual Maundy Thursday supper was served to the members of the Mothers' Meeting, so that they could later come in a body to the Holy Communion. Our leader, Miss Lee, will be greatly missed, but the meetings will continue, as best they can, until the close of the season in May. Let us all try to follow Miss Lee's wishes.

The open Forum has been removed from the Diocesan Church to St. James' Parish House, 2210 Sansom street.

The dates and topics for April are:
April 12—"Dare the Church Follow Her Leader?"
Leader, Rev. Mercer G. Johnson, D. D.
Oversea 20 Months.

April 26—"City Welfare in Philadelphia."
Leader, Mr. E. L. Tustin.
Director of Welfare, Philadelphia.

New Envelopes

The envelopes which you are now using will run out the last Sunday in April. The new ones for May to December, thus filling out the year, are ready for distribution, and will be in your hands in time for their use.

As far as possible the same number that you are now using will be given you.

A number of people who had envelopes and who did not sign the new cards during the nation-wide campaign, have not been turning their envelopes in lately. Their old pledge did not expire until May 1st, and we hope that they mean to continue contributing by this method. Those who did sign the new cards are contributing according to them the old pledges having automatically ceased.

This is by far the most successful and systematic way of contributing. We hope our gifts to missions and all other objects outside of the parish will this year be larger than ever before. We would be glad to see every member contribute by this method. Will those who are not using envelopes kindly ask that a package be sent them at an early date?

Last year there were fifty-nine communicants on the evening of Maundy Thursday, sixteen, at 7 o'clock, forty-two at 8 o'clock, and ninety-three at 11 o'clock on Easter Day.

By the time the Courier is issued these days shall have passed, but it is hoped the number on these occasions this year will be far in excess of those of 1919.

During the week of March 8th a series of free noon-time organ recitals were given by our organist, Mr. Ernest Felix Potter, under the Community Service of Philadelphia. Following was the opening program, as a sample of the kind of music.

- a. Pilgrims' Chorus.
 - b. March (Tannhauser) Wagner
 - c. Evening Star.

The Girls' Gymnasium

Since our last issue the Girls' Gymnasium has been reopened.

This year it is under the instruction of Miss Lorine Myers, of Temple University. In addition to calisthenics and drills there will be instruction in folk dancing.

Miss Myers is accompanied by Miss Preston at the piano. This feature of going through the physical exercises to rhythmic time promotes both order and added interest.

The class is being held in the Guild House on account of the use of the piano.

The night is Saturday and the hour 8 P. M. sharp.

There is room for a few more girls. As the class has already become popular, speak up quickly, girls.

Boys' Gymnasium

Much interest has been shown recently in the boys' gymnasium by a number of the boys of the choir who have joined. They have been doing finely under the instruction of Mr. Wesley Anthony, one of our older boys. The contests are full of snap and vim, accompanied by vocal sounds, but Mr. Potter says such indoor vocal exercise is not harmful to the singing voice.

Besides this class on Monday evenings, basketball has been played Saturday afternoons.

In this Mr. John Weir, Jr., has acted as coach. The other afternoon the boys played a match game with the Prince of Peace. The first half was well played, but by the second half they had outplayed themselves and were finally beaten by the visitors.

Basketball is now on the wane, as the lure of the outdoors is pulling hard for bat and ball.

Recently Mr. Howard Blake, a field executive of the Boy Scouts, gave the boys a little talk on the benefits and enjoyments of scouting.

We think that we have in view a Scout leader, in which case we are hopeful of forming a troop at the Chapel. This will come in well just now, and afford the boys much pastime in the open during these spring afternoons.

A most interesting course is being given for prospective Scout leaders at Scout headquarters on Wednesday evenings. The course opened Wednesday, March 24, and will continue for some weeks. We recommend this most highly to some of our older boys. Mr. Edwards is taking it.

There are now in Philadelphia nearly 8000 Scouts and Scout leaders. A meeting was held last Monday evening in Holy Trinity Parish House to organize a District Committee to have charge of and further the activities of this great movement in our section of Philadelphia.

Boys, let us get a troop quickly. See Mr. Warfield about it at once and hand in your name.

Basket Ball

The season for basketball closed last Tuesday. A report will be given by the captain in the next issue.

Music for April

The numbers in the musical program refer to the new hymnal.

Hymn 48 will be sung during April as the kneeling hymn, just before the blessing, at both morning and evening services. The congregation is requested to join in the singing of it.

Note—The Offertory Sunday evening, April 11th, will be sung by Miss Anna Schuler, contralto, guest soloist at that service.

His countenance was like lightning and his raiment white as snow, and for fear of Him the keepers did shake and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women: "Fear not ye. Editor's Column

On page 41 of the Prayer Book there is a prayer, "to be used on Rogation Sunday, and the Rogation days." Rogation, from the latin rogare to ask, beseech, supplicate.

The Rogation days are the three days preceding the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord.

As Lent is a period of fasting and preparation for Easter, so are these days for Ascension.

It has been said that somewhere about 450 A. D. to 460 A. D. one of the dioceses in France was in much trouble from earthquake and other calamities. That these might cease and the people enjoy better things, the Bishop appointed these three days to be observed by the people with great solemnity—in prayer and fasting. Other dioceses liked the custom, it spread and became a fixed one. The prayer by which we now observe this time is one for fruitful seasons.

Forty days after Easter comes Ascension—the returning of Our Lord into heaven. From the very beginning of Christianity it has been observed by the Church as one of the great festivals.

For this day there are proper psalms, lessons and a preface in the communion office.

Falling on a week day it is not as generally observed as it should be. It is sometimes called Holy Thursday. Read the accounts given: St. Mark xi. 19, 20; St. Luke xiv. 50-53, and the Acts I, 9-12.

The Sunday following Ascension day is often spoken of as "Expectation Sunday," in commemoration of the time the Apostles were so anxiously waiting in Jerusalem, looking for and expecting the coming of the Comforter which the Lord, before He left them, promised should come.

Then follow, this month, in succession two other great festivals of the Church, Whitsuntide, when we commemorate the coming of that Comforter, and Trinity Sunday, gathering together the Father Almighty, the only begotten Son of God and the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of Life, in the unity of the God head "of one substance, power and eternity."

I have a life with Christ to live,
But, ere I live it, must I wait
Till learning can clear answer give
Of this and that book's date?

I have a life in Christ to live,
I have a death in Christ to die;
And must I wait, till science give
All doubts a full reply?

Nay rather, while the sea of doubt
Is raging wildly 'round about;
Questioning of life and death and sin,
Let me but creep within Thy fold, O Christ, and at Thy feet
Take but the lowest seat,
And hear Thine awful voice repeat
In gentle accents heavenly sweet,
Come unto Me, and rest;
Believe Me, and be blest.

JOHN CAMPBELL SHAIRP.

Sunday School

The monthly service of the Sunday School in the Church was April 25. Two children were baptized immediately after the service, they having arrived too late to be done in the service, as is customary. There are a number of children in the parish for baptism. It is hoped this rite may be administered to them at the next service, May 16, at 3 P. M. Will the parents kindly bear this in mind? Blanks to be filled out will be sent to them for that purpose in due time. Kindly return them promptly.

The annual service for the presentation of the Lenten offering was held in Holy Trinity Church, April 25. Our Lenten offering was as follows: Proceeds from the entertainment on Shrove Tuesday, $59.14; one-third of the plate collection at carol service, $9.10; mite boxes, $52.07. Total, $120.31. This was not as large as last year. One reason for this was that last year the balance in the Sunday School treasury at the end of the fiscal year was added to this offering. This was not done this year.

The honor of having the largest amount in the mite box was held by Ruth Norris, whose box contained $6.01. Jack De Nyre held second place with $2.08. It is not too soon to think of the offering next year. If each scholar would lay aside each week a small sum our offering would go 'way ahead of this year. Try it. If you would like a box for that purpose ask the secretary for one.

The New Pulpit

As was stated in the last issue of the Courier, the new pulpit will be in memory of Miss Harriet Louise Lee. The contract has been given to Mr. John Barber, of Philadelphia. Due to the unsettled conditions of both labor and material, Mr. Barber felt he could not promise its completion by Trinity Sunday. It is expected to have a special service of dedication, and while a date cannot be definitely set, it is hoped that it may take place early in June. It will be hexagon in shape, Gothic design of dark oak, in keeping with the rest of the woodwork of the Chancel.

The amount contributed so far is $251.16, of which $12.00 was given by the Chancel Guild.

A number of people have made use of the special envelopes distributed for that purpose. Use any envelope and mark "Pulpit" and place on the plate at any service, or send direct to Mr. Warfield. Individual gifts have ranged in size from ten cents to $15. Any amount will be gladly received. The collection at the memorial service held in Holy Trinity Church to Miss Lee was for this purpose and amounted to $38.38.

The churches of Philadelphia are uniting in support of the building fund campaign of the Young Women's Christian Association May 4 to 11, inclusive. In view of the housing situation in this city, the Y. W. C. A. feels that it is a Christian duty to meet this crisis. There are 271,804 women and girls employed in this city, 38,052 of which are living away from home. In 1919, the Y. W. C. A. housed 57,350 young women, in its boarding and transient departments. It turned away 10,000 more. Is this not a challenge to the citizens of Philadelphia?

Memorial Services

On Sunday afternoon, April 18th, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, there was held a memorial service for Miss Hattie Lee. Many of her friends from the Chapel attended, and the Church was well filled.

The rector spoke very feelingly of the great work that Miss Lee did for the Church during most of her life, and especially of her work at the chapels and the summer home at Sellersville.

He dwelt upon her bright and optimistic disposition, which surmounted all difficulties, and what a pleasure it was to work with one, who never objected to any adverse conditions, but always said she would find a way to do what was wanted.

Mr. Townsend, the accounting warden of the Church, spoke of Miss Lee as follows:

"Our worship this afternoon is especially in memory of our late fellow worker, Hattie Lee, and to consider what we can learn from her life. She prayed 'Thy Kingdom Come.' It is for us to say 'Thy Will be Done.' The kingdom of God has come for her. She has entered into her well-earned reward, and she has entered into rest, free from all this world's cares and troubles. We can hear her Master say to her, 'Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of Thy Lord,' 'In as much as you have done unto one of the least of these, you have done it unto Me.' Such was her life.

"I knew Hattie Lee for probably half a century. We were children together in this Church. Her father was a prominent music publisher of the firm of Lee & Walker. They lived in a large house on Nineteenth above Walnut street. One by one her family died, and it is a strange fact that today her executor cannot find a relative of any kind to notify of her death, but she had hosts of friends and there could be no greater testimonial to her than the mass of friends who attended her funeral, and they were real mourners.

"Her well-drawn will makes numerous small bequests to friends, and then leaves the bulk of her principal to her Church, the income to be expended entirely at the discretion of the Vestry, but especially for such objects as she was interested in. Now how can we profit by her memory? What can we learn from her life?

"In every walk of life as great workers drop out, we wonder who will carry on, but the Master worker always provides substitutes. The work must go on. We cannot all do just what she did, we have not all the ability for it.

"Some will volunteer, and it is for the rector to decide who is best fitted for this or that work.

"Hattie Lee was not great as the world counts greatness, but she was great in service to the world; great in small deeds; great as God counts greatness.

"We can all at least try to acquire her altruistic spirit to do all the good we can to all we meet, remembering what our greatest poet has said:

"The lives of great men all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime;
And departing, leave behind us,
Foot prints on the sands of time."

The one hundred and thirty-sixth convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be held May 6th and 7th in the Church of St. Luke and Epiphany.

The opening service will be held in old Christ Church to commemorate the 225th anniversary of the founding of the Church in this State. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Daniel Tuttle, the presiding Bishop.

The Church Census for 1919 shows the total membership to be 41,491,989, and the gains to be 56,301, "which is less than the smallest advance for at least thirty years."

The Protestant Episcopal Church, according to this census, has 5677 ministers, 8103 churches, 1,065,825 communicants. A gain of 4721.

In finances the Protestant Episcopal Church reported having received a grand total of $21,451,346, which was an increase of about $745,000.

"The total salaries in 1916 of 170,000 clergymen in the United States, according to the Interchurch World Movement Survey, was $125,000,000. Not half of these ministers received more than $700."

The Second Sunday after Easter Mr. Warfield was visiting his sons in Maryland.

The Third Sunday after Easter Mr. Edwards was preaching in South Carolina.

Health talk and motion pictures, under the auspices of the Social Service Committee of the Church of the Holy Trinity, at the Parish House, 217 South Twentieth street, Thursday evening, May 6, at 8 P. M. The congregations of the Church and Chapels are cordially invited.

Chancel Guild

The regular monthly meeting of the Chancel Guild was held in the Sacristy on the evening of Maundy Thursday, April 1, immediately after service. All of the members but two were present, and one of these took her Communion with Miss Shott's Bible class, of which she is a member.

It was very gratifying to the chairman to follow her ten associates to the Altar for the corporate Communion, and after the service Mr. Warfield came into the Sacristy for a few moments and expressed his pleasure at the full attendance.

At this meeting the Guild presented their Lenten offering to Mr. Warfield, asking that the amount, which was most generous, should be used toward the "Pulpit Fund." Mr. Warfield was very much touched at receiving the donation for such a purpose and thanked the members most cordially on behalf of the Church.

It was decided at this meeting to hold a special meeting on the evening of Monday, April 5, to arrange for a small entertainment. Nine members were present and the chairman thinks they enjoyed the discussion of what to do and what to have quite as much as they will the prospective party, which is to take place on Wednesday evening, May 5, at 8.30 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Guild House. Each member of the Guild may invite one guest, and we most cordially invite Mr. and Mrs. Warfield to join our number. It will be a very small affair, but we hope it will be an enjoyable evening for all.

The May meeting of the Guild will be held on Friday evening, May 28, at 8 o'clock, in the Sacristy.

The Chancel appointments for May are as follows:

May 2, Fourth Sunday after Easter—Miss Margaret Mellon, Miss Jennie Long.

May 9, Fifth Sunday after Easter—Miss Mary Weir, Miss Isabel Weir.

May 16, Sunday after Ascension—Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young.

May 23, Whitsuntide—Mrs. Edward I. Brown, Miss Mary McCloskey.

May 30, Trinity Sunday—Miss Margaret Mellon, Miss Jennie Long.

Miss Louyse Warfield, Miss Gladys Williams and Mrs. John J. Dunlap will attend to the 11 A. M. Communions and attend to evening Lessons.

Women's Auxiliary

The April meeting of the Auxiliary was a most pleasant one. There was a very good attendance of the ladies, and Miss Ellen Morris was the special speaker. She gave us a very interesting talk on China, where her brother is working as a missionary. It is hoped that she will come again in the near future and continue the talk. This was the last meeting that our president, Mrs. Maule, will attend this season, as shortly she will leave the city for her country residence. We wish her a pleasant vacation and hope to have her with us at the first meeting in the fall. With Mrs. Maule's consent, however, another meeting will be held May 27, when it is hoped there will be a full attendance, as there are plans for some work being done by the members during the summer.

JENNIE L. LONG,
Secretary.

Entertainment and Coffee Klatch

The Missionary Band, composed of members of the Sunday School classes of the late Miss Lee, meets the third Friday of each month at the homes of its members, in rotation. Following the short business session there is a social.

On Friday evening, April 26, we met at the Guild House, 2216 Spruce street, Mrs. A. Ehrmann being hostess. Miss Jennie L. Long was chosen president to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Lee's death.

In the past it has been our privilege and pleasure to send small contributions to different mission fields and also at some time each summer to take some of the poor old ladies connected with the parish for a day's outing to Willow Grove Park, for whom dinner and supper were provided. Money was given Miss Lee by kind friends to cover the cost of carfare and amusements. It is now hoped that these friends will in Miss Lee's name continue this generosity.

It has been suggested that the members give in memory of Miss Lee a set of linen for the Holy Communion table, which Miss Lee gave several years ago in memory of her sister to the Holiday House at Sellersville, Pa. To raise money to continue this work we have decided to hold an entertainment and coffee klatch in the Guild House of the Memorial Chapel, 2216 Spruce street, Friday evening, May 21. We solicit contributions of fifteen cents, for which light refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the different congregations in the parish and their friends to come and spend with us a social evening.

In addition to the above a "rummage sale" will be held on South street, below Twenty-third, Saturday, May 29. If members of the congregations during their spring housecleaning find articles of any kind whatsoever that they wish to discard we will very gladly accept them for this sale. Kindly send packages any time previous to that date to the Guild House, 2216 Spruce street, marked "Missionary Band."

JENNIE L. LONG,
President.

The sixteenth annual service for presentation of united offerings was held Thursday last in Diocesan Church. Our treasurer, Miss Helen Donaghy, presented for our Chapel $14.50, representing thirteen contributors.

Mother's Meeting

At present the mothers are engaged in making aprons, which, after completion, are purchased by the mothers at the wholesale cost of the material, and making rag rugs. The last rug that was finished was presented to Mr. Ehrmann as an expression of appreciation of kindness shown to them. The annual supper was given on Maundy Thursday evening, after which, according to custom of former years, the mothers attended the service of the Holy Communion in a body, as did also the Chancel Guild. The meetings will be continued through this month. It is expected that the annual picnic will be held early in June.

Easter Services

Although the weather on Easter Day was disagreeable, the services were well attended and at each Communion there were more communicants than last year, when the day was a fine one. The number of those communicating was as follows: Maundy Thursday, 68; Easter Day, 7 A. M., 20; 8 A. M., 54; 11 A. M., 97.

Monday Guild

The members of the Guild held an entertainment and party Easter Monday evening. There were twenty-five present, including the husbands of some of the members. The ladies provided a sumptuous and appetizing repast, much to the enjoyment of all. They made a contribution of $5 toward the Lenten offering of the Sunday School.

Tuesday Night Guild

The Tuesday evenings have been spent very pleasantly in a social way in the Guild House the past month. I regret to say that we have not been so very industrious for the past few weeks, owing to sickness and other duties I was unable to prepare work for the girls, but we are going to get down to work again this spring and make children's dresses, which will be for sale and the proceeds be used for the Guild.

We are also looking forward to our spring party, which will be held some time during May. A cordial invitation is extended to the young girls of the Chapel and their friends who are not members to join our guild.

JENNIE L. LONG,
President.

The Choir

The offertory anthem on Low Sunday evening was sung by Miss Schuler, a former pupil of Mr. Potter. Her selection was well rendered, her enunciation was clear. She was much enjoyed by members of the congregation, who hope that she will in the near future repeat her visit.

The anniversary of the Choir falls this month, and Mr. Potter has been making arrangements to celebrate it by a special service. This will be the third anniversary of the boy choir. Several of the boys who joined at the first are still members and most of the men.

The usual supper was served to the Choir Easter Sunday evening in the Guild House after the singing of the carols in Holy Trinity Church. This year we had the pleasure of the company of the girl members of the Vesper Choir. It was a great success and will probably become a regular custom. Forty-three sat down to the tables at one time. Of that number twelve were girls. It was necessary to use the large assembly rooms. After supper the men found a few minutes for a quiet smoke in the Vicar's study before being called to rehearsal by Mr. Potter.

We wish to thank very heartily the Misses Bennett, Collins, McCloskey, Burk and Armstrong for serving and generally helping to make the supper such a success.

Those who have given memorial flowers for the Communion table are Miss McCloskey, Mr. Hoeflich, Mrs. Tyrell. So far only the first two Sundays in May are engaged.

Boys' Gymnasium

The boys' gym. has been growing nicely and the average attendance good. All seem to enter with much spirit into the exercises and contests under the direction of Wessley Anthony on Monday evening. Since the breaking of spring all have caught the baseball fever. The members who are also members of the choir have been given, through the warden, some baseball paraphernalia and on Monday afternoon last they had a big "tryout" with Mr. Potter as umpire in the park.

Basket Ball

On Tuesday, March 23, we defeated the American Railway Express Company by the score of 34 to 14.

On Tuesday, March 30, we defeated the North Philadelphia basketball team by the score of 38 to 19.

This game brought our 1919 and 1920 season to a close and our record stands as follows: Out of 19 games played we won 16, besides having three games forfeited to us by the visiting teams failing to show up.

Out of the 19 games played the points were divided as follows:

	Field Goals.	Foul Goals.	Total Points.
Visiting team....	139	103	381
H. T. M. C.....	232	93	557
Frank D. Long...	118	40	276
Robert Littley ...	76	27	179
Wesley Anthony	20	18	58
Fred Dietmann...	8	5	21
George Duncan...	9	2	20
Dan Littley	1	1	3

In comparing last season's record with this we did much better in scoring, winning games and keeping the other teams from making many points. The team this year was composed of the following members: John Weir, Jr., manager; Frank D. Long, captain and forward; Robert Littley, forward; Wesley Anthony, centre; Fred Dietmann, guard; George Duncan, guard, and Dan Littley, guard.

Editor's Column

With this number the Courier completes its fourth year. It is published nine months during the year. This is the last issue this season. It is expected to resume it in October. Its aim is to keep before the people what is being done at the Chapel. Suggestions for improvement will be gladly received.

The Vicar extends to all those who in many ways have given their attentions and efforts toward furthering the work here, his hearty thanks.

The various organizations have done well. May all members enjoy their summer vacations and return with renewed strength and greater determinations for a larger and healthier growth next season.

Services will be held three times each Sunday during the summer months. If you are not out of the city come to service. You will find it as cool here as at home. Join in the worship heartily. You will be benefited and others will be encouraged.

Read elsewhere about the new order of morning service for July and August. Bring your children and your neighbors' children.

Never forget the clergy in your prayers.

Women's Auxiliary

The closing meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary for this season was held in the Guild House, Thursday evening, May 27. As our president, Mrs. Morton Maule, had moved to her country seat, she was unable to be with us.

The chair was occupied by the secretary, Miss Long.

As there was no regular business to come before the meeting the evening was spent informally talking over some summer work.

It was decided to make during our summer recess gingham aprons, to be sent to some mission later in the year. Mrs. Warfield volunteered to do the cutting out. The sum of five dollars was voted to be sent to the Rev. George Burgess in response to an appeal for his work in Chicopee, Mass., and the treasurer was authorized to send check.

After adjournment for the summer, light refreshments were served in the dining-room.

JENNIE L. LONG,
Secretary.

The Little House

The status of war relief work has greatly changed during the past year, and for this country at least the trend seems to have tended—monotonously—unfalteringly—illogically—toward cessation. Until now at least, the Little House of Saint Pantaleon has been successful in escaping this trend, and has sent during the year February 1, 1919—February 1, 1920, cases valued at $33,680.86, as compared with $33,063.35 during the preceding year when war was in active progress, 219 orphans have been outfitted as compared with 42 in 1918; 77 new orphans have been adopted and the adoption of almost every one of the former 118 has been renewed.

An exceedingly important part of the task is the preparation of the scores of outfits and the packing of boxes, and this is made possible through the great kindness of Dr. Tomkins and Mr. Warfield. Were it not for them the Little House would have no packing room and no adequate work rooms. Every article represented by the $33,680.86 passed through Holy Trinity Memorial Guild House, every precious case sent to France, has gone out its door.

For still another year the society has been able to meet all overhead expenses without encroaching on its treasury for so much as a penny. That this has been possible is due entirely to the generosity of a few members and friends. Among these the founders wish to thank especially Mr. Albert E. McVitty, of Bryn Mawr, who besides other gifts donated the salary of the secretary. Without this generous aid, the clerical work of the Little House would have fallen as an almost unbearable added burden upon the founders.

Among its friends and donors, the society owes most grateful thanks to Mr. George L. Tallman, who has entirely without charge, transported our many cases, and who has kindly helped us in various transportation difficulties for still another year.

Thanks are due to many outside organizations, and the founders regret that lack of space prevents the naming of each and every one, in whose co-operation the Little House takes such great and just pride. To our faithful members many thanks are due, as well as to those chapters who have continued in faithful work. Among these, very special gratitude is due the "1776" Chapter, which has maintained the great spirit shown in its name, and the Friends' Central Chapter, which has stood by us with splendid loyalty on which we count, the Foch Chapter, and the Emerson Club Chapter.

The Easter collections are as follows, and the founders mention first the name of their former secretary, Miss Marie-Louise Hubbard, not only because hers is the largest amount sent in, but because of the admirable courage and patience through which she obtained it. Permission being granted to "queter" in City Hall plaza during Easter week, and "queteuses" being difficult to enthuse, Miss Hubbard in her devotion to unhappy French girls and war orphans went in wind, rain and fair weather and, as the list shows, was wonderfully successful in awakening the sympathy and generosity of the passersby.

Before this report is printed, the founders will in all probability have sailed for France. Their purposes in this trip are several fold:

First—to study all the different miseries of the hundreds of thousands of human beings made desolate through war, and to prepare a memorandum for the captains of the drive of 1918 in order that they may decide on the expenditure of the money which they raised.

Second—to inspect the hospitals and orphanages assisted by the Little House, in order to determine their respective needs.

Third—to visit our adopted orphans, and so far as is possible our outfitted children, in order to report on their condition.

Fourth—to study as closely as possible conditions in France which should influence war relief work in America. As they are going from Le Havre to Marseilles, and from Bordeaux to Arras and Nancy, the founders should have excellent opportunity for a broad study of these conditions throughout practically the whole country, and they will endeavor to report with entire impartiality.

Should war relief work be no longer needed, they will candidly say so; if it be still needed, they will try to give most definite proofs. A meeting has been planned for the latter part of October, in order that this report may be made on "France in 1920."

Meanwhile the status of the Little House in France as our voluminous correspondence shows it, is as follows:

Almost all the military hospitals having been closed, the heavy burden of ill soldiers as well as of the civilian sick falls upon the civil hospitals. Here in America we sometimes seem to think that the armistice dried all tears and healed all wounds, forgetting that even with our comparatively small list of wounded we have many invalided soldiers at Camp Dix and in other places. France has thousands, and we should still be sending dressings of all kinds. The Little House appeals urgently for bandages, compresses and drains, for it is sending to 12 permanent hospitals, in the bombarded and "occupied" districts to Hazebrouck, Estaires, Fourmies, Compiegne and Albert in the Somme. The help to the orphanages is still continued and 12 new names have been added to the list. In the sad city of Lille, that great and beautiful city so oppressed during the long years of war, a "Creche" has aroused our sympathies and we beg for as many layettes as our friends in their charity will send us, and all kinds of tiny clothes for the older babies.

Some of our orphans, the mothers emboldened by our sympathy, have returned to the devastated district and are trying to re-make for the children the home of their dead father. Any help for these brave women will be a godsend.

For our many tuberculous, Cod Liver Oil in large quantities is most needed; medicines for the ill, and all kind of household soaps and kitchen utensils are wanted for the ruined home.

The cessation of war does not mean the cessation of great bravery and great misery; and the Little House is asked now to help not only its own, but those in France deserted by other relief societies who have "stopped work." A few of our poor families are on their feet and have written to tell us so, begging that we will send the money given for them to neighbors in the dire want from which we aided them to extricate themselves. Our French directresses are helping us to sew, and are, of course, doing all of the work of distribution.

We therefore beg our American friends not to desert us, for they make—they are—the Little House. We do not wish to falter, we wish to go on—to step in as other societies step out. When our aid is no longer needed in one house we pass to the next. We cannot efface the terrible scars, but we would like to continue until the wounds are healed.

ELISE WHITLOCK-ROSE,
ELIZABETH F. E. CLARK.

In the spring of 1918, the project of a hospital unit was formed, and subsequently abandoned with the cessation of the war. Reports from all the captains have not yet been received, but on February 1, 1920, a sum of $6,928.79 had been collected. It is thought best to devote this money to a specific cause to be determined by a vote of the captains who collected the fund. Meanwhile, as the report of the captains is still incomplete, the above sum is kept in the Commercial Trust Company of Philadelphia, in a separate account, "The Little House of Saint-Pantaleon, Special," and is therefore not included in the statement of income above.

From June 1, 1920, to October 15, 1920, all donations in money and dues should be sent to Miss Alice M. Russell, Media, Pa., who will also be glad to give pictures of orphans to be adopted and to be outfitted. Ten cents a day ($36.50 a year) will support an orphan in its mother's home. Twenty dollars will outfit an orphan for the winter. Money for orphans may also be sent to Madame Paul Cret, No. 516 Woodland terrace, Philadelphia.

Donations of clothing and material should be left at No. 2216 Spruce street, which will be open all summer.

Chancel Guild

The May meeting of the Chancel Guild was postponed until the 4th of June, as the date conflicted with an entertainment given by the Junior Auxiliary of Holy Trinity on the last Friday in May.

The little party given by the guild, to themselves and a few guests on the evening of May 5, passed off in a very satisfactory way. All of the members but one, were present, and among our guests we were delighted to have Mr. and Mrs. Warfield. At 10 o'clock refreshments were served and we gathered about a most attractive table. The centerpiece of sweet peas was a gift from the Misses Weir and we regretted that illness prevented Miss Isabel Weir from seeing how beautiful they were.

Miss Margaret Mellon and Miss Louise Warfield brought delicious fudge, and Mrs. Brown and Miss McCloskey the salted nuts. Too high praise cannot be given to the cakes presented by Mrs. Dunlap, Miss Long, Miss Williams and the Misses Young.

We are proud to number so many good cooks among us, and think we would be quite willing to arrange for just such another feast at any time in the future.

There was one misfortune which came very near being a serious one. The ice cream was found to be full of salt! But thanks to our resourceful Rector and the speedy assistance of Mr. Ehman, who scoured the neighborhood for more, and produced it in less time than it takes to write it, we were not disappointed in our feast.

We extend our thanks to Mrs. Hanna and Miss Mellon for their kindness in helping out with the piano, and to Mr. and Mrs. Ehman for the use of their Victrola for the games and dancing.

The Chancel appointments for the month of June are as follows:

June 6, 1st Sunday after Trinity—Miss Mary Weir, Miss Isabel Weir.

June 13, 2d Sunday after Trinity—Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young.

June 20, 3d Sunday after Trinity—Mrs. Edward I. Brown, Miss Mary McCloskey.

June 27, 4th Sunday after Trinity—Miss Margaret Mellon, Miss Jennie Long.

The 11 A. M. service on June 6 and evening lessons for the month—Miss Louise Warfield, Miss Gladys Williams, Mrs. John J. Dunlap.

One of our Chancel Guild girls, Miss Margaret Mellon, was married in the Chapel Saturday, June 5, to Walter Van Stan. The day was a very rainy one, but it did not interfere with the attendance. The wedding was a very pretty one. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Warfield and the marches played by Mr. Potter. We extend our hearty congratulations and best wishes. Though Mrs. Van Stan will live in West Philadelphia, she will still belong to the Guild.

Missionary Band

On the evening of Friday, May 21, Miss Lee's Missionary Band held an entertainment and coffee klatch in the Sunday School building to raise funds to carry on the missionary work in which the band for some years has been interested.

Although a thunder storm came up just about the time for the opening of the entertainment which prevented a number from attending, including some who were to take part in the program, there was, nevertheless, a large and enthusiastic audience. The program was mostly musical. Those taking part were the Misses Jennie Kiegan, Dorothy Warnock, Buckley, Collock, Lillian McDowell, Wellington, Mesdames Reiter, Harris, Anthony, Messrs. Potter, Albert Lord, Wesley Anthony and Ernest Warnick. To all of these we extend our thanks for helping to make it such a success.

After the entertainment coffee and cake were served by the ladies in charge. Ice cream was sold.

On Saturday, May 29, a rummage sale was conducted by the same band. For this purpose a store room was rented on South street. Our friends were very generous in sending used articles for this sale. There was such a demand for the things that the sale was over in the early afternoon. A goodly sum was realized.

The executor of Miss Lee's estate sent some small household articles to the Guild House that they might be purchased as "keep-sakes" by those with whom she had so long worked. They were quickly sold.

JENNIE L. LONG, President.

The Girls' Guild

This Guild, which has been quite a success during the past season, had its closing party Tuesday evening, May 25. There were games, dancing and singing, though dancing seemed the most popular. There were forty present.

The table in the dining-room was beautifully decorated in patriotic colors, red white and blue, in graceful festoons from the ceiling to the table, with colored bells here and there.

Upon the table were the customary good things to eat—cake, candy, fruit, ices.

Following the refreshments a "Jack Horner" pie was served, and there was mirth in opening the packages drawn and displaying the contents.

The girls are looking forward to a picnic some time during the summer. We hope to open in the early fall with a full attendance and heartily invite all the young girls of the Chapel to join

JENNIE L. LONG, President.

The Girls' Gymnasium

The Girls' Gymnasium, which for some time past has been meeting Saturday evenings in the Guild House, under the leadership of Miss Lorine Myers and Miss Preston, closed the last Saturday in May. Instead of exercises that evening there was a hike in the afternoon along the beautiful Wissahickon Creek in the vicinity of Valley Green. The members of this organization will have, as they did last year, an opportunity to go for an outing to the camp at N. Asbury. The time set by those in charge is Saturday, June 26. The chaperones will be Mrs. Edwards, Miss Ethel Donaghy and Mrs. Albert Anthony.

The girls will remain at the camp a week, then it will be opened for the reception of the boys.

Boys' Gymnasium

The latter part of the season the attendance was much larger than it was earlier. Quite a number of the Choir boys joined and much spirit and much noise was shown and heard in the contests of various kinds and the basketball games. Mr. Potter said the vocal cords were in no way injured. They surely must have been much strengthened.

Finally the lure of the open and baseball overcame the in-door sports and the gym closed the Monday before Decoration Day. A scarf pin was presented to Mr. Wesley Anthony as an expression of appreciation of his faithful attendance and leadership of the younger boys. We hope that he will be with us at the opening of the season next fall.

Sunday School

At the church service for the Sunday School on the third Sunday in May there were eight baptisms and one admission into the church. The following scholars were on the Honor Roll and received prizes: Elina Pruden, Lucy Roulston, Anna Scott, Anna Anthony, Emma Farley, Ada Farley, Ruth Norris, Pauline Ulmer, Helen Linder, May Ellison, Gordon Shugg, William Weir, Frank Anthony, John Littley, Katherine Irvin, Alice Irvin, Ruth Williams, Dorothy Williams, Madeline Williams, Margaret Craig, Rebecca Esher.

Tokens of appreciation for faithful service were also presented to the teachers, secretary, cornetist and the sexton.

The 20th of June will be the last monthly church service until the fall.

At the last teachers' meeting it was decided to omit the regular school sessions during July and August and instead have the scholars attend the morning church service when a special sermon of a few minutes' length will be delivered before the sermon for adults. During the singing of a hymn following the special sermon the younger scholars may leave. For attending this service the scholar will be given Sunday School credit. Details will be given the scholars at the proper time. The secretary will at these services be assisted in marking attendance by Mr. Frank Long.

New Rubrics granted by the last General Convention permit the shortening of Morning Prayer; for instance, the minister may omit the exhortation, may read one psalm and may end Morning Prayer with the Collect for Grace and 2 Cor. xiii, 14.

Adults need not, therefore, fear that this arrangement will lengthen the service. This is an experiment in encouraging all small children of the parish to attend divine service, and it is earnestly hoped that parents will bring the children to church with them.

The Sunday School picnic will be held June 19. We will go, as last year, to Willow Grove, in special cars. Tickets will be distributed to the scholars June 13. Let us have a large attendance.

Do not forget baptism at 3 P. M., June 20.

Rev. Mr. Edwards, having accepted a call extended to him from the Diocese of South Carolina, will leave us about the first of September to enter upon his new work. His residence will be in Marion, S. C. We congratulate Mr. Edwards on his call to this rectorship and extend to him best wishes in his new field of labor. He will have charge of the boys' camp again this year, returning each week in August to take the Sunday services.

Mothers' Meeting

Since the death of our leader, Miss Lee, the mothers have met regularly. We trust an efficient leader will be found so that our organization may open, as usual, the first Thursday in October.

Our closing exercises, with refreshments, were held May 27. Miss Lee had promised a prize to the mother who had been most faithful in her attendance. This prize, a silver bar pin, was presented to Mrs. Gilbert. The mothers gave to Mr. Edwards a crocheted rag rug, which had been made by them. The annual picnic will be held at Willow Grove, Wednesday, June 9. It is hoped the weather will be fine and the little tots will have a pleasant outing as well as their mothers.

Little Helpers

The closing exercises of this organization was held in the Chapel as usual with a short service and address by the Vicar. Mr. Potter played the hymns. This year there was a tie for the prize offered for the best attendance. It was won by Lidie Willsey and Elsie Meredith, each of whom only missed one meeting; therefore two prizes were given. The prizes were gold rings. Following the service were games in the Guild House, and ice cream and cake. We wish to thank Miss Slack and Miss Vogels for their kind help and leadership and hope they will be ready to open early in the fall.

The Memorial pulpit to Miss Lee is nearly completed and it is now expected the dedication service will be held on the afternoon of June 20 or 27. Definite announcement will shortly be made from the chancel. We would be glad to hear from those who wish to contribute toward it and have not yet done so.

The Boys' Camp will open Monday, July 3, and the Holiday House at Sellersville, June 26.

Those who wish to go to either place this summer will kindly send their names to the Vicar as soon as possible that dates for their accommodation may be arranged.

Happy New Year

Each New Year is happier than the last, for there is progress in life. God is nearer, Christ is dearer, and heaven is not so far away. It is so wonderful when we stop to think of it, this passing of time. It is like a river flowing to the ocean. It is like the sinking sun at the North Pole, which hides itself for a moment and then "comes up like thunder," as Kipling says, to proclaim a new day. It is like the sleep of night which leads us, refreshed, to the morning light. Happy New Year, indeed!

The time is confusing and we hardly know what a day will bring forth. Hungry and cold children in many lands, war still going on, and peace brooding over the earth and wondering when rest will come. Some people think we are approaching the last days. Some are looking for Christ's second coming. Some are trying to pierce the veil that hides eternity from us. It is a day of strange ideas and curious investigations. Yet "God is in His Heaven" and in due time all will be right with the world. We must be steady, the lamps of our faith trimmed and burning, our hands ready to help our brothers, our ideals high in the realm of morality. The New Year calls for "great minds, strong faith, true hearts and willing hands." Opportunity is knocking at the door. Hope is giving a clear vision of what the world may be when all men are true and good. And Christ is with us, calling us to follow Him in patient trust and lasting love.

What message has 1921 for us? The first, surely, that we should love one another. Hatred and bitterness should lie buried with the old year. New days call for throbbing hearts and willing hands. We are not all alike, nor can we all see alike; but we must trust one another and go forward with our hands clasped together to help the old world to nobler living. Love is a power which cannot be defeated, for it is the nature of God.

Then we should fight for all that is good and against all that is evil. There are many temptations today for us to meet and vanquish. Immorality is daring and vice assumes many forms. Let us hold to high ideals and never lower our flag. There can be no compromise between right and wrong, justice and injustice, purity and impurity.

Again, let us make our Christianity a real and living power. It is a great thing to be Christ's children. It is glorious to be called by His name and to follow His will. To bring Him those who do not know Him; to tell the "old story" until men listen and believe; to care for the sick and suffering—this is "angels' work below."

Good resolutions? Yes, and here they are: 1. To pray every night and morning. 2. To read the Bible daily. 3. To go to church every Sunday, twice, if possible. 4. To go to the Holy Communion regularly. 5. To do some church work. 6. To bring somebody else to church. 7. To pray for and to be loyal to our ministers. 8. To think of God as near us always and everywhere—at our work and our recreation, at home and away from home, in sorrow and in joy. He never forgets us. Let us never forget Him.

And so I wish a Happy New Year to all the dear folks of Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel. God bless you and keep you.

FLOYD W. TOMKINS.

A Smile

Three Wise Men journeyed day after day
Out of the mystic East;
Three Wise Men taught by a single star,
Three Wise Men traveled for Babylon far;
Three Wise Men laid down the King's highway
And founded a Christmas feast.

To Bethlehem, footsore and weary they fared,
To the Babe in the manger laid;
The mother leaned o'er and He smiled on her,
The gold, the frankincense and myrrh,
The time, the toil and the peril dared
Were an hundredfold repaid. W. W. S.

Women's Auxiliary

The regular meeting of our Chapel Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the Guild House on the evening of December 30. As this was the second meeting this month (the November meeting having been thrown out of place by Thanksgiving), and as it was in the midst of the Christmas festivities, there was not as large an attendance as usual. The president, Mrs. Maule, was in the chair. It was decided to conduct in the near future a rummage sale in the vacant store room, 2316 South street. The committee in charge is composed of the Misses Bennett, Long and Collins, all of the parishioners are asked to ransack their closets and chests and send anything they no longer need to the Guild House, marking the bundles plainly "For Woman's Auxiliary." Do it now before you forget it.

The next meeting will be Thursday, January 27. Be sure to come and bring another woman.

Little Helpers

The annual service for the Junior Auxiliary and Little Helpers was held this fall in the Diocesan Church of St. Mary. The Rev. Charles E. Betticker, of New York, was the speaker. The Misses Donoghys took quite a number of our little people to the service and the exhibition which preceded. The work that we had accomplished for the year was sent ahead so as to be on exhibition. These gifts were to go to the Rosebud Mission for Indian children.

Our Chapter has grown greatly. The average attendance is about thirty. There are about forty names on the roll.

On the afternoon of the last day of the year our Christmas exercises were held. We all met in the Sunday School room, where the Christmas tree was still standing and the little people recited pieces from the platform.

Lidie Willsey and Elsie Meridith gave a playlet; others who recited were Bertha Farley, Emma Farley, Rose Brown, Anna Bochins, Margaret Craig and Lily Anthony, Jr.

After all this about 35 went over to the Guild House and played games until the ice cream and cake were served. At the close each child was given a box of candy, a book and a package containing a gift. Some children who have not been attending have promised to start in the new year. It is for boys and girls under twelve whether they belong to the Chapel or not. Will the mothers kindly send their little ones and sometime come themselves and see our work and play?

Mother's Meeting

The Mothers' Christmas dinner was given Thursday afternoon after Christmas. It was a pleasure to have with us Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Mossie and Mrs. Beyers, who have not been able to be here for a long while. The clergy, Mr. Warfield and Mr. Smith, occupied the ends of the long table. There were more present than the dining room could accommodate, so most of the children who came with their mothers had to wait to be served at the second table. The turkey was beautifully cooked by Mrs. Ehman, who always kindly looks after the feast. The turkey was a big one and it was enjoyed by about 30. We wish to thank Mrs. Newman McGirr and Mrs. Anthony for their solos and Miss Ethel Donaghys for helping to serve the dinner and with the children, all of the mothers were presented with a box of candy before leaving. At the meeting just before Christmas Mr. Warfield was presented with a large leather grip by the mothers. The presentation was made by Mrs. Street. It was a great surprise to him and he again wishes to thank the mothers for this kindness.

Carol Service

At the Chapel we sang the Christmas Carols the Sunday before Christmas, which was the regular time for our monthly service in the church. The rite of baptism was also administered at this service. The Sunday after Christmas our two choirs and Sunday School scholars joined with Philips Brooks and Holy Trinity in the Carol Service in Holy Trinity Church. The large church was well filled. The singing was hearty. One carol was sung alone by our male choir and was well done. The addresses were made by Dr. Tomkins and Mr. Warfield. The collection for the Armenian children amounted to over $75, which was divided among the three schools represented.

After the service the two choirs were served a dinner in the assembly room of the Guild House. About 40 to 50 were served and what a good feed we had! The men tried to have a smoke after dinner in Mr. Warfield's study, but were interrupted by a messenger announcing the need of their presence at a rehearsal for the special musical service that evening. It was a full day, but a glorious one. To the Misses Bennett, Collins, McCloskey, Armstrong, Donaghys and Mrs. Anthony we extend our hearty thanks for making the dinner such a success.

The Rev. W. Winthrop Smith has been assisting the vicar in the services, entertainment and calls during the busy Christmas season.

There were two celebrations of the Holy Communion on Christmas day, at which the vicar was the celebrant. Possibly never before has the Chapel been so prettily decorated. The good screen effect with the large red star in the centre has been much admired. Much credit is due Mr. Ehman for the artistic taste displayed.

The attendances were good and the choir did the choirmaster credit.

Next special song service is the evening of January 23. Do not forget it. Come and sing.

Reception

On the evening of January 3, a reception was held in the Guild House for members of the Chapel and their friends. No formal invitations were sent out. It was announced in the December Courier and from the chancel. There was a large attendance. The clergy of the parish were represented by the rector and Mr. Higgins; the vestry by Mr. Townsend; our committee by Messrs. Clark, Frost and Glasgow. The musical program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Ethel Cherry, Miss Wellington and Mrs. Lillie Anthony, and Rev. Dr. Tomkins; duet by Mrs. Thomas and Miss Helen Donaghys; instrumental solos by Mr. Potter and Miss Donaghys. Dancing was indulged in by the younger men and women. During one of the intermissions Mr. Glasgow in a few well-chosen words presented, on behalf of the members of his Chapel, to Mr. Warfield, this being his fifth anniversary, a little box containing a number of gold coins in token of their regard for him with this greeting:

Love and joy be ever with you,
Bright hope cheer you on life's way;
Every year in passing bring you
Pleasant memories of this day.

It was a great surprise and both the gift and the spirit were greatly appreciated by Mr. Warfield, who in his embarrassment, replied to Mr. Glasgow. Toward the close of the evening refreshments were served by members of the Girls' Guild, assisted by members of the Monday Night Guild.

The Chancel Guild

Owing to New Year's eve falling upon the same date as that upon which the Chancel Guild usually holds its meetings, it was decided to have no further meeting of the Guild until Friday evening, February 4.

Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young and Miss Mary McCloskey will have charge of the 8 A. M. Holy Communion on the first Sundays in January and February.

Mrs. Walter Van Stan and Miss Mary Weir will be on altar service at 11 A. M. service during the month of January, and Miss Louysie Warfield and Miss Gladys Williams will take the same service during February.

The Guild attended service at 8 A. M. on Christmas, as is their custom, and the absence of one of our most cherished members was deeply regretted. Miss Isabel Weir's continued ill health has prevented her for some time in joining in our duties, and we all trust that the new year may restore her again to her accustomed health.

Before the Courier goes to print we shall have celebrated the fifth anniversary of our good pastor's life among us, which we hope may continue for many years to come. Our congratulations and good wishes to Mr. Warfield and before another anniversary rolls around may he have the satisfaction of seeing all of those empty pews filled. It must be dreadfully discouraging to exholt empty seats.

Can we not, each one, try to encourage our friends and neighbors to take one little hour of their lives one day each week for the service of the Lord? Let us try to do this for our new year's work.

Sunday School

The Sunday School entertainment was on Holy Innocents' night and was one of the best we have had. The younger children gave a play called a "Christmas Dream." Little Ellie was Ruth Norris, who falls asleep Christmas eve and dreams of the characters which appear and leave a gift which she finds on awakening. The characters were Jill, Catherine Irwin; Jack, Alice Irwin; Mother Hubbard, Helen Linder; Miss Muffet, Virginia Goslin; Bo Peep, Nellie Currans; Little Boy Blue, Violet Bostel; Jack Horner, Ada Farley; Tom Tucker, Emma Farley; Santa Claus, May Ellison.

The larger scholars gave a humorous play, entitled "Finnegan's Flats." Those taking part were Frank Long, at Patrick Finnegan; Bertie Pruden, Mrs. Finnegan; Edna Pruden, Mary; Beatrice Smith, Miss Neversmile; Anna Anthony, Professor Baton; Mrs. Albert Anthony, Miss Goodheart; May Milligan, the policeman, and also in the second scene, the chauffeur; Morton Glise, Little Tom. Those taking the part of the children of the flat were Mrs. Frank Long, Ethel Ehman, Anna Scott, Marjorie Glise, Irene Ehman and Olive Wheeler. During the intervals Mrs. Anthony sang and Mrs. Thomas, Miss Donaghys and Miss Helen Linder played. At the close gifts and candy were distributed to teachers and scholars. It was a great pleasure when the rector presents and opens the exercises with prayer and address. The tree was beautifully trimmed and lighted by electricity. We heartily thank Miss Jennie Long and Miss Isabel Griffith for their selection of the plays and catching of the participants. It was a grand success.

Confirmation

Bishop Garland will visit us for Confirmation on the morning of Sunday, January 23. Instruction is given Sunday afternoons in the Chapel at 4 P. M. The time is short; do not miss any of the talks given by Mr. Warfield. If you are of sufficient age do not defer this step in your religious life to a "more convenient season." That may not come and you shall have lost much.

The Little House

The founders of the Little House of Saint Pantaleon went to France last year with one purpose—to find out whether it was reasonable to close the Little House. Being very busy, they really rather hoped it would be reasonable to stop the work. Their frame of mind had not only this somewhat lazy quality, it illustrated, too, the first part of the famous saying, "you can fool the people a part of the time."

For they, like everyone else, heard that American nurses, travelers, American soldiers, and all other intelligent persons returning from France said that France is rich, needs nothing—ruins being almost repaired, war almost forgotten there.

A great many honest people have believed the rumors—and even those who knew that all those rumors could not be accurate, began to wonder if there was some truth in them. The Germans know human nature pretty well. They know that if a lie is repeated often enough, hard enough, and cleverly enough, some part of the people will believe it—"you can fool a part of the people all the time."

Few returning soldiers and nurses are German sympathizers, unless they are of German origin, and these are doing Germany's work very well. Others among the soldiers and nurses spoke so little French that they could have made no investigation, others had no opportunity to investigate, others were in one or two sections only of France, although the founders of the Little House tried very earnestly to meet everyone who could tell about France, they never heard any direct, creditable evidence that France was "on her feet again."

Nevertheless they were influenced by the multitudes of false rumors to this extent, that when one or two of the Chapters fell by the wayside last winter, they made no effort to resuscitate them, and several of the members will recall that they said before leaving America: "If we find France on her feet, we will close the Little House."

Of course, there would always be work for a relief society in France and in every country. But the Little House is not a relief society. It is a war relief society which is a very different thing. We are in no sense a society for the relief of French poverty. France can and will take care of all poverty such as we have here. The Little House exists to help in so far as it can the immense distress, disease, and ruin caused by war, in comparison to which American poverty, real poverty, but just poverty, is endurable, strange as this may sound.

When France has only the poverty which we have the Little House will not send her a farthing. Families who need baskets at Thanksgiving, poor children who need toys at Christmas, people for whom employment must be found, poor sick who must be placed in our good hospitals—these are the poor of France and America with whom we have nothing to do. Hard as their case may be, it is easy by comparison. Theirs is peace-time poverty. Our work is among the sick where hospitals have been depleted or destroyed, among women who live in devastated regions where there is no remunerative employment except the hardest tasks for men, among children who now never get proper food, among families whose support is gone, and all this not because they are poor, but because they are ruined by war.

We are therefore not a society for the relief of poverty in France, but a society for war relief. And when, as was said before, poverty alone remains in France, like the poverty now existing here, the Little House will no longer send there.

It was to learn just what war-relief remains to be done in France that the founders' four-months' trip was undertaken. They went from the English Channel to the Mediterranean, from Bordeaux to the front, and their conclusions are that ten per cent. has been done, the 90 percent. is yet to be done. England is helping. Manchester has adopted Arras, and the Tommies were cleaning up around there with plenty left to do, and they are doing it. The more prosperous of French cities are helping. Lyons has adopted Saint Quentin, which the splendid Needlework Guild of America is also aiding. Peru is rebuilding a quarter of Rheims, which is to be named after her. Other South American countries, almost all it seems, are active. There is every reason why our country should continue in this good company, and in this great work.

Yet, many societies in the United States have closed, and hundreds upon hundreds of small war-orphans, aided for two or three years, are now deserted by their American "godparents."

Many a poor French mother turned to the founders of the Little House for an explanation. "Why, if they cared for us at all, should they forget us now?" It was so wonderful that they should have cared, we cannot believe that they care no longer. And, too, after two years, a young child is still a young child—only a bit more expensive, if anything, because he must eat more and requires larger clothes."

One of the really tragic cries is that so often heard: "Oh, I wish my children were grown, I fear I cannot properly care for them; childhood is so long." It is sad indeed when a mother can take no pleasure in her children's play days because she has not enough to properly support them.

America was generous to the soldiers fighting our battle in the trenches; to the wounded man in the hospitals. Shall we, now that the peril is past, be less generous to the struggling women, the helpless little children?

We believe not, and the Little House of Saint Pantaleon asks again for your continued help—for money, for any kind of clothing, a cake of soap, a washcloth, a bar of chocolate, yarn, muslin, anything which of their kindness our friends will leave at the Guild House. No littlest parcel is too small, no gift is insignificant—a can of soup means the bigger part of a meal to a poor French family, and everything carries with it the encouragement of the gift and of the giver's sympathy.

In closing, the founders of the Little House wish to thank again Mr. Warfield for his great kindness to us and to all our workers. Never has the Little House knocked in vain at his door. Thanks are also due to the Sexton, Mr. Ehman, and to all his family, who have been always more than kind in many ways. The boxes, packages, cases and messages left with them for our work have been innumerable. Mr. and Mrs. Ehman have cared for them all, and not one has ever been lost, which is a splendid record and a great help to all of the workers.

That the Guild House is open to us is one of the many blessings of the Little House, and it is with thankfulness and pride that we take our friends to its hospitable doors.

Editor's Column

At that Passover after our Lord had instituted the "Holy Communion" and gave command to "this do in remembrance of me," a contention arose amongst the Disciples which was to be accounted the greatest. One might easily imagine the look on our Lord's face as He turns to Peter and addresses him: "Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat." Simon had been close to Him. But in a little while the trial came. Satan did get Peter and sifted him. Satan desires to sift you—and, what is more, he is going to do it. How are you going to come out?

The other side may be seen in those other words of our Lord: "I have made supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not."

Lent is at hand. It is a time of trying to get a little closer to God, so that, though sifted, the sifting may not cause faith to fail.

One great trouble with so many Christians is their lukewarmness. They are not very earnest, not very energetic. What a very different kind of Christianity yours would be if you put a little more push and go into it! Try it during this Lent and you will surprise yourself by the result.

There are a great many resolutions one might make, and a great many means one might employ for betterment during the Lenten period. Do not attempt many. This year I am going to ask you to concentrate on only two—churchgoing and prayer. Sit down and think it over by yourself. Just ask yourself a few questions, and answer them honestly. Be honest to yourself. Why don't I go to church more? Have I any real, legitimate reasons for not doing so? Am I not helped when I go, if I go in the right spirit? Why don't I pray more? I can talk to my friends; can't I talk to God? Try these two things this Lent, will you? "My house is the house of prayer."

O Lord, support me all the day long through this troublous life, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of my life is over and my work done. Then in Thy mercy grant me a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last with Thee forever.

Noel

From the French of Theophile Goutier.
The sky is black, the earth is white;
Church bells are gaily chiming,
Jesus is born. The Virgin bright
Bends o'er Him, features charming.

No royal fabrics hang within
To shield the child from cold,
Only the webs which spiders spin
Hang from the root tree old.

See on the straw the little stranger,
The dear infant Jesus quiver,
While to warm Him in His manger
Ox and ass are breathing over.

Snow fringes to the thatch do cling;
The Heavens open swell,
And all in white the angels sing
For shepherd ears; Noel. Noel!

The Lenten season is the great opportunity of the church. It is especially the opportunity of the man in the back pew. There are many added services, indeed, the burden of which rests upon the clergy, but it is not in them that the great value of Lent lies. It is in the hours of quiet thought and prayer that we find the real benefits of this season. Lent is the stocktaking time in our Christian year. Every man whose religious life is healthy must "take stock" as consistently as if that life were a department store. We must know the state of our health and the goods which are at our disposal on which we can nourish our inner life and with which we may clothe it. Our faith in God is, I am tempted to say, often too great, we calmly turn over to His goodness so many things which are clearly our own duties. God may save us, even though we do very little our own selves, but the beauty of the flesh and the richness of the apparel in which we stand before Him and His saints is dependent upon our own honest efforts in His service. Let us carefully take stock, and provide ourselves with new and better goods for days to come.

I believe in the world about me, wonderful, beautiful, hard,

Built in a thousand ages, by untold conflicts scarred;

I believe in river and ocean, the rising, the ebbing tide,

The desolate, sun-drenched desert, and the plains where men abide;

The velvet mantle of forest thrown over the lesser hills,

The crash of falling waters, and the music that silence distills;

I believe in the life of the ocean, of river, mountain and plain;

I believe in the God who made it, and filled it with joy and with pain.

I believe in the human body, tenderly builded and strong

For life of steadfast labor and of mystical glory in song;

I believe in the power of friendship, man lending his hand to man,

In the love of man for woman as a part of the Builder's plan;

The love of city and nation, in growth as the child of strife;

The clash of steel in battle, and the calm of the quiet life;

That the flesh is the gift of the Father, fashioned of common earth;

I believe Christ wore my body—that He knew its pain and its worth.

Lenten Services

Wednesday and Friday mornings at 10 A. M., Morning Prayer and Litany.

Thursday, 4 P. M., Evening Prayer and Address.

Wednesday and Friday evenings, 8 P. M., Evening Prayer and Address.

As usual, the address on Friday evening will be delivered by the Rector, the topic being "Christ's Comforters," sub-divided as follows:

Centurion—"I have not found so great faith."

Peter—"Blessed art thou."

John—"Whom Jesus loved."

Mary and Martha—"He Went to Bethany."

Penitent—"Today thou shalt be with me."

The service for the children of the Parish will be held in Holy Trinity Church, Friday afternoon, at 4.15. The address will be given by Mr. Warfield. It is hoped that the parents will bear this service in mind and will see that the children are present.

Ash Wednesday

Litany, Penitential Office and Holy Communion, 10.30 A. M.

Evening Prayer, 8 P. M.

Sunday Evenings

It is expected that there will be a special preacher at the Sunday evening services in Lent.

During February the preachers will be:

February 13—The Rev. Henry M. Medary, Rector of the Church of the Advocate.

February 20—The Rev. Frank Williamson, of St. Mark's Church.

February 27—The Rev. S. H. Wood, Vicar of Holy Communion Chapel.

March 6—The Rev. William Y. Edwards, Rector of the Good Shepherd, Germantown.

The preachers for the other Sundays will be announced later.

Special Services

The members of Franklin Lodge, of the Masonic order, have been invited to attend service in the chapel Sunday morning, February 27. The music will be appropriate to the occasion, including as the anthem, "The Templars' March," from "The Crusaders." A large attendance is expected, and the seats in the middle aisle will be reserved for our guests.

Flowers

During January flowers for the altar were given by Mr. Hoefflich and the Chancel Guild. Please remember flowers are always acceptable. And what a difference it makes when there are none!

Sunday School

The monthly service will be held in the chapel at 3 P. M., February 20. This is also the appointed time for the rite of baptism.

As has been customary for some years, a play will be given on Shrove Tuesday by the scholars for the purpose of increasing our Lenten offering. After the entertainment refreshments will be for sale. It is hoped that parents and other members of the congregation will be in attendance and thus encourage the scholars.

Miss Mildred Pruden and Mrs. Thomas have been added to the teaching staff.

It has been estimated that the past year four million children dropped out of the Sunday schools of this country. That was about one-fifth of the total attendance.

Many parents have become very slack in this matter. Parents should be much stricter than they are. Children are not taught the Bible and Christian principles at home as they used to be in days gone by. Neither, as a rule, do they get this teaching in the day schools. The Sunday school, therefore, is the place for the teaching of those things that build up character in the moulding of Christian men and women. The world is in need of purer religion. It is said that out of five thousand students in a South American university only four men reported any belief in God. Would this have been the case had those boys been brought up in a Sunday school?

Confirmation

On the morning of Sunday, January 23, the rite of confirmation was administered by Bishop Garland to eleven persons. One candidate was prevented from being present by sickness in the family. There are at present four names on the list for the next class. We would like to have the names of several more, that a class may be formed for presentation to the Bishop in the early spring. Please bear this in mind and hand in your names at an early date.

Women's Auxiliary

The monthly meeting of the auxiliary was held Thursday, January 27. The attendance was not as large as it should have been. Those of our women who are actively engaged in duties of one kind or another might make an effort to attend this organization, which meets only once a month, and thus become familiar with and take an interest in part of the church's work.

A Rummage Sale will be held Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12, at No. 2316 South street. Contributions of partly-worn clothing, shoes, etc., will be gladly received. Mark bundles plainly, "Woman's Auxiliary."

Little Helpers

Under the leadership of the Misses Donaghys this work has greatly grown. The attendance is always large. The children seem greatly interested and are often on hand long before the appointed hour. The time is filled by work, play and brief service at the close. The accomplished work sent away towards the end of the year consisted of handkerchief and embroidery bags, wash-cloths, pasted postals, pin-cushions, picture frames and picture scrapbooks. Let your children come and bring their little friends. They will learn and be entertained.

Friday Night Guild

Miss Isabel Griffith, who organized this Guild in the fall, has found it necessary, on account of her health, to give up the work. Miss Jennie Long has very kindly taken up the leadership, assisted by Miss Mildred Pruden. This is the stepping-stone to the Girls' Guild. It is open to the Chapel girls between the years of 10 and 16 and their friends. The time is 7.30 to 9.30 P. M., Fridays. Girls push this along and make it a great success. We want to see 25 names on the roll. Much fun is in store.

The work of the Little House is probably better known in some schools and groups of outsiders than among our own people. Gifts in kind are constantly being received. Large wooden boxes arrive empty and go away tightly packed as only women can do, after having been lined with oil cloth to prevent the moisture of the sea from coming in contact with the contents. All goes to help war sufferers in France.

Chancel Guild

The duties of the Guild were carried out by the members, although no meeting was held during the month of January. The flowers used on the altar the Sunday on which Bishop Garland administered the rite of confirmation were presented by the Guild.

The chancel appointments for Sundays in February are as follows:

Miss Louise Warfield and Miss Gladys Williams, 11 A. M. services throughout the month.

Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young and Miss Mary McCloskey, 8 A. M. service, February 6.

There will be a meeting of the Guild in the Sacristy on Friday evening, February 4, at which time the question of Lenten work for the Guild will be discussed.

To those who subscribed to the Pension Fund it might be interesting to know that the pensions in force are as follows:

Age pensions	184
Disability pensions.....	51
Widows' pensions.....	175
Orphans' pensions.....	114
All of which amount to $197,456.00.

The Girls' Guild

For some while before Christmas the members were interested in making tea towels and dressing dolls. With the proceeds derived from the sale of these, to which some contributions were added, we purchased useful gifts, candy and oranges, and at Christmas distributed these to seven worthy families. Some ladies from Wynnewood, who had been friends of Miss Lee, gave us for distribution 25 filled stockings. These made glad the hearts of that many little children. Since Christmas a good part of our time has been taken up in the preparation for the little plays to be given Shrove Tuesday, which it is hoped the members of the congregation will patronize. On February 1 Mrs. Warfield entertained the Guild in the Vicarage, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

The Vicar of Phillips Brooks' Chapel not having sufficient room where a group of his boys can play basketball, has been granted the use of our gymnasium on Wednesday evening. This will start immediately after Easter, as it is thought the noise during Lent would likely interfere with our Wednesday evening service.

A midwinter party was given on the evening of groundhog day to the boys and girls of the two choirs. It was preceded by a special musical program arranged by Mr. Potter in the Sunday school. After this all adjourned to the Guild House. Games of various kinds were played and refreshments were served. The mothers and other ladies kindly contributed homemade cakes. It is needless to say there was fun for all. And the eats—Oh, my!

Lenten Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, Who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent, create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Under the auspices of the Evangelistic Committee of the Interchurch Federation for Philadelphia and vicinity, special effort is to be made to get people to go to church on the Sundays in Lent. In addition to the regular midday services of our own church, services will be held in Keith's Theatre, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursday and Fridays, from February 15 to March 25, at 12.25, lasting one-half hour. "In these days of grave problems and great responsibilities, the Christian churches are earnestly seeking to serve the highest interests of our individual citizens—of our homes and of our nation."

Editor's Column

Lent is half gone. Have you been benefited any so far? Have you been reading your Bible with regularity and care, in other words have you in a way made an effort to study a part of it?

Have you been giving a little more time and earnestness to your prayers? What about morning prayers before you start off to your work or went about your household duties? That act might have a great influence upon your disposition and temperament for the day.

How about conducting family prayers in your household? Maybe you never tried it, never thought of it, or too busy to introduce it. Can't you give God five minutes a day?

Then there is worship. How many times have you attended service in the past three weeks either at one of the down-town week-day services or in your own church?

No man can keep up his physical strength without food and exercise. Can a man expect more of his spiritual strength?

These things ought ye to have done and not left the other undone.

Three weeks of Lent yet remain.

"Come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. And He will teach us of His ways and we will walk in his paths."

We do not seem to be doing what we should through the envelope system. Last year there were 142 contributors, whereas, so far this year, there are only 112. Are you one of those who has dropped out? We would like to see every communicant contribute by this means. Systematic giving is the thing that counts. Just give what you feel you are able. A letter has just come from the Executive Secretary saying that it has been decided to ask each parish to aim this year at a figure two and a half times what it gave for the year 1919. And according to that consolation the figures for our chapel is $2,961.57.

What are we going to do about it? You all, no doubt, have pride in your church and are anxious to see it go forward. Will you do your best to put it in the front ranks?

If you are not now using the envelopes kindly ask that a set be sent you at once.

Wanted—Men

Men with convictions and a will,
Men to take hold when others stand still,
Men independent of praise or of blame,
Men whose professions are not to their shame,
Men whose religion is vital and true,
Men who will give as they know they should do,
Men who on Sunday do not forget God,
Men to whom duty is not a barbed rod,
Men who feel shame for a half empty church,
Men whose neglect will not Christ's name besmirch,
Men who are challenged by things as they are,
To show that their manhood is not below par.

—From the Parish Leaflet Company.

Choir

The Easter Carol Service will be held in Holy Trinity Church Easter Sunday afternoon at 3.30 P. M. After this our choirs will have supper in the Guild House, as usual.

The choir boys are looking forward to giving a minstrel show very soon after Easter. That will no doubt be full of fun and pep.

Sunday Evenings

The special preachers on Sunday evenings will be:

March 6.—The Rev. William Y. Edwards, Rector of the Good Shepherd, Queen Lane Manor.

March 13.—The Rev. F. D. Ward, Rector of St. Elizabeth's.

March 20.—The Crucifixion will be sung by the choir. There will be no sermon.

March 27.—A special song service of celebrated Easter Hymns with address.

Lenten Services

Wednesday and Friday mornings at 10 A. M., Morning Prayer and Litany.

Thursday, 4 P. M., Evening Prayer and Address.

Wednesday and Friday evenings, 8 P. M., Evening Prayer and Address.

The remaining topics of the Rector's addresses on Friday evenings will be "Mary and Martha" —"He went to Bethany." Penitent—"Today thou shalt be with me."

Friday afternoons, 4:15 P. M., Children's Service in Holy Trinity Church. The addresses are given by Mr. Warfield.

Notes

Rev. Mr. Warfield preached in Church of Good Shepherd, Germantown, Sunday, February 20, and in the Prince of Peace, Thursday, March 3.

Rev. Mr. Smith preached in Chapel of Holy Communion Sunday evening, February 27.

Rev. Mr. Higgins preached for us Friday evening, February 25, in the absence of the Rector.

Rev. Joseph Morris preached for us Friday, March 4th, in the absence of the Rector.

It was a pleasure to welcome members of Franklin Lodge, F. and A. Masons, to a special service last Sunday morning. Mr. Warfield preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion and the choir sang "O Zion, Blest City," from the Templars' March, and "No Shadows Yonder," by Gaul.

The inclemency of the weather prevented many from attending. It is hoped, now once started, this will become an annual service of this kind. We wish to thank Mr. Charles Frost and Mr. Edmund Remble for their interest and efforts.

Flowers

During February flowers for the altar were given by Mr. Hoefflich, Mrs. A. Browning Caufield and Mrs. James Craig, in memory of her mother.

We would be glad to have the names of those who would like to give them for this month and also the dates.

Confirmation

We now have the names of five persons for the next confirmation class. We are looking forward to having a special class to present to the Bishop this spring. Those who were not ready in January will kindly bear this in mind and hand in their names so that a class may be formed.

Year Book

It is often quite difficult to get in the reports for the past year from the officers of the various organizations. This necessarily delays the issuing of our Year Book. The book is now in the hands of the printer and it is expected it will be ready for delivery about Easter.

Special Musical Service with address, 8 P. M.

Women's Auxiliary

Mrs. Maule presided at the February meeting. A very interesting address was given by Mrs. Pearson in relation to her work in the mountains of Virginia. We know Mrs. Pearson better by her maiden name, Miss Anna Williamson, who, before her recent marriage, was doing mission work at Ivy Depot. Mr. Persons is also a missionary in the Virginia mountains and is expecting to be ordained to the ministry shortly, which was delayed on account of his participation in the war. When they return to Virginia they will live at Elkins, to which place they have been recently assigned by their Archdeacon.

The rummage sale recently held for two days on South street yielded $59.60. An appropriation of $25 has recently been granted the Auxiliary to further some work brought to attention by the president.

Mothers' Meeting

After the meeting on Thursday the mothers have been during Lent attending in a body the afternoon service and participating in the singing.

It is expected the usual supper will be served Maundy Thursday to all of the mothers who can remain that they may attend co-operatively the evening celebration of the Holy Communion. It is hoped that all the mothers will be able to make arrangements at home that they may be here.

Chancel Guild

The Chancel Guild met twice during the month of February. The regular meeting was held as usual in the Sacristy on the evening of February 4. After the business meeting, a discussion ensued in regard to the allotment of the Lenten offering of the Guild, but no definite decision could be reached as so few of the members attended the meeting.

On February 21 a special meeting of the Guild was called at the residence of the chairman to announce the passing away on the 19th inst. of our beloved associate, Miss Isabelle Weir, and to extend as soon as possible our sympathy to her bereaved family.

Being the first break in our little circle which has kept very close together, her loss will be very much felt among us. Miss Weir's beautiful Christian spirit and gentle ways endeared her to us all.

Until almost the last moment she was looking forward to taking Easter Communion with us, which had been her custom. She had never missed an Easter and Christmas Communion for nine years—a marvelous record.

There will be a meeting of the Guild, as usual, on Friday, March 4, at 8 P. M.

The appointments on altar services for the month of March will be as follows:

8 A. M. service, Sunday, March 6.—Miss Mary McCloskey and Miss Gertrude Young.

11 A. M. Service during the month of March—Mrs. Walter Van Stan and Miss Jennie Long.

Little Helpers

A Valentine party was given by the Misses Donaghy for the Little Helpers on the Saturday nearest to Valentine Day. There was a large attendance and much fun. A Valentine pin-cushion in the form of a heart made by the children, to which finishing touches were added by the ladies, was sent home to each mother.

There will be another party the Saturday after Easter and we would like all the children to recite a piece or sing a song appropriate to that season. So, children, study up and see who can do the best.

Sunday School

The looked for entertainment by members of the School was given on the evening of Shrove Tuesday. It was a great success and was pronounced the best ever given. Much credit is due those who took part and those who assisted, for their attendance at rehearsals and determination in putting it through.

There were two playlets: "The Love of a Bonnet," and "Aunt Susan's Fortune." Those taking part in the former were the Misses Mildred Pruden, Edna Pruden, Birdie Pruden, Anna Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long. Those in the latter were Misses Ethel Ehman, Lena Long, Mary Evans, Anna Anthony, May Milliken, Birdie Pruden.

There was also a dramatic lullaby and dramatic reading.

The lullaby, "Japanese Sandman," was given by George Jarratt, Edith Hemmerley, Katherine and Alice Irwin, Ada Farley and Miss Edna Pruden.

Those in the Bachelor's Reverie were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long, the Misses Ethel Ehman, Mildren, Edna and Birdie Pruden, May Milliken, Anna Scott, Beatrice Smith, Helen Linder and Anna Anthony.

In addition to the plays the following took part: Duet, Miss Donaghy and Miss Smith; duet, Mrs. Cherry and Miss Wellington; solo, Mrs. McGirr; recitation, Katherine Irwin; solo, Mr. Ernest F. Potter.

The proceeds were for the Lenten offering and amounted to $69.71 to date, divided as follows: $35.05 contributions for tickets; $18.05 sale of ice cream; $23.82 sale of candy; $10.35 sale of cake; expenses to be deducted, $17.56. The scholars are expecting to give another play shortly after Easter.

The "Fatherless Children of France, Inc." through which we have for three years been contributing to a French orphan, has closed its organized work, but in so doing has issued a final appeal to the subscribers to continue personally their help. Through Philadelphia 5526 children were temporarily adopted.

Recent statistics show that in the Episcopal Church 90 out of every 100 churches and chapels are now free-seated. In 17 of our dioceses there are no rented pews. Year by year the number grows. Probably in part at least the duplex envelope has been supplying the source of income. If dependence was placed entirely on the plate collection some churches would fare badly, as the old lady said, it didn't cost anything in her church, their religion was free; or the little boy who said the sermon must have been poor for he say father put a nickel on the plate.

Old Trinity Church, New York, where pews have been rented for the past 220 years, has at last been made a free church.

Holy Trinity Memorial Chapel has always been free and there is always a place there for you. Are you occupying it?

It might be interesting to you to know that from October, 1919, to October, 1920, there were received into the Episcopal six ministers from other denominations, and for the past seven years 103 ministers have been received from the following denominations:

Methodist, 37; Presbyterian, 17; Baptist, 13; Congregationalist, 12; Roman Catholic, 9; Reformed Episcopal, 3; Other Denominations, 8.

It would be interesting to know how many laymen brought up in other denominations had in the same length of time been confirmed in the Episcopal Church. The historic Episcopal and the beautiful liturgical service count for a great deal.

The "Seven Words" spoken from the cross by Jesus:

1. Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.—St. Luke 23:34.

2. Today shalt thou be with Me in Paradise. St. Luke 23:43.

3. Behold thy Son. Behold thy mother. St. John 19:25-27.

4. My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me. St. Matt. 27:46; St. Mark 15:34.

5. I thirst. St. John 19:28.

6. It is finished. St. John 19:30.

7. Father into Thy hands I commend My spirit. St. Luke 23:46.

Lenten Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God, Who hatest nothing that Thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent, create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of Thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Editor's Column

On the evening of that first Easter Day our dear Lord appeared to His disciples, who had been so close to Him in His short ministry and in the events preceding His resurrection, and said to them, "Peace be unto you." They had been greatly disturbed and they needed that assuring and abiding peace.

Lent has passed. Those great 40 days are over. It should have brought to all of us many opportunities and privileges. It should have been to us a great help in our daily life. God grant that through it and the brightness and cheer of the Easter lesson there may be peace to us. The 40 days through which we are now passing lead us to the ascended Christ, to His God and our God.

"If ye then be risen with Christ seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." We have one great end—it is ours to reach and to tell about. "It is the instinct of grace to ascend."

What a privilege! What a blessing!

May we be stirred with the incentive to do what we can toward advancing in every possible way the work in our own chapel. It is a part of God's vineyard. Let us feel our responsibility.

Chancel Guild

A special meeting of the Chancel Guild was held in the sacristy on the evening of Maundy Thursday, March 25, directly after the corporate communion service. Nine members of the Guild were present at this service.

The Lenten offerings were presented at the business meeting, and after some discussion it was unanimously agreed to appropriate the generous amount collected toward some new book-markers for the Bible and a pulpit fall. We hope to have these finished by May 1.

The entire Chancel Guild were on duty at the four services on Easter Sunday, 7, 8, 11 A. M., 8 P. M.

The next meeting of the Chancel Guild will be held on Friday evening, April 29, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Mary McCloskey, Miss Anna Young, Miss Gertrude Young will serve at the 8 A. M. service during April.

Miss Louyse Warfield, Miss Gladys Williams, Mrs. John J. Dunlap, at the 11 A. M. services during April.

Women's Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary was held on the evening of March 31. Being in Easter week probably had some effect upon the attendance, as it was smaller than for some time. Mrs. Maule was present and brought to our attention an earnest appeal that had come through one of the meetings at the Church House in behalf of the daughter of a missionary, who had suddenly lost her mental power, which it is hoped will only be temporary.

We voted to send $5 as a mere mite toward her help. Ten dollars was also voted to be sent toward work at St. Luke's Hospital, in Tokyo, Japan. Fifteen dollars was given for the purchase of blankets through the Supply Bureau, to be sent to a missionary. Contributions and purchases through the Supply Bureau may be very helpful, but it has the effect of destroying the individuality of gifts, and boxes formerly sent direct from parishes and therefore decreasing the interest of the members and greatly lessening the quantity and value of those gifts. When a box went direct to some mission or missionary from an auxiliary there was necessarily established a bond of union and friendship between the two. We think the old way the better way.

Friday Night Guild

The attendance at this Guild has greatly increased of late. It is composed of girls in age between the Little Helpers and the Girls' Guild. About half an hour is spent in some easy sewing and an hour in games and dancing. Any girl over 7 years of age is eligible, whether she be a member of the Sunday School or not.

On Friday night after Easter a party was given, when there were 25 members present. For the winner of one of the games a prize was offered, which was carried off by Ada Farley.

Miss Long very generously placed at each place at the table, when refreshments were served, an attractive basket filled with Easter eggs. One choir boy mustered up sufficient courage to come in to visit us after the choir rehearsal, probably because his sister is one of our members. We all had a very happy evening.

The Girls' Guild

The spirit and enthusiasm of the members is fine. At present they are engaged in making some garments to be later given where there is need. The meeting is closed with the singing of a hymn and a prayer by Mr. Warfield. It is done then rather than at the opening, so that all of the members may be present, whereas at the opening some may be late.

Although Mrs. Frank Long has moved to Langhorne, she has not given up the Guild, but is always present. This should be an example to those who live much nearer, but all are very faithful in attendance.

As the entertainment just before Lent was so successful, another one is planned for this spring, to be combined with a strawberry festival. The play has been selected and the girls are now learning their parts.

Some of the girls sold chocolate eggs during Lent at their places of employment and added the revenue therefrom to the Lenten offering. The proceeds of the pre-Lenten play and sale of these eggs amounted to $80, which certainly was commendable.

On Tuesday evening after Easter Mrs. Albert Anthony, as hostess, gave the Guild a dinner at the Guild House at 6:30 o'clock. An excellent roast beef dinner was served, to which all did justice. Rev. Mr. Warfield and Rev. Mr. Smith dined with us, but Mrs. Warfield, having guests at the vicarage, was unable to attend. There were 22 at the table. Later in the evening, after music and games, refreshments were served and all present were presented by Miss Long with a large chocolate egg.

Some of the girls think that next season they might be able to form a basketball team, as some have become quite expert in passing the ball. The Misses E. P. and A. S. are applicants for the positions of manager and captain. Any eligible girls who are not members certainly miss something.

Rev. W. Winthrop Smith, who for the past three or four months has been temporarily assisting Mr. Warfield, has accepted the assistantship at St. John's Free Church, Kensington, and entered upon his duties Lord Sunday. Mr. Smith's happy disposition and affable manner made him much liked by all of us and we wish him much success in his new position.

This year will mark the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the church. It is hoped that all parishes in the country will observe October 30 or some Sunday near that date as Centennial Sunday.

We take the following table from the April number of "The Church at Work," in the hope that it may be interesting to all and an incentive to many:

	Number of Com- muni- cants	Am't per com- muni- cants	Total Offerings	Am't of offerings per cent.
1882, the 1st year,	28,500	$ 4,476	4,476	16
1847, the 25th year,	68,550	51,130	51,130	76
1872, the 50th year,	251,670	218,521	218,521	87
1897, the 75th year,	641,951	312,491	312,491	49
1919, the 98th year,	1,085,068	1,424,997	1,424,997	131
1920, the 99th year,	1,096,895	3,027,518	3,027,518	276

It is to be noted that the increase made in 1920 was equal to all the progress made in the previous 98 years.

How to Make a Church Prosper

Attend all the services regularly. If it rains or snows, make a special effort to be there.

Invite someone else to go with you. You will be surprised how many people are eager to accept your invitation.

Think of the services, speak of them to others, and pray that they may be attended with divine blessing.

Pray for each member, as far as you may know them, especially for the sick and poor.

Pray for the rector. His usefulness will be greatly increased by the daily prayers of his people.

Note the absence of members, not to criticise or find fault, but to show the proper attention in case they are sick or to encourage them if they are cast down, to restore them if they are wandering.

Speak to the strangers and invite them to come again.—Christ Church Chronicle, St. Paul, Minn.

Bohlen Lectures

On the Monday afternoons of April 11, 18, 25 and May 2 at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. Drown, professor of Divinity in the Cambridge Theological School, will deliver in Holy Trinity Parish House the Bohlen Lectures upon the subject, "The Creative Christ: A Study of the Incarnation in Terms of Modern Thought." A cordial invitation is extended to all of our members and their friends. Dr. Drown was one of Mr. Warfield's professors when he was a student in the same seminary and some of the theology he imbibed there he has preached in the chapel. Dr. Vernon, the rector of St. Mark's Church, was also a student there at the same time. We extend to Dr. Drown a hearty welcome to Philadelphia and to our parish. Be sure to go to hear him.

The 137th convention of this diocese will be held May 3 in the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany. It generally lasts two days.

Sunday School

Inasmuch as the Sunday before Easter came on the third Sunday of the month, which is the regular time for our monthly Sunday School service in the church, we sang our carols then. The rite of baptism was also administered. Then on the afternoon of Easter Day our school joined with other schools of the parish in singing the carols in Holy Trinity Church. There were more Easter messages recited by scholars this year than usual and a new feature was introduced by the rector in having all of these messengers robed in cassock and cotta. Another new feature was the presentation of Easter lilies, a member of each class carrying in procession a lily to the chancel immediately following the bearers of the offertory.

After the service both of our choirs returned to the Guild House, where supper was served to 45 people, 45 of whom belonged to the Vesper Choir.

Our mite-boxes were returned the Sunday after Easter.

The proceeds of the entertainment and the sale of candy were for the Lenten offering and amounted to $80.08—much larger than it was last year. Some mite-boxes have not yet been returned, but so far our offering amounts to $275.55, of which $15.36 was our share from the plate collection at Holy Trinity Church at the carol service.

Ruth Norris has the honor of having the largest offering in her mite-box. She also held this honor last year.

Flowers

During March flowers for the altar were given by M's. Emma Miller, Mrs. Walter Anthony and Mr. Hochflich.

So far in April only two Sundays have been provided for. We hope that our friends will not forget them and present them as a memorial or thank offering. They serve the triple purpose—as a memorial, beautifying the Lord's House and cheering some sick person after the services. Kindly consult the chairman of the Chapel Guild for open dates. The chairman is Mrs. W. Goodell Clark, No. 2211 Spruce street. Phone, Locust 3176.

Can you punctuate the following so that they will make intelligent sentences? The arrangement of the words is correct. Try it: It was and he said not or. Thot that is is that that is not is not is not that so.

Mothers' Meeting

As has been customary for some years past, the mothers had a supper in the Guild House Maundy Thursday, after which they attended in body the evening celebration. There were only 11 present, the evening being a rainy one, but all enjoyed the good supper, which this year was prepared by Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Gilbert. The evening service was well attended and 60 partook of the Lord's Supper. This was larger than last year.

Little Helpers

Miss Harriet Inch is now very kindly helping the Misses Donaghy with the Little Helpers Saturday afternoons. But this work has this season grown to such proportions that the assistance of one or two more young ladies would be very advantageous. It ought to be even larger, for there are some of our own children who live nearby who have not yet joined and still others who, though they do not strictly belong to the chapel, would be welcome and learn that which would strengthen their Christian citizenship later on in life.

There was a "party" on the Saturday after Easter, at which the attendance was 55. The Guild House rang with merriment and when it came to the "eats" there was quiet for a brief period. Many enjoyed a third helping to ice cream and we really think some could have eaten more. But we haven't heard of any sickness.

For some while past the children had been serving post cards into baskets upon which the ladies put some necessary touches. These, containing eggs and a chicken, were given the children to take home at the close of the party. It was a "big day."

Miss Harris, a friend of the Misses Donaghy, was present and very kindly donated all of the chickens.

From the regularity of the attendance it looks as though there would be more than one first prize at the close of the season for not having missed one afternoon. The prizes will be awarded the last Saturday in May.

Confirmation

Please keep in mind the second confirmation which we are hoping to have this spring. As soon as the Bishop is able to appoint a time for visitation the date of instructions will be announced.

Easter Services

Easter day was bright and warm. The church was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and blooming plants. These, as usual, were afterward taken to sick, shut-in and workers of the chapel. The services were well attended. The choir did its best. At the 7 o'clock service there were 24 communicants; at 8 o'clock 50, and at 11 o'clock 96, making the total larger than it was last year. The evening service was a special one of song, consisting of Easter carols taken from the New Hymnal.

People are gradually becoming familiar with the wealth and beauty of the New Hymnal. By degrees Mr. Potter is using the hymns not contained in the old hymnal. A supplement to the new hymnal has recently been issued in pamphlet form, consisting of 29 pages, giving a wide selection of music for the communion office, including the setting of John Merbecke, published in 1550. No doubt Mr. Peter will be making use of this in the near future. Congregational singing is again becoming popular and it is hoped our members will try to familiarize themselves with the musical parts of the service and join heartily in the singing.

The following clipping—we forget from where—may interest our Sunday School scholars:

The Bible contains 3,506,480 letters, 773,740 words, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters and 66 books. The word "and" occurs 46,277 times. The word "Lord" occurs 1,855 times. The word "reverend" occurs but once, which is in the ninth verse of the 111th Psalm. The middle verse of the Bible is the 8th verse of the 118th Psalm. The 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter J. The 19th chapter of Second Kings and the 37th chapter of Isaiah are alike. There are no words or names of more than six syllables.

The basketball season has closed. While our boys had a good season, the percentage of success was not as large as last year. The Juniors also did well and were generally booked for a game the same evening as the older boys.

The use of the room has been lent one evening each week to a group of boys from Phillips Brooks Chapel, as they have no room available for their purpose in their own building. We are glad to be helpful to other parts of our big parish.

The glad earth shouts her triumph high;
And groaning hell makes wild reply:

While He, the King, the mighty King,
Despoiling death of all its sting,
And trampling down the powers of might,
Brings forth His ransomed saints to light.
Jesus, the King of gentleness,
Do Thou, Thyself, our hearts possess,

Editor's Column

May 1 is St. Philip and St. James' Day. This coupling of the Apostles illustrates the unity that should exist among those who are faithful and in which unity they should continue to glorify that same Lord and Master.

For a parallel instance we have St. Simon and St. Jude's Day, falling in October. Jesus sent out disciples two by two to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom. It is at least a suggestion for a continuance of that loving friendship and encouragement which is so helpful when it is mutual. In these modern days, when there is so much competition and rivalry in one way or another, it is a much-needed lesson. The spirit of the age is unsympathetic and often exacting to a degree, which is frequently reflected in the Church, and tends to lessen the charity which should exist there. So noticeable was the fellowship of the early Christians that the heathen remarked: "See how these Christians love one another." Those were the days when "mighty grew the Word of God and prevailed."

Our faith in Him should never grow dim nor our love wane for Him who came to draw all men unto Himself, and sent forth one brother to carry love to another brother.

In the New Testament there is mention of several men by name of Philip—one is the one here remembered, a member of the apostolic band, and another the one who, when the Apostles found it necessary to appoint seven men of good report and full of the Holy Spirit, was one of these deacons.

Peter the Apostle is mentioned in Gospels and Acts in the Apostolic catalogue, but beyond that we have to confine our attention to the Gospel of St. John. The fourth day after the return of Christ from the wilderness He wished to go to Galilee and it was then He met a young fisherman named Philip. Of the Apostles, Philip alone had a Greek name. Dean Farrow suggests he may have been named after the tetrarch of that name, according to custom then so often used. Philip was from Bethsaida, the home town of Andrew and Peter. When Jesus saw Philip, He said, "Follow Me." Philip obeyed. The day before this Jesus in talking to two men invited them to come and see where He dwelt. One of those was Andrew. The other may have been Philip. Philip hurries to find Nathaniel, and says to him: "We have found Him of whom Moses did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph." Then Nathaniel asked, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip replied, "Come and see." Philip had made a discovery; he had met with an experience; he wishes to share it. This prerogative should be exercised that our friends may be sharers of what has proven helpful to us. Nathaniel came and he saw.

Again we read of him in connection with the feeding of the five thousand. Maybe our Lord asked Philip in the face of others where they could buy food, because He knew his faith could stand such a test and hence strengthen the faith of others. An exhibit of confidence is often a great help.

After Christ's entry into Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday, some Greeks came to Philip inquiring where they might see Jesus. Again he is the means of showing what good thing could come out of Nazareth.

On another occasion Jesus gently rebukes Philip, when, in talking about the hope of Heaven and the Father, Philip says, "Shew us the Father and it sufficeth us," in that question, "have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip?"

Only once more is his name mentioned; it is after the resurrection, when the disciples decided to elect some one to fill the place "from which Judas by transgression fell." Tradition says he suffered martyrdom by being hanged.

How many people ask in one form or another Nathaniel's question, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" At the time it was first asked Philip gave one answer. That same answer now holds good: "Come and see." He knew what avenues of heart and mind would be opened, what developments of character there would be. "Come and see" the changes wrought during the centuries since Christ walked here in human flesh.

When you, as it were, are sitting under the fig tree, burdened with cares, griefs, doubts and clouds have darkened the sky, then "come and see." At times, too, there may come that gentle admonition with a touch of pained surprise, but with no anger, "Have I been so long time with you and yet hast thou not known Me?"

"O shame upon thee, listless heart,
So sad a sigh to heave,
As if thy Saviour had no part
In thoughts that make thee grieve."

Chancel Guild

The Chancel Guild held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, April 29, in the Sacristy. Only four members were present. Miss Mary McCloskey, Miss Jennie Long, Miss Gertrude Young and Miss Mary Weir.

Miss Emma Young very kindly came to represent her sister, who is still out of the city. The new red vestments for book marks and pulpit fall were on exhibition, and the chairman regretted the small attendance at the "first view" of them. They will be used the first Sunday in May, which is the day on which St. Philip and St. James have their apportioned place in the church calendar.

These beautiful hangings were purchased by the members of the Chancel Guild, who pledged themselves to save a certain sum, by exercising a little self-denial during the six weeks of Lent. It may be remembered that two years ago they provided the green outfit for the Sundays after Trinity, and last year they devoted their Lenten offering toward the purchase of the new pulpit.

The chancel appointments for the month of May and first Sunday in June are as follows:

8 A. M.—The Misses Young and Miss Mary McCloskey.

11 A. M.—Miss Jennie Long, Mrs. John J. Dunlap and Mrs. Walter Van Starr.

11 A. M., June 5—Miss Louise Warfield and Miss Williams.

The regular monthly meeting of the Guild will be on the evening of Friday, May 27, at 8 o'clock, and a full attendance is expected.

Little Helpers

The work this past month has gone along the usual lines. The attendance has been large at each meeting, so keen is the interest of the children.

The older girls are at present engaged in making dolls' clothes and knitting a blanket. The smaller children are pasting pictures, cutting them out, stringing beads and such-like things which appeal to them. It is quite astonishing how rapidly some of this work is accomplished.

On Saturday morning, May 7, the children's annual meeting will be held in the new Church House on Rittenhouse Square. At that time one of our older girls will read the report of our winter's work. We wish to thank Miss Burk for her kindness in presenting us with the Easter baskets for our party at that time; also other people who from time to time have sent us magazine pictures, pieces of materials and wool, and the beautiful little dresses, which were a great help to some of our little people.

Sometimes our members bring guests who at the time are visiting them. These little visitors we are glad to receive and hope there will be more. We are looking forward to having a picnic at the playground in Fairmount Park before we break up for the season. The closing service and exercises with the distribution of the prizes to those who have not missed a Saturday during the season will be held May 28. We would like all the little people to learn a piece or song for that occasion.

Some of our girls will next fall be old enough to form a Junior Auxiliary, and it is hoped at that time some young woman will offer her services to take charge of this branch of the work.

Women's Auxiliary

The seventeenth annual service for the presentation of the United Thank Offering from the women of the diocese was held April 28 in the Chapel of the Mediator. The vicar, the Rev. Mr. Osgood, preached the sermon. The Bishop of the diocese was the celebrant. Miss Helen Donaghy, treasurer for our chapel, represented our branch and presented our offering, amounting to $20.55, contributed by twelve members.

At the April meeting the Auxiliary made a report on different appeals, which have been sent to the Church House. It was voted that our treasurer send $5 toward insurance of a missionary, $5 to the Home for the Homeless, an institution for colored people on Fitzwater street; $10 to a consumptive home in Arizona and $25 to Mr. and Mrs. Persons for their new work at Yancy, Virginia.

Sixteen dollars and fifty cents was used in purchasing from the Supply Bureau of the diocese blankets and other things for the Consumptive Home at Chestnut Hill.

The May meeting, which will be the last one of the season, will be more of a social character, with music and singing. We all appreciate the interest and efforts of our president and hope to have her with us again in the fall, at which time we also hope to increase the membership, as there are many of the chapel who ought to connect themselves with the Auxiliary.

Lenten Offering

The annual service for the presentation of the Lenten offering was held in Holy Trinity Church last Sunday. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Toop and Bishop Cook, of Delaware, and a short pageant was given by a group of children. The offering was $47,000, but as some schools had not yet sent in their offering, it was thought it would reach $50,000 when they were heard from. Our parish gave $1291.88, as follows: Holy Trinity, $817; Memorial Chapel, $285.60; Prince of Peace, $1035.86; Philips Brooks, $153.42.

A good many of our scholars have taken boxes for next year.

Stop! Look! Listen!

Wednesday Evening, June 1, 1921, 8 P. M.

The First day of June,

You know is real soon,
And we're going to give a Wedding
In the Sunday School room.

You can't miss this swell affair,
Because it surely will be rare!
The Bride and Groom you all will know,
But to find their names come to the show.

The price of admission is what you feel it is worth.
I know you will like it, so please bring your purse.

After the Wedding, just follow the pair,
And they will lead you to another affair.

There will be refreshments for sale and dancing in the Guild House for the young people.

Little House of Saint Pantaleon

In so frequently renewing their aid, the friends of the Little House are reminded that, when accompanied by want, the journey through childhood is long. Godparents who began their adoptions when their orphans were very small usually—and very truly—feel that, if possible, the aid should be continued till the children are 15 years old.

A few years' aid is very helpful; but the completion of the task means so very much more—it means a child saved to its mother, a young, hopeful and vigorous citizen saved to the Republic on a continent where true Republics need every citizen.

Last fall, after questioning one of the widowed mothers who was sitting in the patched-up ruins of her home, she answered, "Since you ask me, I will tell you. Desperation makes me frank. You should know that we have small hopes of the German indemnities. They will be held up as long as possible, and, if paid at all, paid as slowly as possible. Meantime, the delicate among us will succumb amid these hardships—another German victory and provision for the next war. What have we to rely on? Many of us have chiefly your American aid—beg your members to continue until their orphans are old enough to leave grammar school, to decently earn their bread. Let the cry of desperate French mothers reach your ears—of what use is it to feed a child 2 years old for three, four or even five years if it is eventually to be left to perish from malnutrition? Every year a child grows dearer to a mother's heart. Each year we wait with trepidation, with anxiety you cannot measure, to see if your aid is to be continued. If the burden of 10 cents daily be too heavy on the American godparent, beg her, beg him, to find another or a group of others to take up the task lest the former he p go for nothing and our children die."

With tears in her eyes, the mother added: "You pressed me for this answer. You asked me to forget pride and tell the truth—you are here, you can see that I have told it."

Had the war been fought in America, war-relief societies would not have suspended work either temporarily or permanently. They would be working on the very sites of disaster, and could see with their own eyes the need for their help. It is not generous hearts, it is not sympathy, which is lacking here; it would seem to be more often lack of realization, of knowledge.

A society working for a devastated America, for example, would not close because Eastern Pennsylvania had recovered from war. It would transfer its energies, let us say, to the poor whites of the Southern mountains, where poverty having existed long, recovery from war would be correspondingly slow. It is on this principle of adaptation to changing need that the Little House has worked—going where it has been needed, sending little where little is required, and redoubling its efforts and gifts where needs are great.

Another principle of the Society is to accomplish its work with the least possible expenditure of money. Through the generosity of its members and friends, the problem of overhead expense has been solved by the method of elimination. In other words, not a cent of the Little House's running expenses comes out of its treasury. For example, the secretary's salary for several years was generously donated by Mr. Albert E. McVitty. The secretary himself saved the expense of a stenographer by giving many extra hours. Mr. George L. Tallman has from the first provided without cost the transport of Last Sunday evening the fourth anniversary of the Mole Choir was observed by a special musical service and an address by Mr. Warfield. We extend to Mr. Potter congratulations and wish him much success in the future.

There have been some changes in our Chapel Committee for this year. The names of the new members are given elsewhere.

The Rev. Mr. Reese, rector of St. Matthew's exchanged pulpits with Mr. Warfield the evening of the third Sunday after Easter. The evening of the Sunday after Ascension the Rev. Charles Long, rector of Zion Church, will preach at the Chapel.

Confirmation

Lectures in the preparation of candidates for confirmation are given Sunday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the Church. Bishop Garland has signified his willingness to give us a second visitation, although at present he is unable to set a definite date, but it will probably be early in June. All those wishing to join the class are requested to attend regularly the lectures.

Sunday School

The monthly service will be held in the Church the third Sunday, May 15, at which time awards will be given to those scho'ars who for attendance last year have merited them. It is also the proper time for baptism.

Miss Spencer and Miss Trafton, who for the past two years have had charge of the primary department, have had to give up that work to prepare for their final examinations at the Deaconess' House, at which both are students. Miss Spencer will before long go to Japan and Miss Trafton will enter upon a course of training at the Episcopal Hospital, to become a nurse, at the completion of which she, too, expects to take up work in a foreign mission field. We regret much that it is necessary for us to lose them. We greatly appreciate their faithfulness, loyalty and ability, and extend to them our best wishes in more important fields in the Master's vineyard.

We hope that in the fall Deaconess Carler, of the Deaconess' House, will be able to send us two other young ladies. In the meanwhile, we are greatly in need of some one or two bodies to carry on this very important branch of our school. Are there not some members of the congregation who will be willing to come forward at once and help us?

Mother's Meeting

The closing meeting of this organization for the season will be held with appropriate exercises the last Thursday of this month. It is hoped that all of the members will make an effort to be present at every meeting until that time.

They are now on the second bolt of toweling in the last few weeks. This has been sold very rapidly. Members of the congregation may purchase towels at the rate of twenty cents per yard. Apply to any of the members.

our cases to the station where they are sent to the agent of the French Government. Dr. Tomkins and Mr. Warfield have very kindly allowed us to have a packing-room and a work-room in the Guild House, and the French Republic transports without charge the cases to their destination in France. Thus, from these important things to the last nail for the cases and the stamps for the letters, no overhead expense comes out of the Little House's treasury.

Not only does every donation go to France, but every sou is made to do industrious work. The Society is happy in possessing members and donors who, being in business, can and do help us so that our moneys may buy as much as possible. Everything is bought at wholesale, in "lots" when opportunity occurs cheaper than the regular wholesale rates. For example, the Little House was recently able to buy an odd lot of women's topcoats for $2 each, and some good, rough coats for children for $3 each. Thus American money is spent in American markets for the greatest possible aid of France.

Hearty Congregational Singing at Holy Trinity

The "evening to increase interest in congregational singing" at Holy Trinity Church on April 20 was a marked success. Professor P. E. Lutkin, Mus. Doc., dean of the Musical Department of the Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., conducted it, engaging the instant attention of the entire congregation by his magnetic personality and sincere interest in his subject, as well as by his thorough knowledge of its details.

Mr. Ralph Kinder played in his well-known matchless style, using the two noble organs of Holy Trinity so effectively that the congregation could not fail to be carried along by their solid tone.

The men's choir of St. Mark's Church gave some fine interpretations of a few historic plain-song settings, beautifully accompanied on the organ by their leader, Mr. Andrew Wheeler.

Dr. J. De Wolf Perry, of Calvary Church, Germantown, chairman of the Standing Committee, opened the service. Mr. E. H. Bonsall, vice president of the Church Club, introduced Professor Lutkin and Dr. Washburne, rector of Old Christ Church, closed with prayers and benediction.
